

60 ~~2.5~~

My dear Robert K.

St. de Vth

In consequence of your talking off your request about money, who take a moment, and my not returning home until after the time you mentioned, I have not known what was about it. And I fear I could

In consequence of your putting off your request about money, I do not take a moment, and my not returning home until after the time you
mentioned, I have not known what was about it. And I fear I send it you with this: feeling that so change a letter is not unlikely we opened at any rate. For a post office order there is no hind. Therefore, as you say nothing on the subject, I think it best not to send it. Of course you can have it, when you arrive.

Kate and Lecky send their loves to all. Kate is not poor, and keeps at home. There was some talk of a Macdonald hamper. Of that we've sent. Some friend in human shape has got it. For we haven't.

The Carol is a prodigious success. In haste always affects CD