S. A. Douglas Esq. Dear Sir I have received under your frank your speech of Dec 9th. And that of Mr Stuart of Mich.
Also your "Reputation Kansas affairs" for which you have my thanks I have seen a few extracts from your recent speech, but have not seen it entire. I would be glad of it And also those of Messrs Crittenden and Well I do not think that but a small portion of the Democratic party in this state will sustain Mr Buchanan. It is rumored here that the question is to be taken in the Senate to day
