Attn: S. A. Douglass Esq

Dear Sir - The bearer of this, Thomas J. Kelly, has been a clerk in our post office for several years, & as I learn, from his friends has won for himself a high reputation for industry, integrity & capacity. He is anxious to return to Ireland, his native land, & before going, to obtain a consulship to Galway or Limerick. He is desirous to obtain your influence, for that purpose. I think I can safely say, you will have no reason to regret any aid you may afford him in a matter of so much importance to himself, as a testimonial of the high regard in which he has been held in his adopted country.

Your aid & influence in his regard will confer a favor upon him & be kindly & gratefully remembered by

Yrs sincerely

Will you do me the favor to read the enclosed letter. I will not fatigue you with a recapitulation of any part of its contents, but would state that the writer is my nephew, and is a very worthy young man; and that if you can consistently give your influence to the promotion of his object, you will confer a very great favor on me.

I am afraid that the family of my deceased brother in law are left without any provision for their support, and unless my nephew can shortly attain some position in which he can contribute to their maintenance, I do not see what they are to do.

Please enclose me the letter after you have read it, and oblige

Dear Daughter

I slept with Horner a day found him a sprightly man since your time found, but I think his course is calculated to ruin himself & damage you. I think he has so concert him he is playing either for the Whigs or Friends to be elected by the Republican Party. I think I have satisfied you that you were sure of being nominated & elected & by his course he had every thing to loose & nothing to gain but that a course calculated to promote your interest would place him on much higher ground. He has agreed to change his policy in such a way as it should no longer damage you he agrees with me that you should at once & prop you views of the cap Nat[uralization] doctrine that you should not wait until fifty forth rate men took ground against the doctrine

To Horner's Daughter

Truly yours

J. H. Dyer

Bloomington, July 15th, 1837.

Hon. J. A. Douglas:

My dear Sir:— Your favor of the 8th inst., asking information as to Dr. John A. Hart's Democracy, was duly received, and I have only delayed an answer thus long for the purpose of enabling myself to state clearly and unequivocally that he is a Democrat, pure and uncontaminated, and I believe that his fidelity to the party has never been suspected. Dr. Fell, the present is also a good Democrat and has given satisfaction so far as I know anything about it.

If the people of Lexington have pretended for his removal, it is good proof that they desire a change, but aside from this evidence, I have none other before me. I should not like to ask the removal of Dr. Fell, unless for good reasons specified; still, were I asked to sign a petition for the appointment of Dr. Hart, I shall certainly comply with the request.

There is at present much dissatisfaction expressed with the way business is managed in the Bloomington Post office, and I am strongly urged to apply for it. Both parties, I am told, are circulating petitions asking the President to confer the appointment upon me, and they insist upon it that I must write to you for aid in my behalf. All that I am not and never have been, of my own accord, an applicant for office; I neither seek nor decline, and therefore shall not ask the President to remove the present incumbent for any benefit; nor will I ask him to give me any appointment whatever. If 25 years hard fighting for Democratic principles will not give me a little appointment in my old age, I shall certainly not beg the President to confer it upon me; but will quietly await the coming of 1860, when I can do service for one whom I feel confident will not be unmindful of services rendered. I have often regretted that the nomination did not fall upon you instead of Mr. Andover-ton, but I am consoled with the belief that in 1860, there will be no opposition to your claims. You can rely upon my services in that contest and I can promise both you and myself a victory.

My friends say that because this is a hard place in which to sustain a Democratic paper, the Post office patronage should be given to the editor. Will you please let me know confidentially, what you think of the propriety of asking for the desired change? so that I may prevent my friends, moving in the matter, in case such move be deemed improper.

Dear Riffen

Yours of 11th was yesterday received & contents noted. The Post Mastership seems to hang fire & by some way Taylor has mind that something is doing but don't know who is doing it unless in his old way he has snatched some letters of mine to you or yours to me but I hardly think that yet something has stirred them up & there is a holiday on as Helder when here two weeks since told me that the thing would probably be settled at once & the P.M. General told Slaw that it would probably be attended to within one week & that was 4 weeks ago. Taylor is doing all he can for Taylor by writing letters to Washington & getting others to do the same but Slaw has altogether the strongest endorsement about here & indeed as you know he is a man of character & a personal friend of mine & would go through fire to serve me & I feel a great interest in the matter. The Post feels delicate about asking so much of you but writes if you will & can that you be tangible at the earliest possible convenience & get from him the strongest letter he will write say to him that Mr. Garrison was introduced to Mrs Anna at Washington by Redden & that he espoused her cause like a brother.

I went before the Department for him. Judge Douglas will of course know who to address & you can assure him first of Shaws Character & popularity as a man & his ~~out~~ & ~~out~~ shortly with the Democratic party & that his appointment will if made, be a judicious one. all this you can assume true And further you can assure him of A Taylor first what you know of him & that he is a ~~thorough~~ nothing as unknown to the officers of that order & the affidavits on or file at Washington John D Stephens being one & at the head of that party. Mates & Livingston another. There are now you know a aside from these midnight Politics one more of honesty & integrity. & I know that the two past years that Clark or those so reported here as a body supported him ^{to town office} & it is known to that he has told them that from the position he occupied he must keep still although he was with them as ever all this year can tell the Judge & it is inevitable & to hope he & this community will find relief in his being relieved from a post he never ought to have filled.
I telegraphed you this morning & written fearing the dispatch might not reach you & because lack of promptness may defeat the whole thing

