My Dear Barrett

I notice in your paper a notice of a Printer wanting a situation
- Do you know him, and is he competent to take charge of my office, with a large job business, & one that requires to be better than well executed? Be kind enough to tell me, and I will do a good-natured thing for you, if you will stop committing suicide by following the unaccountable misgoings of Daniel Webster!

Very sincerely
Dear brother

My Dear Barrett

Yours of to-day, quoad the counterfeit presentment of Senator Phelps, is just rec^d - I hardly know how to understand your carte blanche, allowing me to order "any number" I may choose to order, and will only say that "any number" you may choose send, I will very cheerfully dispose of. Senator Phelps is a "trump card", and I am not ashamed to show, or give, his face to any body - Regulate your distribution by the wants & rights of other towns, and I will be content -

What do you say to Bill Seward now? Let me implore you to believe that he is the foremost man in that very respectable Senate. Publish his speech and endorse its views, like a good fellow and a Vermont Whig.

Very sincerely, truly

Jos. H. Barrett Esq
Middlebury

Yours in haste

My Dear Friend

I have a copy of the Counterfeit Prevention of Goods Bill, a bill rec. I think there was a suggestion from your friends, allowing me to order any number I may choose to order, and will not be numbered "you may choose any, I will not number" I suppose of Goods Bill is a "bank card" and has not returned to them, as you the fact to my copy - I regret you did not by the way I will if other times, and I will be content

What do you say to this second one? let me explain you to believe that he is the present one in that my respectable friend Patrick has asked and answered of course, this a good fellow and a Warrant this.

Very sincerely,
 Wm. McKim
