Chicago, August 15, 1910.

Chief Justice Harry Olson,

Municipal Court,

C h i c a g o.

My dear Sir:

As you know, the foreign delegates to the International Prison Congress will be in Chicago September 23, 24 and 25. We have only a month for completing the preparations. The Mayor has appointed Mr. John L. Whitman, Superintendent of the House of Correction, chairman of the Mayor's committee. I do not know what functions the Mayor has assigned to his committee. You are aware that the Association of Commerce will give a fine banquet on the evening of September 23, and that practically all day Saturday, September 24, they will show delegates about the city in automobiles. Their arrangements are all made in fine shape. On Friday, September 23, the delegates will arrive early in the morning for breakfast, coming from Mansfield, Ohio. After breakfast we must send them promptly in parties to Joliet and to St. Charles and Geneva to visit the state institutions. Governor Deneen is arranging with the state boards to pay the expenses of these trips, and the institutions visited will furnish a luncheon in the middle of the day. On Sunday Mr. E. B. Butler has promised to furnish some automobiles for any who may wish to visit the fine school at Glenwood. The delegates will leave for Indianapolis on Sunday evening, August 24. Would you be kind enough to confer with Mr. Whitman in regard to securing active members of committees to receive the delegates at the train; to mingle with them in the hotels, and see that any needed courtesies are shown them by distinguished citizens of Chicago?

Yours sincerely,

My dear Mr. Henderson:-

We are anxious to hold the banquet to be tendered the Prison Reform Congress delegation in September at the hotel where the delegates will make their headquarters. We have an option on the banquet rooms of the Blackston, Congress and the LaSalle Hotels.

May we kindly ask you to give us full details on the matter; also at your earliest convenience advise us concerning the speaking program, giving names and subjects. We intend to get up an appropriate and neat printed program, and wish this information at your earliest convenience. I expect there will be a meeting of our committee early next week. Do you desire to meet with us?

Awaiting your reply,

Dear Sir:

Your esteemed favor of August 17th is before me. Of course, we shall be glad to have you select the hotel where you have generously provided a banquet for the International Prison Congress delegation. We have been waiting for Mayor Busse to select the hotel, as he had agreed to pay the expenses, but thus far I have not been able to learn his decision. I shall, however, write to Mr. F. H. Mills, the Business Director of the Congress, and secure an immediate decision.

I do not think it will be necessary for me to meet with your Committee as you will be perfectly competent to carry out the programme. I should like another week to give you the names of the speakers and subjects, as I am expecting further information about delegates within a few days. If you will give me the latest date when you must have these names and subjects I will send them the day before.

My impression is that the La Salle Hotel will be selected for our headquarters September 23, 24 and 25. I may say that Judge Harry Olson is the chairman of the committee appointed by the Illinois Conference of Charities and Correction,

Dear Mr. Henderson:--

Acknowledging your favor of the 18th inst., it will be necessary for me to have the names of the speakers you select for our official program, together with the subjects, not later than September 1st. Naturally we are expecting you to supply the speakers in the main. In all probability we shall have only one speaker, the toastmaster, President Stillwell. I presume you will desire to arrange the entire balance of the speaking program including the Mayor, the Governor and those of your own congress. I have not yet ascertained where the delegation will be quartered, but in all probability we shall select the hotel decided upon for the place of our banquet.

Wishing you the best of success in your important undertaking,

Very sincerely yours,

Dear Sir:

Since writing you yesterday it has occurred to me that it would be very difficult, probably impossible, to find out which of the foreign delegates can speak English well enough for your purpose. How would it do to furnish a list of about one hundred names and let me select them in New York after I find out (September 17 and 18) which men are the most likely to be the best for the purpose? It would be rather a delicate matter to write to them to ask this question, and the time would be too short to secure replies. I presume you want a very short speech anyway. If you still feel that names must be selected now, I will do the best I can.

My dear Prof. Henderson:

Our committee has selected the Gold Room of the Congress Hotel as the place for the Prison Reform delegate banquet on the evening of Friday, September 23rd.

