

The enclosed slip from the True Delta relative to Senator Bayard.

indicates an extension opinion here The True Delta has frequently of late denounced the "Leecompton" affair, and no paper has rebuked their opinions or articles on the subject. There is a very general feeling among the reading public here that the Administration is driving straight to the D. L.
The free coin - secession journals support Buchanan's Kansas policy with great zeal. Conservative papers are silent or oppose though cautiously that policy.
The fact that the True Delta has repeatedly denounced the Leecompton affair without exciting ~~any~~ any expression of indignation, proves that there is no indignation here to be expressed.

OUR CRIMINAL LAWS.

The advocates of hanging as an expiation of his guilt by the murderer, and as a salutary terror to the viciously disposed, will be hard put to reconcile the tenets of their sanguinary theory with the actual condition of things in this city. More hanging has been recently done here than for years before, and yet assassination never was as much of an every day occurrence, crime involving the most atrocious offences never more rife. We are no partisans of the hanging humanitarians, we have lived some time in the world and have seen the operations of mild and sanguinary codes, and the result of our observations and most serious reflections on the subject is that it is not by equal, brutal, or life-taking punishments, but by certain and speedy trials and convictions, and adequate penal inflictions that the evil disposed and vicious are impressed and deterred from their misdeeds.

Some citizens suppose that the hangings of the last two years have stayed, in any single instance, the red hand of the privileged or unprincipled assassin in this city, or that, if the gallows claimed, as it fairly might, a weekly victim, so long as the administration of justice continues to be as the people here see it, any reformation of the public morals or any amelioration of ruffian tendencies will be experienced? No one so believes, nor can any man of intelligence and thought anticipate a change for the better here until the whole criminal machinery of this parish undergoes a radical change. The jail is choking, literally, with men accused of the most atrocious crimes, violators of the peace of the most notorious stamp are discharged by mol. pro. by the score every once in a while, to re-lure the docket, as it is alleged, because of inability to bring them to trial, fresh assassinations are almost of daily occurrence, and yet the criminal court might as well have no existence, as the Attorney-General finds it convenient to devote his time to engineering bills through the Legislature, or entertaining, in his own humorous way, the enlightened gentlemen there assembled to make laws for this most singularly governed State. Now, as we have already said, it seems to us plain that the frequency of capital punishments, which some of our contemporaries appear to regard as a panacea for all social aberrations, will not greatly avail to reform the state of things existing here, more particularly, too, when the victims are, as they are almost invariably, friendless strangers, without money and, consequently, without legal assistance, while the notorious thing and villain is either allowed to pass off free, without legal restraint, or escapes after a sham trial, when the witnesses against him have been terrified from even the portals of the seat of justice.

The question, however, now is, not whether the wholesale hanging of men will reform society here, but whether it be not possible by legal, or if it fail, by other means to intercept and abate the saturnalia of blood which has so long disgracefully been allowed to prevail in our city. Friends of the law so long as it is possible to obtain from them protection for life and property, we call upon the majority in the Legislature of the State, and upon every right thinking, murder-detesting man among the minority of it, to devise some judicial means to give security to this population from the associated murderers and their abettors and abettors in high places, who so plentifully abound to the terror of every well disposed person, and the lasting injury of the prosperity of our city.

If the Attorney General is either unwilling or unable to perform the duties he has been elected to perform, the Legislature should call upon him to resign, and if he refuse, then let assistant Attorney Generals, one or more if necessary be allowed, to derive their appointments from the Governor, to conduct the prosecution of offenders before a court specially commissioned to clear the criminal docket, as it from time to time becomes crowded beyond the capacity of the First District Court adequately to dispatch.

To avoid technical constitutional objections in this great emergency to our proposition, the special criminal commission might, we think, be composed of Judges of country districts, who, in rotation, as the Executive may direct, shall preside, said courts not to be kept open more than one month at any one time, and only for the trial of the more serious offences against the person. With such a court in session here for one month with men like Rosellus, Eustis, Seale and Durant for prosecuting officers, we will be bound a terror will be struck into the hearts of the cowardly murderers who now infect our city, that would prove alike salutary and lasting, even if justice failed to send a single ruffian to execution, and contented themselves with a qualified verdict. Should the Legislature fail to do something of this kind for the people, then we see no other resource open to our fellow-citizens than to organize for their own protection, and obtain for themselves that safety and protection they have in vain long waited for from the constituted authorities whom they are so enormously taxed to support.