I wish you would write Redden also & assure him perfect confidence in him although Taylor & Tyler ^{undoubtedly} have both affected to him Taylor by letter & Tyler in person when Redden was here & Taylor urged him about what he had said to him as he knew that Redden had been at my house the only private house he entered while in town but enough so what you can & keep up a silence & will pick that out quick as possible

Now about family matters I do feel, & we all do, to regret that your Leonard mother was entreated by her journey. He had taken the reverse & to hope that after the effect of fatigue she will be as well & better for her rest It greatly gratified us to hear ~~it~~ ^{it} & we should like to see Leon Lewis wife & we would like to see your Father yes we would & James yes Ella also & last that Illinois Lilly. It is all clear & I must stop so God Bless you all

We waited several days for the number of copies of the speech ordered at the Republican Office by Mr. Preston, relative to which I wrote you, but learned from Messrs Clemon & Rapp that you had countermanded the order, we then printed the number you directed as to print for this district, and they are now being circulated - 20,000 copies. I am sorry that you did

Sir.

Personally unacquainted yet familiar with your name and your fame I began with pride the position occupied by the giant son of Vermont. Wis Sir, only in consideration of the patriotic tie of Green Mountain brotherhood that I can look to you as at all likely to be interested in my "unpublished tale". Yet if I do not mistake, although the citizen of a Sister State, your heart still burns with filial love for your native land and will beat a friendly impulse in answer to the call of a true "Green Mountain boy". With your kind indulgence I will proceed in few words as possible to tell my simple story and if after the recital you can lend me a helping hand I shall look upon myself as done and shall feel under obligation which if I can never be able to repay I can quiet my conscience by scoring down in the "book of family favor."

I am a native of this place of respectable parentage, a graduate of Middlebury College and also a graduate of the Medical University of New York, about thirty years of age. I have been in Europe most of the time for a few years past, was in St Petersburg in summer of 1855, obtained there a Commission as Major Surgeon in the Russian Army and was stationed at Odessa on the Black Sea in Hospital factory during the winter and spring of 1856.

I had the good fortune while at Odessa to meet a young lady of very excellent family native of that city and relative of the distinguished General Lippmann.
I then resigned my Commission and returned across the Continent to France and England and thence last fall to America.
I wish now to gratify my wife, whose family resides at Odessa, by obtaining the appointment of United States Consul at that port and return to reside there.
Mr Smalley, Mr Stoughton, Mr Chase and other principal men of the Democratic party in this State have recommended me for that office and I wish also to have your assistance. The present Consul at Odessa, Mr John Kelli, is a Greek Merchant who understands but little of our language and who intrusts the business of the Consulate to an Englishman by the name of Perkins. It is he who writes the letters keeps the books and does whatever business there may be to be done. Mr Kelli is one of an extensive mercantile company of brothers who have eleven or twelve houses in different parts of Europe and Asia, who acting in concert possess considerable influence and are reputed rich. One of their houses is in St Petersburg, one in Constantinople, one in Tiberian &c. By some influence brought to bear upon our Minister at St Petersburg he has I am surely recommended and secured the high recommendation of Senator and others for the retention of Mr Kelli as Consul.

Now, I appeal to you whether this is really American? I should be glad to get your powerful aid in countering such recommendation. Our Minister at St Petersburg has never seen Mr Kelli.
His good opinion and good offices have been secured from letters written by the English Perkins acting as Consul and from representations made to him from other sources.
I know this to be the fact both from our Minister and Mr Kelli and Perkins. There is in reality no better reason for the retention of Mr Kelli contrary to the terms of the recent diplomatic and Consular law than there is for the retention of other foreigners transacting mercantile business and holding like offices in other places. There is nothing to be said against Mr Ralli, nothing particular in his praise. He is a man about forty years of age, is as attentive and as much so to American's strict code, than Consuls are elsewhere. He is a respectable man and has a better reputation than generally attaches to that class of Greeks.

I make the only issue, he is a foreigner and I am American Citizen, a Vermonter. It would be circumstances you can do anything to further my wishes you can by doing so gratify my mind. You sincere and humble friend and obedient servant

A Fine Brass and Cotillion Band will accompany the Boat for the entertainment of the Passengers, and nothing will be wanting to ensure the greatest variety of pleasure and comfort which could be desired.

The above Steamer is NOT SURPASSED, in point of SPEED AND ACCOMMODATIONS, by any Boat on the Lakes. She is built for this particular trade, is over 1100 Tons Burthen, is fast, staunch and new. She performs her trips with surprising regularity, and is so well appointed and furnished as to make her a PALACE HOME to the pleasure traveler.

The LAKE SUPERIOR ROUTE, in the Summer season, is altogether the most picturesque, healthful and delightful to be found on the American Continent. It contains the grand, the beautiful and the useful; and bids fair to be one of the most fashionable resorts in the United States. It includes in its circuit the Detroit, St. Clair, and St. Mary's Rivers; Lakes St. Clair, Huron and Superior; the beautiful Island of Mackinac, the Pictured Rocks, Marquette, Eagle River, Eagle Harbor, Copper Harbor, Ontonagon, La Pointe and Superior City, besides many other localities of great interest and attractive scenery.

To the Invalid, the cool and bracing climate will be highly salubrious, while sportsmen find the facilities for fishing and hunting of the most inviting character.

The Copper and Iron Mines, the leading business interest of this region, will always continue to attract the enterprising and scientific to their vicinity, and the new and easy communication by the Saut Ste Marie Canal, has made the voyage one of uninterrupted comfort and pleasure.

Rooms secured for the round trip (time 8 days, distance 2000 miles,) by addressing

S. & A. TURNER, Cleveland, Ohio.
