Mr. A. W. Butler, President
American Prison Association,
52 State House, Indianapolis, Ind.

Dear Mr. Butler:

The details of the itinerary as outlined in New York I cannot give you until I have the data from Mr. Mills, who is working on the railroad problem.

As to the programme of the International Prison Congress, I think I stated explicitly in New York that the section meetings would begin on Monday forenoon, the 3rd of October and general session in the afternoon. These sessions are from two to three hours in length. From four o'clock to five we will have a chance to introduce public lectures on general subjects. The Congress as such holds no evening sessions, but it is customary to give up at least several evenings to festivities and Friday most of the delegates go on an excursion to see institutions while the officers and committees prepare the reports for final decision at the general assembly Saturday forenoon. There will be a meeting on Sunday morning or Sunday afternoon for the formal opening. This has been the customary programme. As I said in New York, if the American Prison Association insists upon having meetings it might have one on Saturday before the Congress begins and one on Sunday evening. I think the public lectures at four o'clock might also be made interesting to the American Prison Association. Whether it is wise to take one of the evenings of the Congress for some kind of a meeting of the A.P.A. I must leave to you to decide.

I thank you for the schedule about my trip from Cincinnati on Sunday afternoon. Evidently the better way is to go over the B. & O. S. W. from Seymour. Please remember that I ~~must~~ must get home Monday night.

Yours cordially,

CRH/W

Dear Sir:-

I have just returned and have your letter of the 13th inst. I have written Mr. Glenn to ask the cable address of Ex-president Roosevelt. Why is it not a good thing for you and me to join in a message, as Mr. Glenn first suggested? Do you object to doing that? Do you think it wise to have an honorary president of this committee? I think if we can get a cable address ~~we should ask that~~ ^{message should} a cable be sent.

The executive committee decided to hold a meeting of the American Prison Association with a program in connection with the International Prison Congress, therefore it will be necessary to proceed upon a different theory in making our arrangements. Will you kindly give me the schedule showing the itinerary of the proposed trip before the meeting, also can you let me have an outline of the program giving the days and hours of the sessions of the International Prison Congress, so we may see what time will be open.

My dear friend:

In response to your esteemed favor of October 14th, I cannot join in a message to ex-President Roosevelt because the letter from the Department of State practically forbids me. I do not know their reasons, but they leave you free. Upon reflection I still think that Mr. Roosevelt should be offered the position of honorary president of the committee. There is a similar situation in the International Congress. The itinerary was outlined in New York. It includes a trip from New York to Chicago and back to Washington, beginning September 18th and ending about September 29th in Washington. The Congress should begin October 2nd and close October 8th. I presume you could have a meeting on Saturday, October 1st, and perhaps one on Sunday afternoon or evening. If it is desired I will try to keep free one evening during the week, but I think the days and most of the evenings will be full of business of the International Congress. The programme of the Congress requires the whole day except on Friday, which will probably be used by secretaries and committees, as I explained when in New York. I think these are the principal points.

I received your telegram yesterday evening and replied that I would be in Columbus Sunday evening to take Miss Adams' place on condition that I could return from Cincinnati, leaving there Sunday noon. I must see my sister and brother at that time and I have no other time to go to Cincinnati. I believe that I can leave Cincinnati at noon, get to Indianapolis in time for the afternoon electric and reach Columbus about four or five o'clock, which would be in ample time for the evening. Kindly suggest a little further what you want to do.

My dear friend:

I have received a letter from the Department of State, dated October 6, in answer to my letter of inquiry of September 16 in regard to notifying ex-President Roosevelt. The Secretary of State advises me that he cannot adopt the course which we suggested to him, although, of course, the American Prison Association is at liberty to telegraph to him, if it desires to do so. He adds: "Whether a reply could be had at a sufficiently early date is, of course, problematical." Permit the suggestion that you as President of the American Prison Association on the general committee, write to ex-President Roosevelt yourself and invite him to permit you to use his name as honorary president of this committee. Of course you would be acting and actual president. This thought has just come to me and I believe it is a wise one because, under the circumstances, we could not in any case very well put his name on a level with the others. As it was under his presidency that the International Prison Congress was invited to America, it would seem that we ought to give him a very conspicuous place, if possible. Of course you could not use his name in your first announcements, but in the later announcements this could be done and a new edition would be printed on purpose to make this clear. It is useless now to try to reach a man who is hunting elephants somewhere in the dark forests of Africa.

Yours cordially.

