Hon Mr Douglas— I write to say that your course is highly approved. not only every democrat but reading republicans are now calling for your old speeches on this subject. Their prejudices have kept them from reading them before, and now are both to believe that your present course is but a recapitulation and summing up of the whole course that you have pursued. This last act seemed a necessary step in order to bring the great and fundamental principle of our government to the reasoning view of the mass— only carry out this measure of popular sovereignty in Kansas and all is right.— By supporting ~~it~~ you have secured it to yourself

M^r. Douglass,

Wash^g D^C

Respected Sir: -

It is an exceedingly delicate matter for a young lady to write a letter to a gentleman whom she has never seen; and were I not fully aware of the fact that you will not consider it at all amiss when I make known the subject to yourself, then would the pen be thrown aside. For some time your name has been proclaimed throughout the columns of every paper my eye chances to rest upon, and though we are extremely antagonistic in our views upon the subject of "Slavery," I feel confident it will not in the least form a barrier of what I have to say. We should, and are proud of so illustrious a Statesman as M^r. Stephen D. Douglass.

But to my object - M^r. Barber a Virginian by birth has just completed a piece of Slavery he calls "The Logarithm"; I will not give my views in detail in this letter, but merely enclose the article which appeared in one of our daily papers. He designed visiting Washington in a very short time for the possible of executing it - I would most respectfully direct your attention to it, for it well deserves the commendation of all. Mr. Barber has or will have a Memorial before Congress for the purpose getting the task of executing 'The Union' in marble. Will you use your influence to get it passed? - Your influence is very great I know in Washington as it is everywhere else; and if you give it in behalf of the Memorial, I am confident that Mr. Barber's object will be accomplished. Do not, for a single moment imagine that I have any personal interest what ever, only so far as encouraging genius. - When you see Thequette I am confident that you will agree with me in saying that Mr. Barber deserves all encouragement -

It is highly probable that I will be in Washington very soon -

Hoping you will consider the matter and try your utmost towards obtaining my request?
Subscribed myself

Very Respectfully, Yrs

A Young Lady
solicits your aid, in behalf of Genus.

Our admiration of this exquisite piece of statuary, becomes enthusiasm. One to watch the smile sleeping upon the lips, feels almost as if it were chiselled by a supernatural hand. The expression so exquisite, so much in keeping with the subject, leads one at once to acknowledge it, the work of a rare genius. The limbs so perfectly, so elegantly proportioned (not exaggerated in point of beauty—a fault many eminent sculptors have fallen into,) the undulation caused by the slight movement of the muscles are true to life. The position is so easy, natural and graceful, that it is no wonder "she seizes hearts without consent."

While gazing upon the beautiful Coquette, we were forcibly reminded of an extract from Ossian. Fairer than the ghost of the hills when it moves in a sun-beam at noon over the silence of the morn.;

The more we see the Coquette, the more our desire increases to see it; each moment—do we discover a new beauty—which flashes upon the sight like a bright star suddenly rising before us.

* * * * Nothing seems to have been forgotten in preparing the "Coquette," the rose lays at her feet and she seems to be in the very act of trampling upon the thorns, which she has not discovered—the diaphane, which by the by, adds to beauty is perfectly and distinctly marked.

The Coquette, we are informed by Doctor Barbee, is the first effort of his brother's chisel, and we are proud to say is a Virginian—what then may not the future promise, since his first attempt is so worthy of one older in the Heaven-born Art of Sculpture? His star is decidedly in the ascendant, and we may safely predict for him laurels upon laurels.

Only a short time ago we lamented the death of the great Crawford, who showed to the world that he was indeed a genius and "mocked his own Creator's skill." He has left a monument that will withstand all the mutations of time. We have a consolation in knowing that there is yet another so skilled. Mr. Barbee the author of "The Coquette."—We entertain for him the highest opinion as an artist, indeed we must yield the palm to him. Hiram Powers has a rival.

Many ladies have false modesty which prevent them from going to see any specimen of undraped statuary. This is a very great error, and should be guarded against. There can be no impropriety whatever in going to see the Coquette, her only fault consists in playing havoc with so many hearts, making all her captives. She represents beauty, grace, elegance, and her air is decidedly coquettish. No mock modesty should deter any one from taking a peep at Miss Coquette; one should blush only at the idea of imitating her example in piercing so many hearts with Cupid's relentless arrows. Let all Miss Prudices remember.

