“Unfailing” Weather Signs.

To the Editor of The Times.

COLLINSVILLE, Jan. 7,

I enclose an old newspaper clipping which I wish you would publish for the benefit of your numerous readers. [We think it was cut out of the TIMES—Ed] it has been posted up in our house for several years, and has been our barometer and “probabilities” during the time, as well as an almost an unfailing prophet. Respectfully,

A SUBSCRIBER.

WEATHER SIGNS.

A Paw Paw (Michigan) farmer gives the following weather signs, which, he says, are sure:

The first Thursday in March, the first Thursday in June, the first Thursday in September, and the first Thursday in December, are the governing days for each season. Whatever point of the compass the wind indicates on those days, that will be the prevailing point for that season. On the opposite point will be the mitigating or shifting point for the same season.

How to find the number of storms for each season: If it storms on the first Thursday, or any subsequent Thursday, count the remaining days of the month, which is the calendar part of the calculation. Add to this the number of days to come off the moon, which will give the number of storms for that season, or three months. For example—if it should storm the first Thursday in March, and that was the third day of the month, there would remain 28 days in that month. If we had a new moon on that day it would give 28 days more, which added to the above, would make 56, the number of changes for that season. If it should storm on the first day of June next, we must have a wet summer.

You have nothing to do with what is passed of the month, or what is passed of the moon, but add together what is to come of both.

When the first storm come after the first Thursday, that will be the basis of calculation for the number of storms for that season. For example—if the wind should come on the first Thursday in December, and that should be a snowy day, sleighing will be plenty that winter.

Knowing the wind will be most of the time northwest, it follows that everything that falls—rain or snow—will stick. On the contrary, if the wind should be southwest or southeast, it is plain that we cannot have permanent sleighing, because snow cannot stand before these southerly winds.

The whole secret lies in ascertaining the privilege point of the wind on the first Thursday in each season, as that will locate the wind for that season. Strange as this may appear, it is true. Signed. WM. W. RYAN.

under the reconstruction acts, is only to repeat what has become well-known as a part of its unhappy history; but it may be proper here to refer to the election of 1868, by which the republican vote of the state through fraud and violence was reduced to a few thousand and the bloody riots of 1866 and 1868 show that the disorders there are not due to any recent cause, or to any late action of the federal authorities. Preparatory to the election of 1872, a shameful and undisguised conspiracy was formed to carry that election against the republicans without regard to right or law. To that end the most glaring frauds and forgeries were committed in the returns, after many colored citizens had been denied registration and others deterred by fear from casting their ballots. When the time came for a final canvass of the votes, in view of the foregoing facts, William P. Kellogg, the republican candidate for governor, brought suit upon the equity side of the United States Circuit Court for Louisiana, against Warmoth and others who had obtained possession of the returns of the election, representing that several thousand votes of the state had been deprived of the elective franchise on account of their color, and praying that steps might be taken to have said votes counted, and for general relief. To enable the court to inquire as to the truth of these allegations a temporary restraining order was issued against the defendants, which was at once wholly disregarded and treated with contempt by those to whom it was directed. These proceedings have been widely denounced as an unwarrantable interference by the federal judiciary with the election of state officers, but it is to be remembered that by the 15th amendment to the constitution of the United States, the political equality of colored citizens is secured under the second section of that amendment providing that Congress shall have power to enforce its provisions by appropriate legislation. An act was passed on the 31st of March 1870, and amended in 1871, the object of which was to prevent the denial or abridgement of suffrage to the citizens on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude, and it has been held by all the federal judges before whom the question has arisen, including Justice Strother of the supreme court, that the protection afforded by this act and its amendment is extended to states as well as to other elections. That it is the duty of the federal courts to enforce the provisions of the constitution of the United States, and the laws passed in pursuance thereof, are too clear for controversy.

Section 15 of said act, after numerous provisions therein to prevent an evasion of the 15th amendment, provides that the jurisdiction of the circuit court of the United States shall extend to all cases in law or equity arising Lowndes, Luttrell, Magee, McLean, Milliken, Mills, Morrison, Neal, Nesmith, Niblack, O'Brien, Parker of New Hampshire, Perry, Phelps, Potter, Randall, Read, Robbins, W. R. Roberts, Robinson of Illinois, Taylor of Ohio, Schell, Schumaker, Sener, Sloah, Sloss, Smith of Virginia, Speer, Stannard, Standford, Stephens of Georgia, Stone, Storm, Swann, Thomas of Virginia, Thornburgh, Vance, Waddell, Wells, Whitehead, Whitehouse, Willie, Wilson of Maryland, Wolfe, Wood, Young of Kentucky, and Young of Georgia—100.

Following is the bill as passed:

WHEREAS, "We recognize the equality of all men before the law, and hold that it is the duty of government in its dealings with the people to mete out equal and exact justice to all of whatever nativity, race, color or persuasion, religious or political."

Resolved, That all persons within the jurisdiction of the United States shall be entitled to the full and equal enjoyment of the accommodations, advantages, facilities and privileges of inns, public conveyances, on land or water, theatres, or other places of public amusement, subject to the conditions and limitations established by law and applicable alike to citizens of every race and color, regardless of any previous condition of servitude.

