Dear Sir

You will confer a favor upon a constituent and warm supporter by forwarding or causing to be the "Patent Office Reports since 1850. Mechanical. The Report of 1855 excepted. I am in the possession of that - while a constituent of John Kelly, of New York who I helped to elect as far as my influence in the ward was of avail - I received such "Public Documents" through him - If you can without any inconvenience have forwarded the Speeches upon the Lecompton Fraud (if I may so term it) and the President's message I will feel obliged to you. I have read all and came to my honest conclusions. but I am still desirous of having the articles in a form from which to draw a more complete understanding of the position of affairs - The opposition faction here are a queer mixture of minds - Spoilsmen "rule the roost" and if I have not passed all my time in New York for nothing. I do pretend to say that after the "immaculate Cook" has gotten together the several ingredients necessary to make a Stew. for he certainly is making one those who are not a party will in a sense eat the Stew & the Cook. Keep your powder dry.

and if your supporters prove true there will be a hard road for this faction to get over — I am proud to see Broderick of California at your side — he is a trusty support if he has not changed since I used to see him in the "Old Ninth Ward" in New York — Perhaps this communication is likely to be considered a bore, but I press you to avoid if possible repeating the dose of your speech is looked for with much anxiety

Yours truly
Wm Broderick

My dear Sir:

I have to thank you for a copy of your report on the Secession Constitution. If it does not convince the President of his error, it is nevertheless, sure to convince the Democracy of Illinois that you are right. In my opinion, all will be well in Illinois. All the officers in the gift of the President cannot defeat you. My old County, Perry, has already spoken out. In a conversation with Capt Osburn of that County, a few days since, he informed me that the Democracy there was a unit in regard to you, and, except a few followers of Dougherty, the same may be said of all the Southern Counties. But you have enough to do without reading long letters from me, I only intended to acknowledge the receipt of your favor, and ask you, continued such favors. Hoping that "Calhoun's Bastard" may be strangled in the House Reps, if not killed in the Senate, I am yours friend truly

Respected Sir

If after knowing the heavy drafts made upon you by your own constituency, you should occasionally have a spare document that you could frank this way, it would be very gratefully received by one, who knowing the sacrifices you have made and the wrongs you have suffered for our common cause, begs permission to subscribe himself with profound respect

J. C. Lane,

Dear Sir

Some memorials will be presented to Congress, to furnish the Navy, with James C. Lane's attachment to Quadrants & Sextants, for making a substitute for an horizon.

A Commission appointed by the Secy of the Navy, recommended this instrument as far superior to any other in use, and those Navigators who have crossed the Atlantic with it, speak of it as invaluable to the Commerce and Navigation of the World.

May I ask your early attention to this matter, which so deeply concerns the interests of the Country.

With great respect, yours, &c. &c.
