My Dear Sir

As the Eldest Daughter of Comd J. D. Elliott I address you in behalf of my widowed Mother who is helpless, and has now a bill before your Honorable Body which is entitled "Bill No 210 for the Benefit of the Captains of the British big Coalminers. in the war of 1812. The Bill was at the Instance of Mr. Slidell passed over April 17th and you will confer a great favor upon the only needy heir of a meritorious officer who labored 45 years in the service by aiding the passage of the Bill, and setting the last days of my Mother pass without anxiety as to her future home whilst on the earth. She is ~~age~~ invalid constantly, and I who have change of her have very broken health so that we await the favour of your Honorable Body to give us the want attendant upon full health.

Mr William C Caldwell will perhaps present the bill he is a son in law of Col Gosson who was with my father during the engagement and kindly promoted the passage of the Bill through the House. The Senate have already passed the Bill three times as it was made there. It will you not aid us with your influence. I may God bless you is the prayer of your petitioners.

Judge Douglas I believe I will write a few more lines to you // Soon after writing to you before I went to a Democ-ratic printing Office here and requested the Editor to publish your Speech on the Leecompton Constitution and dont be surprised at my telling you that his reply was "I've never seen it." Such is the intelligence of your traducers I however got it and assembled a crowd around me and read it and after I had read it I propounded the interroga-tory do you see any Abolitionism in that speech? they all answered no

I am "small fry" but I bother them considerably I tell them they are doing more to make Abolitionists than the entire free soil Press and some of the more considerate ones agree that I am right //

There is a M.M. here editing a paper and he is a pretty warm advocate of your position. I suppose from love to Crittenden to a great extent though I believe if you would send a number of your speeches here however he would distribute them for you His name is Daniel Bennett. I will send you one of his papers in it you will see a burlesque on secession &c You are gaining ground I think

Yours Respectfully
C. G. Glass

Sir:

Would it be exceeding the bounds of propriety, to ask of you to send me the Pacific Rail-road Report? you being a resident of another State? I am not personally acquainted with our Senator, neither am I with yourself, but have listened to your voice and have read your speeches so closely, that I can well say, I know the man. Your course, and all whose aim is for the ultimate good of our country, I respect and honor. I express myself freely, but not to flatter.

Yours with respect,