Section 2. That any person who shall violate the foregoing section by denying to any citizen, except for reasons by law applicable to citizens of every race and color and regardless of any previous condition of servitude, the full enjoyment of any of the accommodations, advantages, facilities or privileges, in said section enumerated, or by aiding or inciting such denial, shall for every such offense forfeit and pay the sum of $500 to the person aggrieved thereby, to be recovered in an action of debt with full costs, and shall also for every such offence be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction therefore shall be fined not less than $200 nor more than $1,000, or shall be imprisoned not less than 30 days nor more than one year. Provided that all persons may elect to sue for the penalty aforesaid, or to proceed under their rights at common law, and by state statutes, and having so elected, to proceed on the one mode or the other, their right to proceed in the other jurisdiction shall be barred; but this proviso shall not apply to criminal proceedings either under this act or the criminal law of any state, and provided further that a judgment for the penalty in favor of the party aggrieved, or a judgment upon an indictment, shall be a bar to either prosecution respectively.

Section 3. That the district and circuit courts of the United States shall have exclusively of the courts of the several states cognizance of all crimes and offenses against and violations of the provisions of this act; and actions for the penalty given by the preceding section may be prosecuted in the territorial district or circuit courts of the United States, wherever the defendant may be found without regard to the other party; and the district attorneys, marshals and deputy marshals of the United States and commissioners appointed by the circuit and territorial courts of the United States with powers of arresting and imprisoning or bailing offenders against the laws of the United States, are hereby especially authorized and required to institute proceedings against every person who shall violate the provisions of this act, and cause him to be arrested and imprisoned or bailed, as the case may be, for trial before such court of the United States or territorial court which by the law has cognizance of the offense except in respect of the right of action accruing to the person aggrieved, and such district attorneys shall such proceeding to be presented to their termination as in other cases; provided that nothing contained in this section shall be construed to deny or defeat any right of civil action occurring to any person, whether by reason of this act or otherwise, and any district attorney who shall willfully fail to institute and prosecute the proceedings herein required, shall for every such offense forfeit and pay the sum of $500, to be recovered by an action of debt, with full costs, and shall on conviction thereof be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and be fined not less than one thousand nor more than five thousand dollars; and, provided further, that a judgment for the penalty in favor of the party aggrieved against any such district attorney, or a judgment upon an indictment against any such district attorney, shall be a bar to either prosecution respectively.

Section 4. That no citizen possessing all the other qualifications which are or may be prescribed by law, shall be disqualified for service as grand or petit juror in any court of the United States, or of any state, on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude, and any officer or other person charged with any duty in the selection or summoning of jurors, who shall exclude or fail to summon any citizen for the cause aforesaid, shall on conviction thereof be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and be fined not more than five thousand dollars.

Section 5. That all cases arising under the provisions of this act in the courts of the United States shall be reviewable by the Supreme Court of the United States, without regard to the sum in controversy, under the same provisions and regulations as are now provided by law for the review of other causes in said court.

[The bill now goes to the Senate as an original House bill, without any relation whatever to the Senate bill already passed.]

Mr. Butler of Massachusetts introduced a bill to amend the act removing restrictions on the right of representatives-elect to receive their pay during the recess of Congress; referred.

Mr. Garfield, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported a joint resolution adding $20,000 to the contingent fund of the House; passed.

ticket, and its re-nomination insures its success. We do not doubt that Gov. Ingersoll would prefer to retire and enter upon his profession again, more fully than he can while acting as governor, but the people evidently desire that he shall occupy the executive chair another year. They have implicit confidence in his ability, sound judgment, and purity of character; and in these days, when the very air seems to be attainted with bad practices, such men are needed at the front. Though at personal sacrifice, we do not doubt that Gov. Ingersoll will once more accept the nomination and serve another term.

The Vacant Senatorship—Appointment of Mr. Eaton.

Gov. Ingersoll has appointed the Hon. WILLIAM W. EATON to fill the unexpired term made vacant by the death of Gov. Buckingham. The commission was issued Wednesday. This will give Mr. Eaton an opportunity to get acquainted with Senators, preparatory to taking his seat for the regular six-years term to which he has been chosen. Mr. Eaton left for Philadelphia Wednesday, where he has business requiring his attention. But he will probably not be detained there many hours.

The Rights of States.

From the reports that come from Washington we are led to believe that President Grant intends to break up the state government of Arkansas. He has appealed to Congress to take the matter of governing the state into its hands with the assurance that if Congress does not act in the premises he will. The President assumes that the people of Arkansas had no right to make a state constitution in the manner adopted in that state, which was precisely like that of a large number of the states. He assumes that a constitutional convention, called by the legislature, and organized under the laws of the state, is not legal, but that there should have first been a constitutional amendment, providing for a new constitution. But he should recollect that a dozen states to-day are acting under constitutions adopted by conventions called in the same way, and that the people of Arkansas by a direct vote, and by a majority of over 70,000, ratified the present constitution of that state. Emphatically they made it their own. Now, we should be pleased to know by what authority or right Congress can interfere with that state constitution. It is really a new doctrine that a state has to abide by the decision of Congress as to the constitution it shall adopt, so long as it is "republican in form." Congress has no more right to interfere with it than the Parliament of the Canadian Dominion; nor has the President any right to disturb a peaceful, well regulated state government. The people will not always submit to such usurpation and outrage upon their rights. If their liberties are to be maintained they cannot submit to them. But it is best to be forbearing and patient, and to await the verdict of the ballot. To defeat this verdict is the object of the President Grant. He acts as if he desired to get into collision with the southern states, hoping that the prejudices engendered by the war will be roused again, and float him

The standard bushel of the United States contains 2150.4 cubic inches. The imperial bushel is about 68 cubic inches. Any box or measure the contents of which are equal to 2150.4 cubic inches, will hold a bushel of grain. In measuring fruit, vegetables, coal and other substances, one fifth must be added. In other words a peck measure five times even full makes one bushel. The usual practice is to heap the measure