We are hoping to arrange to give the delegation a luncheon at the South Shore Country club Saturday noon, making a break there in the automobile boulevard tour, ~~and~~ I was not advised of your selection of the Hotel La Salle as headquarters until after we had determined on the Gold Room as the place for the banquet. However, I suppose there will be no great amount of inconvenience to our guests in making the trip from the LaSalle. The Gold Room is much more elegant and better suited in every way, so we thought that that would be the best place. .

Have you received as yet the correct list of delegate's names for insertion in the program? As to the speakers and their subjects, if you can advise me as early as the 19th or 20th of September after your arrival in New York, it will be alright, as I can keep that part of the program open.

In this connection are we to understand that you will arrange with the Mayor and the Governor for addresses of welcome, or do you wish our committee to handle that matter for you? It should be attended to at once, especially in the case of the Governor, as his dates are made so far in advance.

In tendering this banquet, Prof. Henderson, we wish to do

Dear Mr. Moody:

After reflecting upon the points raised before the committee yesterday and consulting my wife about the entertainment of the ladies, I beg leave to offer these suggestions:

First: That since there are so few ladies in the party and the time between reaching the city and the banquet will be too short to dress for the occasion, it will be best to announce to the ladies that this banquet is for the gentlemen only. Mrs. Henderson will arrange to entertain the ladies of the party either at the South Shore Country Club for luncheon, or in some other way, so that they will receive due attention, and you need not give further thought to this part of the matter.

Second: As to persons to be placed at the speakers' table. I know no principle of selection which would not give offense except this: to place at that table all of the Commissioners who are in this country at the time. My present view is that there will be about twenty of these, just about the number you suggest. I will send their names from New York on the 18th of September by letter, when I will also send a corrected list of the delegates who have actually arrived at that time and will take part in the journey.

Third: As to the route of the automobile ride on Saturday, September 24. Starting from the La Salle Hotel at 9:30 through Jackson Boulevard, go to the Juvenile Court for a few minutes, thence by the nearest boulevard line to the John Worthy School and the House of Correction, the most important inspection of the day. From there back through Garfield Avenue to Washington Park, Midway Plaisance to Woodlawn Avenue, turning in to go through the University grounds, to the Mitchell Tower and Mandel Hall where President Judson will receive the delegates for five minutes, and a souvenir of the University illustrated will be given to each delegate, and if the ringer is in town the chimes will be rung; thence back to the Plaisance, through Jackson Park to the South Shore Country Club for luncheon. After that the foreign delegates, and ladies having the preference, as many as

If possible I should like to have the delegates who desire it to visit the Refuge for Girls on the way back to the hotel in the afternoon (No. 5024 Indiana Avenue), but this is not very important because on Sunday those who desire to visit that institution can easily do it.

If this letter does not answer all your questions I should be glad to have you write me directly, care of the Herald-Square Hotel, New York City where I shall be until Sunday.

My dear Mr. Moody,

I find that it is absolutely necessary for us to change our Chicago program. The automobile ride must be on Friday, and the trip to Geneva, St. Charles and Joliet on Saturday. The time between the arrival of our train on Friday and the trains to the outside places, is too close together for the Friday arrangement. Furthermore, if they go out of town on Friday, they will have no time to see the institutions, and will be too tired for the banquet Friday evening.

I am sending a copy of this letter to:-

Col. C.B. Adams,

Mr. E.C. Murphy,

I will send the names of the speakers and a corrected list of the delegates on Sunday, or sooner.

Very truly yours,

My dear Professor:

I am in receipt of your telegram informing me of the change in program for Friday and Saturday of next week. I immediately telephoned to Mr. Moody of the Association of Commerce, and to Mr. Murphy, Warden State Penitentiary at Joliet; have also written to Ophelia L. Amigh of the State Training School for Girls, Geneva, Illinois and to Colonel C. B. Adams, St. Charles School for Boys, St. Charles, Illinois.

Mr. Moody of the Association of Commerce stated that he would undoubtedly communicate with you by telegram, as a change in program might make some serious complications for them, as arrangements so far as lunch at the South Shore Country Club and Automobiles for Saturday had been made.