Dear Dr. Henderson:-

I have a letter from Mr. Byers and also from Mr. Mills this morning in which each says that Mr. Mills and Mr. Glenn ^{and I} are to be with you in Washington. I have not made any plans to do so, so I have written Mr. Mills that if it is necessary I can arrange to go that way. The plan that I have sent to Mr. Byers is for him to call a meeting at nine o'clock Sunday morning at the Belmont Hotel of those of us who can be there and talk over things informally and learn what you have to say as to plans and outlines and suggestions that you may have to make. Any other preliminary plans can be talked over also and then we can meet formally on Monday at noon in Mr. Mills' office.

Dear friend:

I thank you for your kind note of October 4th and I am glad that you and Mr. Glenn are to be in Washington so that we can confer there. I asked Mr. Mills to be in the city at hand as he has all the materials for the Guide which would probably be called for by the Department of State. I have not felt at liberty to invite anybody into the meeting itself because I thought that should come from the Department and not from me, but I would be happy indeed to have my friends attend for advice and to have them meet the officer of the Department, if he requests it; and I will, of course, make known to him their presence at the beginning of the interview. I shall leave here at 5:40 in the afternoon of Thursday, October 7th and stop at the Willard Hotel Friday night. I would be glad if it were convenient for you to join me there.

Yours cordially,

P.S. I thank you for sending me the nice program for the Columbus meeting. It is a good course of education to look it over. The analysis of the subjects is very instructive.

I have your letter and note what you say. We shall doubtless hear to-day or tomorrow from Mr. Byers. His plan as outlined in his telegram yesterday was to have a meeting with you on Sunday morning ^{in New York} of those who could be present and if it is impossible to have a full committee at that time to have it the next day. We will see how that works.

If you do not hear from the State Department about Mr. Roosevelt before your meeting there, I would suggest that you take it up and impress upon them the importance of securing his consent to serve on the committee.

After our meeting in New York, we will know better what to consider in the way of plans for the American Prison Association.

Confirming our lightning correspondence of yesterday evening. I have only to say that I found I could arrange to get back to Chicago in time by taking back some appointments if you could hold the committee meeting on the morning of the 10th, so I could get an afternoon train. I ought to be through with the Department of State by noon on the 9th, but I would like to see a few men in Washington in the afternoon if possible.

It seems to me very desirable to have an outline with as much detail as possible, a distinct plan of operation for working up interest in the American Prison Association during the coming year. As you will be relieved of the ordinary labors of the president, so far as a programme and committees are concerned, you will be more free for a kind of propagandism which no president has yet had the opportunity to push, and I wish to assure you again that I will be your lieutenant to the utmost limit of my ability.

My dear Sir:

Your telegram accepting a place on our State Conference program for Monday afternoon, October 25th, has just come. We very much appreciate your kindness.

We have nothing on the subject of prison and reformatory work and it would greatly strengthen our program if you would talk for fifteen minutes on some of the better things that are being done and what is needed in the way of preventive measures. This would lead up naturally to a few words concerning the Washington meeting of the International Prison Commission. If agreeable to you, we shall announce your title "Prison and ^{Preventive} Reformatory Work" and at a later date will send you a printed program.

With personal best wishes, I am

Dear Sir:-

I find your letter of the 16th inst., also telegram, on my desk this morning upon my return from an absence. I have just wired you that I shall go to Michigan City Saturday (tomorrow) afternoon. If you can come Saturday night or Sunday morning it will be especially pleasing, otherwise I shall look for you Sunday afternoon. Let me know the hour and train upon which you expect to arrive and we will arrange to have you met with a carriage at the station. I shall be glad to have you bring whatever you may have regarding the Guide, itinerary and other points mentioned so we can talk them over.

I note what you say about ex-President Roosevelt. I think your action in the matter is all right.

Dear Dr. Henderson:-

I have a letter just received from Mr. John M. Glenn. He promised to ascertain the present address of Hon. Theodore Roosevelt, how he could be reached and his probable attitude toward accepting membership on the American Advisory Committee of One Hundred of the International Prison Congress. He advises me that Mr. Lawrence Abbott of the Outlook says Mr. Roosevelt may be reached by cable at Nairobi, East Africa; also that Mr. Abbott feels sure that he will be glad to go on the committee. I asked Mr. Glenn to wire the former president and he wires me suggesting a cablegram be sent to him signed by Dr. Henderson as president of the International Prison Congress and myself as president of the American Prison Association in order to make it as important as possible. Will you do this? If so, send a cablegram and sign my name. If you prefer to sign it as Commissioner of the United States that will be all right. My idea is to get the message off promptly and secure an early and favorable reply. Wire me upon receipt of this that you will do so.