"True modesty is a discerning grace And only blushes in the proper place; But counterfeits are blind and shake their fears When 'tis a shame to be ashamed to appear."

We render our thanks to Miss Coquette, for visiting our city, and assure her that her presence has afforded us unspeakable pleasure—May she meet with a host of friends and admirers who will applaud her for her beauty and elegant simplicity, and add laurels to the wreath destined to entwine itself around the pillars of the Temple of Fame, upon which will be carved in bold letters, the name of "Barbee" the gifted son of Genius.

Dear Sir, - In the month of July last, I broke up my interesting home at Chicago, in view of improving the feeble, - condition of my wifes health and my own better fortune, and went to Minneapolis, Minn.
"And although it had been my happiness prior to that time, at home to know you, And to have been engaged sustaining the True Principles of Democracy, during the past years residence of myself at home, and ever looking up to you as our leader & Champion of our rights. It was, to me & my wife an additional pleasure to personally know you, and as likewise your amiable Lady. While travelling, at the time referred to, you will recollect myself wife & Child, and Col. Starkweather, introducing our little party to you after our leaving Prairie du Chien.
It was my intention at that time to take up a permanent residence at Minneapolis, and endeavour to make my small Capitol tell to advantage in Books and Stationery, my experience my dear sir, has been a sad one, my Child was taken ill, first, my wife had severe illness, after our little ones recovery, and my business did not prosper. The times were so cramped in money matters, my little means the savings of the past 4 years has very nigh, been used up, by sickness & misfortune, And as a last resort, to recover a part of my losses, packed up what I had left and came to this City, doubly in hopes, that a full restoration of my wifes health, and a better chance for business would occur. Matters here have been and are discouraging. you can not even sell, at the greatest sacrifice, I, have lately been obliged to pay a license of $75. at that rate per annum, to enable me to sell at all, I am so disheartened, I would, If I possessed the means, make my way back to Chicago, again. It is now. That I would most respectfully, solicit your aid, And should you befriend me at this time, It would be acknowledged by a prayer, to heaven for your happiness, A friend in need principle, interest, and the gratitude of my self and family. Could you but see my struggle to support them, during, and since we went on our way to Saint Paul, - knowing your natural goodness of heart, ^{at home}, And the greatness of your mind and disposition to alleviate the worthy, when misfortune does overtake them, I feel that my appeal to you, will receive your kind consideration at once,

For several years past it has been in my power and I have always given time, and contributed cash, to help sustain the Home Department now I am myself unable to contribute as many comforts to my little family as I would desire - Awaiting your reply

The noble stand you have taken in defence of the doctrine of popular sovereignty, the leading principle of the Democratic Creed in the last Presidential campaign, & upon which the Minnesota Democracy fought & won in our late Election has endeared you to the North almost universally & in an especial manner to the Northern Democracy. To the Honorable

Stephen A. Douglass
U. S. Senate

Washington.

Sir:

I have the honor of laying before you the wrongs which I think I have suffered. I do so in brief here, as they are more fully set forth in the memorial which will be laid before the House. I am of a Virginia family whose name figured in the Revolution, and I bear the same now. In early life I embarked in the commercial marine, and was so engaged when the last war with England was declared.

In that war I served my country in Barney's Flotilla, and continued in that service until the enemy retired from the city of my adoption. For these services I was appointed by President Jackson in the revenue marine, and continued faithfully to discharge my duties and to obey every order of my superiors, until, without any previous notice, I was dropped from the service by President Pierce.

At my advanced age, very reduced in my means, it was a blow which affected me terribly. I have petitioned President Buchanan for my restoration, and my petition is signed by the respectable citizens of Baltimore; they are among those who served with me in the last war—merchants who have known me for years and many professional men.

In thus briefly stating my services and griefs, I wish to solicit your kind offices in my behalf. I am now advanced in life and cannot engage in its active pursuits, and therefore earnestly invoke you to obtain for me a pension, by act of Congress, from the day of my dismissal; and be assured, Sir, that for your efforts you will be entitled to my lasting gratitude.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

BEVERLY DIGGS.