Following your suggestion, I called upon Mr. McCullough, General Manager of the Parmelee Transfer Co., in regard to making arrangements for carrying the members of the Delegation from the Union Depot to the LaSalle Hotel on the morning of the 23rd. While I have not as yet received a statement from him regarding the cost, I am satisfied that very satisfactory arrangements can be made, as Mr. McCullough is one of the Board of Inspectors of this Institution and is interested in whatever can be done to entertain the delegation while in this City. I believe that you have full information regarding all other arrangements that have been made.

Whitman notifies us of your desire to change automobile ride about the city from saturday to friday. If this is absolutely necessary it will greatly embarrass our committee as luncheon has been arranged for at South Shore Club on saturday and requests to members for automobiles for that day already made. Besides, to undertake a five hour automobile ride a luncheon and a banquet will make a very full day. If change is imperative, however, we will have to find some way to meet your wishes, kindly advise by wire

I enclose with this letter proof of biographical notices of the speakers who have been invited to your banquet on Friday evening which will be sufficient for President Stillwell's use. I also send press bureau notices of other members of the foreign delegation who will be present, marking out those who do not come.

I am exceedingly grateful to you for changing the program for Friday and Saturday. The former arrangements would not work out either for you or for us. We could not by any possibility get out of town on the early trains and come back to the banquet in time to be with you, with any comfort. I presume you will have some inconvenience and expense, and extra labor of account of the change, but it was simply necessary to the success of the affair.

The Hamilton Club has invited us to the smoker on Saturday evening, and we accept.

I will be grateful to you for any help you can give Mrs. Henderson in arranging for the ladies dinner, on the 17th at 7 o'clock in Congress Hall. There will be seventeen in number. She will telephone to you, perhaps, on the subject. The question of expense need not arise.

Washington, D. C.

My dear Professor Henderson:

I am having one hundred and fifty copies of CHICAGO COMMERCE, our official publication, sent to you today in care of the Willard Hotel.

This issue contains a full story of our entertainment of your party in Chicago, particularly the banquet in the Gold Room of the Congress Hotel, with verbatim reports of all addresses; also a double page picture of the Gold Room banquet and a picture of the ladies in the room adjoining.

It is a number that will be prized by every delegate in your party, especially the foreigners, and I would be glad to have a copy put in the hands of each delegate.

It was a delight for us to entertain your people while here and we trust that you have had a successful and pleasant journey since leaving Chicago, and that your Congress in Washington will surpass in usefulness anything that has previously been attempted in the interests of the great work you are engaged in for the good of mankind everywhere.

With high personal regards and sincere best wishes,

Very truly yours,

THE CHICAGO ASSOCIATION OF COMMERCE,

By

Walter D. Moody
General Manager.

Washington, D. C. Sept. 30, 1910

Mr. Walter D. Moody,

Chicago Asso. of Commerce,

Chicago, Ill.

My dear Sir:-

I thank you sincerely for sending the copies of the Chicago Commerce, and will have them duly distributed to the foreign delegates. Everybody says that the Gold Room Banquet was the finest part of the whole trip, and that is saying a great deal, because everywhere the arrangements were perfect, and the hospitality of the finest order.

Everything here points to a magnificent Congress and I shall never cease to be grateful to the Association of Commerce for all they did for me and for my associates.

Yours cordially,

CRH.G.

condemned by the reform organizations. One of the committeemen is his neighbor, and he, with Wagner, makes a majority in favor of a single nomination.

Hope to Have Wagner Deposed.

It is charged now that Wagner baited the Democratic nomination for alderman last spring, that he helped to elect Alderman Fred A. Britten, Republican, and that therefore he has forfeited his right to represent the Democrats on the senatorial committee. It is planned to make that argument before the state committee with the purpose of having that organization depose Wagner and appoint some one in his place.

Should the committee act favorably on this proposition, and thereby practically reorganize the senatorial committee of this district, it is said other cases will be presented with a view to repudiating the action of rebellious senatorial committees.

In the twenty-seventh district, which is strongly Democratic, Alderman Stanley Kunz is said to have announced his intention of accepting the state committee's instruction literally and demanding the nomination of three Democratic candidates for the house. Al Glade is the Republican minority representative from this district, but he has been forced to give up his plans for a renomination, causing some dissension among the Republicans by which Kunz hopes to profit. It is said if the alderman insists on three nominations the committee probably will make them, and the Democrats believe they can elect all three.

