THE NORTH CAROLINA STEEL AND IRON COMPANY.

The North Carolina Steel and Iron Company, a corporation organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of North Carolina, and having its principal place of business in the City of Greensboro, in the County of Guilford, said State, for value received acknowledges itself indebted to the bearer in the sum of which it promises to pay in gold coin of the present standard of weight and fineness, on the first day of October in the year One Thousand and Nine Hundred and Two, at the National Bank of Greensboro, N. C., or at the office of the Company, together with interest from date at rate of Six per cent for annum, payable at either of said places semi-annually on the first days of April and October in each year following the date hereof, until the maturity of the bond upon the presentation and surrender of the annexed coupons as they respectively fall due. This bond is one of a series of one thousand bonds of like tenor and date amounting in the aggregate to One Thousand One Hundred and Fifty Dollars, issued by said Company, and each of said bonds is duly executed and attested by a representative of the Company, and the payment of principal and interest thereon is secured by a mortgage on all real estate, mines, minerals, crops, furnaces, machinery and so forth therein more fully described in said mortgage, or deed of trust having been duly probated and recorded in Book _____ page _____ of the Register of Deeds office for Guilford County, said State, and in Book _____ page _____ of the Register of Deeds office for Chatham County, said State, and in Book _____ page _____ of the Register of Deeds office for Mecklenburg County, said State. The said North Carolina Steel and Iron Company reserves the right to pay this bond or any of said series of bonds at any time after the first day of October 1897 by paying or tendering the principal amount of said bond together with a premium of two per cent, and accrued interest.

In Witness Whereof the said North Carolina Steel and Iron Company has caused this bond to be signed by its President and Secretary, and its corporate seal to be hereunto affixed, this first day of October, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Ninety Two.