Your card is just at hand. Monday and Tuesday mornings during the State Conference are given up to section meetings. The

It would be well to distinguish between the New England or town system or the Virginia or township system of government, the latter being that which we have in this State.

- II. Analysis of our federal, state, county and municipal correctional institutions and administrations.

Under central state supervision of control it would perhaps be well to explain that we have two systems, one of which is central control and the other in which there is a separate administrative board for each institution with a central supervisory board.

Would it not be well to take up the neglected one and the offender beginning with the truant child and in the matter of trials to indicate the manner of apprehension, detention, the work of the juvenile court and probation. Also in the matter of prisons, to take up the manner of admission, the treatment or training, testing, release, readaptation to free life and supervision of released prisoners.

III. The itinerary.

I understand you want to have a book outlining the system of charities and correction in each state along the line of our Development of Public Charities, in addition to the Guide Book. The outline that I sent you would indicate the different classes of institutions and you will observe in the itinerary that almost every one of those can be seen. I have been very much impressed with the fact while working on this that it would be possible for our visitors to see more of these different things in this State than any other.

I have had an informal conference with Governor Marshall and he is earnest in his desire to have the commissioners visit our institutions and would be very glad to extend them every facility to inspect them and learn all about them.

I have taken up the matter of our pamphlet on the Development of Public Charities in Indiana and while we can spare you 200 or 300 copies I feel that it would be much better to revise it by bringing it down to date and then supply you with the revised edition if that will answer your purpose.

My dear friend:

In reply to your esteemed favor of September 15th. I am sorry I could not speak Monday night as my class work must not be neglected during October, as I have so many engagements about that time. Either Sunday or Monday would do.

Let us meet at Michigan City prison next Sunday afternoon, if convenient to you. I have just heard from the Department of State that the designated officer in charge cannot meet me until about October 9th. I deeply regret this as it will derange my plans seriously at present, but it cannot be helped. I am sending you a telegram.

I thank you for your suggestions for a Guide. All of these points will be included in very condensed form in the Guide. I can make use of these additional suggestions contained in your letter. They are all wise.

I leave the matter of the development of your pamphlet on the development of public charities in Indiana to your judgment. There is no hurry about that; I want that for February or March.

Your suggestion about wiring Ex-President Roosevelt

your suggestion about making ex-president Roosevelt of honor

judgment. There is no real doubt that I want that for personal use on the development of public facilities in Indiana for you
Mr. A.W. Butler - 2 -

I regard the matter of the development of your honor-seems to me a wise one. I will act upon it as promptly as possible. It requires a few hours to plan. I will join your name with mine in a telegram as suggested.

Yours cordially,
I thank you for your suggestions for a change. All am sending you a telegram.

P.S. Upon reflection I have decided to write to the Department of State and ask them to telegraph to Mr. Roosevelt for us. It would receive more consideration at every point, and secure a prompt reply.

I have just heard from the
that we meet at Washington City by train next Sunday month about that time. Either Sunday or Monday would do.
What not be neglected during October, as I have so much engaged. I am sorry I could not speak Monday night as my class work in regard to your esteemed favor of September will keep me busy.

I wonder if it would be possible for you or if it would be asking too much if you could do so to change your engagements so as to be with us at our State Conference on Monday, October 25th? If not that, can you let me know definitely about Sunday?

I am sending you herewith a plan of a trip for the International Prison Congress and where the different days would be spent under such. Mr. Mills asked me to send him this and I am sending you a copy.

I also send two outlines, one of offenders and their treatment, in which I have included truants and the work of boards of children's guardians, as you will observe; the other, on some forms of State prisons and I have indicated the places where these may be seen so far as they are covered by the trip outlined

FREDERICK H. MILLS, 97 WARREN ST.
NEW YORK CITY

#2. Dr. C. R. H.

to be visited of which we spoke.

Bar I shall be glad to have a list of the members of the adhering associations committee as soon as you get it. I thank you very much for giving me the names of representatives of the adhering countries to the International Prison Commission, and also names of some of the prominent members.

I also find upon my arrival your letter of August 5th. written on R. M. S. Empress Britain, with foot note the same date "Quebec".