Municipal Court Question Deferred.

The Democratic committee delegated to select a slate of Municipal Court candidates met yesterday, but, without giving much consideration to the work in hand, adjourned until Aug. 8. Petitions for these judicial nominations do not have to be filed until Aug. 18.

OBITUARY RECORD

Judge George Baker Lake.

OMAHA, July 28.—Judge George Baker Lake, father of Mrs. Joy Morton of Chicago and for many years a leading jurist of this state, is dead at his home here, aged 84 years. The intense heat of the last few days was partly responsible for his demise. Besides Mrs. Morton, the widow and a son, Dr. Frederick W. Lake, survive. Judge Lake was a native of Saratoga County, New York, and came to Nebraska in 1857. After serving three terms in the territorial legislature he was elected to the Supreme bench, where he remained continuously for seventeen years. Since leaving the bench he had been in the active practice of law up to the time of his death.

volved in the disturbance and the reserves from nine precincts had all they could do to cope with the trouble. It appeared from the accounts of bystanders that the policemen did not fire into the crowd until forced to do so by the ferocity of the attacks on them, firing first into the air to intimidate the mob, and when this warning failed, directing their shots at the men attacking them.

The mob was composed for the most part of foreigners, chiefly Poles and Lithuanians. They had been making trouble for some time, but assumed a decidedly menacing attitude last night when a boatload of strikebreakers were taken to the plant and set to work. The demeanor of the mob which gathered outside the plant became so threatening this morning that police protection was asked for. When the reserves appeared trouble broke loose.

On the charge of having fired one of the shots that took effect on the mob, H. A. Morgan, cashier of the refinery, was arrested and lodged in jail. Morgan denies the accusation.

Garment Strike End Is Near.

Early settlement of the garment-makers' strike, which has involved upward of 50,000 workers and demoralized the women's clothing trade for several weeks, appeared possible today with the assembling of representatives of the conflicting interests for a conference.

The conferees comprise ten representatives from the Cloak, Suit and Skirt Manufacturers' Association and a strikers' committee of equal size.

Louis D. Brandeis was asked to come from Boston to preside over the conference and readily consented, as it was largely through his efforts that the negotiations for a conference reached a successful conclusion.

Obstacle in Workers' Claims.

The negotiations, which lasted over a week, were complicated by the many divergent claims of various grades of workers for recognition of their particular demands, and the conferees today faced an equal difficulty in the task of reconciling divergencies in claims by the strikers and in finding a basis for an agreement between the workers as a body and their employers.

In general the strikers have demanded better working conditions, increased wages and recognition of their union organizations.

In spite of the admitted difficulty in settling the many complications facing them, the conferees were hopeful of early preparing a common ground on which a basis for a final adjustment of the trouble could be arranged.

Troops on Duty in Columbus.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, July 28.—National Guardsmen to the number of 2,000, comprising the Second, Third and Sixth regiments and Troop A are encamped in this city today to prevent rioting in connection with the street car strike.

The ordering out of the soldiers followed an all-night conference in the adjutant general's office, participated in by city officials, Adjutant General Weybrecht, George S. Long, secretary to the governor, and General W. V. McMaeken of Toledo.

The headquarters of General McMaeken, commanding the First Brigade, who is in command of all the troops, are on the statehouse grounds.

The Third Regiment, Colonel Robert G. Catrow of Miamisburg commanding, was

WASHINGTON, July 28.—Just to show the doubting Thomases that he can withstand any physical test set for army officers, General Robert S. Oliver, assistant secretary of war, is to spend most of his month's vacation, beginning tomorrow, in the saddle. General Oliver is 63 years of age.

His first task will be a 250-mile horse-back ride from Fort Wingate, N. M., to the Moqui and Navajo Indian reservations. Miss Oliver, his daughter, will accompany him. The general had been over this territory during his military service.

During the month he will attend the military camps of instruction at Fort Riley, Kan.; Fort D. A. Russell, Wyo.; Fort Benjamin Harrison, Ind., and the camp at Sparta, Wis.