Allow me to trouble ^{you} with a short-history of Events that are about to transpire in our State and particulary at our Convention Great interest is now felt in the deliberations of ^{the} coming Convention. The Administration party are moving all most - Every thing to carry certain resolutions. Endorsing the Administration and condemning those who may disagree with them. But I think

They will be disappointed Should they offer resolutions of that character, then will be trouble. For it is a well established fact that three quarters of the Democrats are with you on the Kansas question indeed there is not one Democrat in ten outside of the Office holding influence but will most cheerfully endorse your course It is useful for the Administration party to disguise the fact that "Great Democratic heart and Soul of the North West is with you, and will sustain you to the bitter end." They may sneer and call you and your friends no Democrats, or what they please. If they (your friends) are not Democrats then there are no Democrats. Let no better critics of Indiana deceive our Discourage you or our friends at Washington for their troops. Whole Armies ready and willing to march at a moment's warning - under the Old Democratic Flag with Popular Sovereignty inscribed upon their banners. This feeling is fast gaining strength in Indiana

I do not believe that the Democrats could carry the Vote in 10 Counties in our State if we went into an Election in support of the Secession -ton Constitution. The Democrats will lose all the Vote of the Adopted Citizens should Congress admit Kansas under the Secession ^{constitution} Convention.

your friend, as I am politically. You may set me down (if living) for 1860 = Well Boss can tell you my history in Politics = President Buchanan has called at my house in Allegheny and met a few friends and two occasions = Senator Bigler when running for Governor also called on the same evening = Old Governor Shunk always called when in the neighborhood = I send you herewith a copy of a work I published some time ago as (Book Keeping) - it is the Text Book in the Iron City Commercial College where I have the honor of being a Lecturer - my employment for 6 years past has been the Gen Ticket agent of the C & P R R Co, and now Chief Clerk in Superintendents Office as above = please excuse this long egotistical epistle, and believe me your friend

With every sentiment of esteem &c

Dear Sir: Will you have the kindness to favor me with a copy of your speech on Kansas recently delivered in the Senate?

The great body of the people in Northern Ohio are with you, and they honor the man who dares stand up for the people's rights.

I am Sir, Respn^t

Dear Sir,
I most heartily approve of your course on the Kansas question. Our great N. Y. will never tolerate any thing but a full submission of the whole Constitution to the people. I have been a strong supporter of Buchanan but cannot stand by him on this point. If popular sovereignty extends only to Slavery I would spit upon it with contempt.

Wm Stephen A Douglas

Dear Sir

I have always been a great admirer of you not only on account of your fearless advocacy of the rights of citizens gen-erally but on account of the sound Democratic prin-ciples you embody, your recent action on Kansas affairs commands you so highly to my appreciation that I cannot resist the desire to tell it to you, you may and I have no doubt you will never hostily and opposition from deferent quarters. you may or I have no doubt the effort will be made to head you out of the Democratic party. but will they succeed that is the question, and if they do what then do you can tell the gentlemen who may make the effort that they will fail, the sentiment of the Demo-cratic masses of the north are with you, not that they have any hostility to the South or her institutions but because they want to see justice done in this instance the Democrats of the State of New York went into the election of 1856 on this principle. And more recently in a State election they ~~did~~ triumphed on this principle. (Kansas) And the moment this principle is departed from the Democracy of the north is gone the press of this State is no criterion nor the offices. I know either who want to parade in front—you may judge them they have either an office where they want to be or are looking for one for life or years.

My business calls me considerably to the Northern and Western part of this State I have a dealing with men who can control more or less vote and I have taken the trouble about the question and and it is one out of about twenty that support the Lecompton fare. I am a democrat of the old hand still. I will strip not a particle of free soilism about me I like the South and her institutions but not enough to be blind to justice. I want to see the people of Kansas have again expression of their views on the Law which they have before them. I have watched the proceedings there since the organization of that Territory. And I cannot see how any Gentleman can stand up and advocate a different course from that which you pursue I know the course you have shadowed forth you are right for Walker is right and you will triumph in the end. I would not bother you with my views on this question but I hope to have a talk with our Congress man elect Mr. Olin of Kansas and he told me nothing would give you greater satisfaction than a line (you may be sure I have secured it) commending your course In conclusion I would say that nothing would give me greater satisfaction than your Autograph

Wishing you success in your course

Yours sincerely

Thomas Ell
