WILL J. DAVIS

Mrs. Wm. Fottle, Jr.,
City.

My dear Ma:-

I have your favor Sept. 4th. It is so seldom that a leading actress applies for anything less than a box, that I hasten to send you an order for the one seat that you ask for, and you can present the order at any performance that suits your convenience.
With respects,

Yours truly,

Will Davis

Dear Dr. This signature may be valuable some day. Would you like to keep it?

Dear Mrs. Pottle:

I thank you for your Christmas card, which was received with great surprise and pleasure. I have been obliged to neglect my social duties during the holiday season since I am troubled with my eyes, and am dependent upon such reminders as your card brought to me.

With kind regards to Mr. Pottle, with all good wishes to yourself, and thank you for the happy memories that your card brought back to me, I am,

Yours faithfully,

Dore Davidson