HARD TO UNDERSTAND.—U. S. Senator Bayard, of Delaware, who is a supporter of the Buchanan policy of forcing a constitution on the people of Kansas without their consent, was, some half dozen years ago, a delegate in his own State to frame a State Constitution. There, as appears by the following extract from a speech of his delivered at the time, he had other opinions touching the democratic doctrine of popular ratification of such instruments, than he now entertains in Washington. What, we wonder, can have produced the marvellous change? The air of Washington, perhaps.

He said at the time we refer to:

"I am free to declare for myself that, let other men think as they may, my hand shall never be put to paper sanctioning a Constitution, unless that Constitution is to be submitted to the people for their ratification. I have always believed that one of our great errors in this State was that our Constitutions, when made, were not to be submitted to the people for ratification. It is a singular fact that, with the single exception of Delaware, there is now in the United States no one State which stands with a Constitution or organic law unratified by the vote of the people, from whom the authority to make it springs.

"If the majority of this body are willing to make a Constitution be bind the people of the State, without submitting it to them for ratification, I cannot act with them. Whenever that principle is announced by a majority of this Convention, I cease to be a member of it. I cannot agree to form a Constitution for the people without submitting it to them to obtain their approval."

Sir

Pardon my addressing you. I know your time is all taken up in more important manner than reading unimportant letters.
My anxiety to have light thrown upon the Kansas question is my excuse to have your position on that all important question understood by your friends in particular and the people in general The friends of the Administration in this section are making every exertion to warrant your friends from you, stating that you have joined the Republicans As all the papers of the Democratic Party are in favor of the Administration the assertion is believed by a great many not having it contradicted in public print. I would suggest the propriety of you sending your speeches to to some of the leading men in each township in this state. Inclosed is a list of persons ^{for the Co. of Benango} and P. O. All the documents that have been distributed in Western Pa. are the Message and Biglers Speeches. I believe in Benango 4 four fifths of the party sustains your position more would if they had both sides of the question placed before them as it is. They have but one from what I can learn the administration are a small minority in this state Be firm faithful and true you are right in the end will be successful spare not the administration I see they are not even disposed to give you fair play I know not what your views are upon the French Spoliation claims I would suggest that you advocate the payment of those claims as an offset to the Amstera claims I believe that course would increase your friends here as I have heard many so express themselves

Dear Sir -

Excuse the liberty a young lady and an entire stranger takes in addressing you for the purpose of asking a favor. Your well known liberality and kindness of heart leads me to hope that you may accede to my request, but if not you will ask at least refuse to consider the request as made of you in confidence and treat it as a private matter returning me this letter.

I am an orphan and the near to the elder of four sisters - our Father Borden H. Towles was for many years in office in the Navy Dept at Washington. The person who administered on his estate defrauded us by various means of all he left excepting the house we occupied at the time and then absconded to California.

Debts that he had assumed no were settled long before - were now presented to us still unsatisfied - and immediate payment demanded - We had nothing else left and were therefore obliged to allow the furniture to be sold - We were permitted to retain our piano - and a small portion of family plate - Then a friend advised us to dispose of and with the proceeds come to this place and open a school - which we did. But we here all of us very young, at the time, and entire strangers in the place, and our success was but indifferent - and when three years later a public school was opened we found it would be absolutely necessary to adopt some other mode of making a living - Needlework (as we had no instrument of any kind that we might give lessons on) was our only real resource, and by close attention to that in addition to the work of our Washington house for which a tenant was soon found we have been enabled to get along very well until about eighteen months since - Then our present tenant (Professor G. Schaffer) deemed it advisable to have gas introduced in our house - and with the fixtures etc. that took a great deal of one years work - then this fall he wrote us that unless the house could be repapered and painted - he could not remain in it - and arranging the payments the best way for that he could, it has only left us eleven dollars a month from then since Oct. last. These things added to the serious and protracted illness of one of my sisters this winter, have contributed to, and resulted in, our becoming embarrassed, to a small amount it is true - but large to us - for the reason above alluded to, we have been obliged to collect our Washington money in advance - and to settle this bill on twenty five dollars - for which, the person to whom it is due refuses to wait longer - I know not where to obtain the necessary funds - and cannot obtain ^{except} a loan - and I have written to you, Sir, to ask you if you will not lend it to me for six months - then we shall be receiving full rents from W - and will be able to honestly return it - I cannot make you feel Sir that a blessing it would be to us - or how deeply grateful we should be for the use of it as long