SLEEPS WAY INTO PRISON

Peddler Uses Strategy to Get Into Some Sort of Hospital and Succeeds.

"Thank you, your honor," said Bert Burgess, when he was fined $15 and costs by Judge Wells today, for sleeping on a bench in Grant Park yesterday.

Burgess worked for two days on an attempt to be arrested, and when he finally accomplished his object, he worried for fear the judge might discharge him.

Burgess is a one-legged peddler and has been ill for some time. He tried to get into the county hospital, but was refused admission, so he decided that the bride-well hospital was just as good. The fine will keep him in the house of correction for about a month.

IN DEFENSE OF MRS. HOXIE

Lawyers Try to Show That the University Press Cannot Collect as a Third Party.

Attempts were made by attorneys representing Mrs. John R. Hoxie to show Judge Foster today that the University Press of Boston was the backer of George D. Sproul, New York publisher, from whom Mrs. Hoxie made purchases for which she was charged $86,000. By proving that the University Press was the backer of Sproul, the defense hopes to show that the notes, having a face value of $8,000, made payable by Mrs. Hoxie to Mr. Sproul are not collectible by the University Press, which holds them as a "third party."

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 28.—Returns received so far at the state offices of the United Mine Workers of America show that the Indianapolis compromise will be rejected by the miners of Illinois. So far 15,000 votes have been cast against the proposition and but 100 in its favor.

The two elements then began campaigning, the Democrats to place a Democrat at the head of the ticket for governor and the independent Republicans urging that one of their own men be named for the place.

Allotment of the Delegates.

The call for the convention provided that each county in the state should have as many votes in the convention as it has members in the state house of representatives. In counties where there is only one member of the house, the Republicans and Democrats each selected a delegate. Each of these delegates is entitled to half a vote.

Because of a lack of organization all the sixty-seven counties in the state were not represented in the convention, which opened in Witherspoon Hall at 11 a. m.

Besides the office of governor the convention will select candidates for lieutenant governor, state treasurer and secretary of internal affairs.

The United Labor party, an outgrowth of the trolley strike here last spring, has demanded that it be given representation in the convention and on the state ticket, but the executive committee in charge of the meeting announced that under the call for the convention the United Labor party could not be given the representation it asked.

The Labor party candidate is Hugh Frayne of Scranton for secretary of internal affairs. Mr. Frayne is an organizer for the American Federation of Labor.

Minnesota Democrats Meet.

MINNEAPOLIS, July 28.—The Minnesota state Democratic convention was called to order today for the nomination of a full ticket of state officers and the adoption of a state platform.

On account of the harvest now in progress over the state the delegates from outside the cities have been slow in arriving, and the great bulk of them only reached the city on morning trains.

The principal interest of the convention centers around the gubernatorial nomination and the fight on the county option plank. Congressman W. S. Hammond is temporary chairman, and his speech in that capacity sounds the keynote of the fight which the Minnesota Democracy will wage this fall.

While there was some uncertainty as to the nominee for governor, the slatemakers felt confident that John Lind, former Governor of Minnesota, would be named to head the ticket.

Aim Is to Impress Lind.

This, they said, would be done in spite of his many refusals to be considered as a candidate and of his lately expressed intention of declining the nomination if made.

Mr. Lind's friends in the Hennepin County delegation were using every argument they could think of to head off this action, but it seemed to be the general opinion that Mr. Lind's feelings would be ignored.

County option promises to furnish the chief topic for debate and, as one delegate expressed it, if the county optionists would "take the bit in their teeth" they were strong enough to get a county option plank through, but even the friends of county option believe that if the issue is not ignored entirely a modified plank will be included in the platform.

Next to Mr. Lind, Mr. Hammond and Mayor J. C. Haynes of Minneapolis are considered as favorites for the nomination for governor.

Recently there was a decrease in the number of cases reported the week ended July 27. The week ended July 26 cases were reported terminated fatally.

Some time ago appearance in this fortnight there has been a decrease of forty cases and capital. Yesterday cases and fourteen. In the local hospital suspects, including