Will you not please look over your dates and see whether you cannot arrange to be at our State Conference of Charities on October 24, 25 or 26--preferably the 25th or 26th. We will pay your actual expenses. Miss Addams, President of the National Conference will speak on Sunday night. We will have a mass meeting on Sunday afternoon at which the Governor will speak and if you cannot be here on Monday or Tuesday night, I am sure he would be very glad to have some one share the time with him on Sunday afternoon. I think it would be a fine thing to have both the President of the National Conference of Charities and ^{of} the Prison Association present. It will mean much to us I am sure.

Very truly yours,

Am. Butler

My Dear Friend:-

I wish you to write a paper of about ten pages, three hundred and seventy-five words to the page, to be presented to the International Prison Congress. It should be ready by the first of December if possible as it must be abstracted and the full text translated into French and distributed to members. The question which I thought you would discuss with satisfaction to yourself and to all others is the second section and third question: What are effective prison measures for continuous and useful labor of prisoners in small prisons.

You can see that it is the problem of banishing idleness in local prisons and houses of correction where short term prisoners are found. Will you kindly let me know at your earliest convenience if you will undertake this topic.

I hope you will send me the suggestions for the guidance and efficiency of our penal institutions as soon as possible.

Very Respectfully,

CRH-W.

Dear Dr. Henderson:

We shall be home Saturday morning. Hope you returned in safety. Will you please write me by early mail? I should like to know the Countries represented on the International Prison Com. or that will send delegates to the Washington Congress. Who the Commissioners are for each country. Whether it will be possible for you to attend the State Conference of Charities at Columbus, Ind. Oct. 23-26. That will be a good opportunity to help us & bring to notice the Int. Prison Congress. May I inquire what information if any you have from the American Bar Assn. re. a cooperating committee? You thought you could spend a Sunday with me at Michigan City prison soon. Suppose we do that in the next 2 or 3 weeks. As soon as I hear from you I shall arrange with the warden.

Yours truly

Alv. Butler.

My Dear Friend:

I have just returned from the west and find so many engagements made for me that I fear to make any promises until matters have been straightened out, then I will be glad to write to you. I am afraid to promise to attend the state conference Oct. 23-26 until I know what engagements have been made about that time. I think I have already promised to be out of the city about that time in another direction. I have not received any further communication from the Bar Association but shall pursue the correspondence with the president unless you wish to take it up. For reasons stated I must not promise a date yet for Michigan City.

The countries thus far adhering to the International Prison Commission are the following:

Sweden, Switzerland, Norway, Bavaria, Baden, Belgium, Italy, Cuba, Denmark, Russia, Serbia, Bulgaria, Hungary, England, France, Holland, Greece, Portugal. The list is not yet complete and the representatives are being changed in some cases, so that I cannot give you an exact list until we have completed some further correspondence. I will give you the names of some of the principle men however. I suppose you wish to advertise a little.

The Secretary is Dr. Guillaume of Berne Switzerland, director of the federal bureau of statistics, the representative of Hungary is Mr. Rickle Bellie, the treasurer is Mr. S. Watson, of Iowa Norway, the Swedish representative is Mr. Almquist of Stockholm. The two German representatives are Mr. Gaerter of Munich and Dr. Von Engelberg, the English representative is Sir Evelyn Ruggles-Brice K.C.B., the French Commissioner is M. Schrameck, the Holland representative is Dr. S. Van der Aha, the Russian representative is Mr. Khrouless, the Italian representative is Mr. Doria and the Belgian official delegate is Monsieur Digron.

I had already written you a letter within a day or two. I am very anxious to have the guide book in form at once so that it can be translated into French and sent abroad in October. This is the most urgent matter before us now.

Yours sincerely,

Indiana is organized on the township system of government. The State is divided into 92 counties and these into 1,016 townships. The executive officer of these primary divisions is the township trustee. He is also overseer of the poor. As such he has oversight of all poor persons in the township, including those in incorporated towns and cities. He has sole authority to send a person to the county poor asylum. The relief he gives is termed official outdoor poor relief. The poor asylum, county hospital, if one exists, the maintenance of dependent children, the support of the county jail and, rarely, the county workhouse, is the burden of the county. These are maintained by the Board of County Commissioners, composed of three members. Cities maintain police stations and police courts. The schools for the care of the blind, deaf, feeble-minded, soldiers' and sailors' orphans, delinquent children, hospitals for the insane and village for epileptics, prisons and reformatories are supported by the State.