I know you are generous and kind Sir and I will leave my request to your kind consideration - only begging the favor of as early an answer as possible. Although I should wish that which I have communicated to you in the foregoing Sir might be considered as private matter - yet any enquiries to convince you of the truth of my statement I shall be happy to have you institute -

With high respect yrs &c

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

F. L. HAGADORN, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

SYRACUSE, THURSDAY, MARCH 11, 1858.

DISPATCHES.

THOSE SUPPRESSED RESOLUTIONS.

The following are the proceedings of the City Committee which we referred to yesterday as having been mysteriously withheld from "the printer" and handed in by the Chairman the day after the election—the second day after the meeting of the committee. They present a manly and out-spoken declaration of principles, and if they had been boldly uttered before the election, instead of being studiously withheld until afterward, the personal compliments contained in them might have been received with some favor by the gentlemen who are severally bespattered with the "approbation" they so generously convey.

Timid and careful as the movers of these resolutions have been in reserving their adhesion to the President, and his policy, until after the election, we are nevertheless happy to find them willing to pin their faith to his democracy, even at this late hour.

At a meeting of the Democratic City Committee of the city of Syracuse, held at the "Voorhees House," on the 8th day of March, A. D. 1858, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

On motion, Henry J. Sedgwick was elected Chairman, and James B. Rae, Secretary of said Committee.

On motion of Horace H. Walpole, it was resolved that the Chairman and Secretary be appointed a Committee, with power to draft resolutions, expressive of the sentiments of this meeting of city delegates upon the national questions, now before the people.

On motion, resolved, that Horace H. Walpole and B. M. Hopkins, be added to said Committee.

[The following are the resolutions as reported:]

Resolved, That this Committee, as representatives of the Democratic party of this city, take this occasion to declare their unwavering adherence to the platform of the party, as established by the Cincinnati Convention.

Resolved, That we recognize as the fundamental principle of the Democratic party, "The right of the people to self-government;" that to the people belong the right to regulate their domestic institutions in their own way, subject only to the Constitution of the United States.

Resolved, That we are in favor of the immediate admission of Kansas, by Congress, as a state of our Union, under the Lecompton Constitution; that upon this question the action of the President of the United States and his Cabinet meets our unqualified approbation.

Resolved, That the position assumed by our venerated Chief Magistrate, President Buchanan, merits, as it will receive, the hearty and cordial concurrence of the Democracy, and we pledge to him, in his calm, yet bold and manly vindication of the principles of the Democracy, the merited and enthusiastic support of the Democratic party of this city.

Resolved, That we accept the issue tendered to us by the Black Republicans of this city; that under it we fight this battle, conscious of the right and confident of a glorious and triumphant victory.

Resolved, That the course of the Hon. Thomas G. Alvord, Speaker of the Assembly and representative of the people of this District, in the Assembly of this State, meets our most cordial approbation—that the important interests of our city are safe in his hands.

Resolved, That the official course of the Hon. John M. Jaycox, meets the approbation of the Democracy of this city, by his activity, his business capacity, his devotion to the best and highest interests of this State, he has proved himself a worthy representative of the Democracy of the Central city.

On motion of A. B. Caldwell, it was Resolved, That this Committee are unanimously in favor of, and earnestly request the re-appointment of Henry J. Sedgwick, Esq., to the office of Postmaster at Syracuse.

(This resolution was unanimously adopted during the absence of the Chairman.)

On motion the Committee adjourned.

