follows: No. 513,489 dated January 30, 1894, No. 524,892, dated August 21, 1894, and No. 553,845, dated February 4, 1896, and

WHEREAS, by an instrument in writing duly signed, executed and delivered by me, and duly recorded in the Patent Office, I sold, assigned, transferred and set over unto Harry C. Goodrich of Oak Park, Illinois, the entire right, title and interest into each one and all of said several Letters Patent throughout the whole of the United States, and

WHEREAS, it was the intention by said sale and assignment to vest solely in said Harry C. Goodrich the right to bring suits and recover for his sole use and behoof the damages and profits arising from past infringements of said several Letters Patent or any of them,

Now, therefore, in consideration of the premises and one dollar to me in hand paid by said Harry C. Goodrich, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, I, the said Carl P. Eichler, have sold, assigned, transferred and set over, and by these presents do sell, assign, transfer and set over, to the said Harry C. Goodrich all claims and demands of any nature for past infringements of said several Letters Patent, or any of them, vesting in said Harry C. Goodrich and his legal representatives and assigns the full and sole right to sue for and recover the gains, damages and profits arising from said past infringements of said several Letters Patent, or any one of them, and for such other relief as the law may provide.

WITNESS my hand and seal this 15th day of April, 1903.