H. J. SEDGWICK, Chairman.

Dear Sir

I take this opportunity to ask you for two copies of the Fred Scott Decision one for my self & one for Jacob Christman of this place There are but two or three copies in the place & they are in the hands of the Secompton men. We ~~have~~ to fight the Secompton battle alone in our end of Town (The north end) & it is necessary that we should have more documents than we now have in order to cope with our Opponents the Secompton men & Republicans that swarm around us. The Republicans many of them claim to be Anti Secompton & say it is a Republican principle & that we are bound to resist to the last letter - We have a strange Anti Secampton Party in this County & should have him a write to (I think) had not the Organ of the Party - our Editor & Post-Master should himself appear weeks ago, for Government Patronage.

He has saved him self for a price Gave Old friend & Supporter Salaman Parker My Father, is saddled on the Secampton Question if you have any uncompromising Friends. C. B. Parker

P.S. It is of no use for me to write to Sanjay for documents he dislikes me too much - if you have any other documents that will help us to file our County battles please send them C. B. Parker

My Dear Sir

Before stating the specific object of this note I owe an apology for addressing a gentleman whom I know only as a public man and distinguished leader of the political party to which I belong. That apology is the all absorbing interest that the great mass of Democrats in our State now take in the question as to what position the Democratic party through their representatives in Congress shall assume when the vote is taken in reference to the admission of Kansas under the Lecompton Constitution.

Permit me to say that in this portion of the State the body of the party will sustain you - Your position is right, and none the less so because the Administration un-nearly adopt a diffidence. The Democrats here feel that if the Reception Committee is to be triumphantly endorsed we may as well now give up the contest for Democratic ascendancy in 1860. You are so manfully maintaining Democratic principles and be assured that the party will in the end triumphantly sustain you. Be not deterred by the hollow threats of Sammar Hall. The proposed meeting may not be publicly held but its history will be felt at our next State Convention. John Van Buren in his Sammar speech refused to say or having just sustained the Administration at our Mayoralty election. The truth is our Convention united upon a ticket and disregarding passed no resolutions and by doing so ^{we} elected our City ticket. May the way could not the "Union" be induced to publish one of John's speeches abroad in 1848. If it could I should be pleased to furnish an abridgement of the one in favor of "Northern Rights" in which he then thought it better to be "right than regular" —

But Sir you are too much engaged to be troubled with long letters and as to consequence you need none from me —

The principal object of this note is state undertakings — It is that if you have any speech or Lecture and minority report prepared for circulation you will confer a great favor by sending a few copies to me. Have no fear as to their circulation —

Yours very truly
R. P. Armenter

Dear Sir,

I have this day received the speech of Sen. Bigler of Cal. - This is the fourth that I have received of the same class - Others, are receiving them in unlimited quantities throughout this country -

Your Speeches are not seen here - you can judge of the effect. Then - please send all your Speeches upon the Fugitive question to me - J. Lipincott - Martin Jesse & Westfield, Geo. Stewart, Wm. Graham, William Star. Cyrus Jacobs, Quilors & Co, C. M. Walker - Dayton Yambill Co O. T. - and also to every Postoffice in the Territory in large numbers - Gen. Laine has taken strong ground against you - as his private correspondence to his friends here shows - hence the necessity the suggestion I make above

Very respectfully yours
A. W. Sweet

P. S. You have doubtless not forgotten our ride from Jacksonville to Winchester & from there to Pittsfield Vt. in 1854, - Excuse this reference, as it only made to call back to recollection that I was then at least one of your admirers as I was before and now am

Respectfully Yours &c
A. W. H. H. H.

Dear Sir

Will you do me the favour to send me your document, ~~that~~ place me on your list. I am with you heart and soul. although it is said that my step father Col Hamilton is shaky.

Allow me to presume to call your attention to 7th Howard No. 5 C, Reports Luther vs Borden page 43 wherein it is decided that when the exigency arises upon which the government is bound to interfere, the President must determine what body of men constitute the Legislature & who is the governor.
If ~~the~~ the free state party attempt to change the constitution, and ~~that~~ few slavery men resist it, the President must decide, which is the government the old or the new.

I have not seen the decision referred to by anyone - and thought that probably you had overlooked it. It is important in my view.

The case arose out of the Dorr rebellion in Rhode Island.

Yours &c
