to the Printing business, in the office of the New Hampshire Statesman, at Concord; for five years was publisher, and associate Editor of the Herald of Freedom; for two years was Editor of the Eastern Journal, at Biddeford, Maine; in 1854 removed to Ohio, and for six years was an Editor ~~of a newspaper~~ in Lake County, first of the Telegraph, and afterwards the Press, and during the Presidential Campaign of 1856 had Editorial charge of the Cleveland Morning Leader; was a member

17 Hours

Rwdolph

27 B

First District— Beaufort, Bertie, Camden, Chowan, Currituck, Gates, Halifax, Hertford, Hyde, Martin, Northampton, Pasquotank, Perquimans, Tyrrell, and Washington Counties.

John R. French, of Edenton, was born at Gilmanton, New Hampshire, May 28th, 1819; served an apprenticeship to the Printing business, in the office of the New Hampshire Statesman, at Concord; for five years was publisher, and associate Editor of the Herald of Freedom; for two years was Editor of the Eastern Journal, at Biddeford, Maine; in 1854 removed to Ohio, and for six years was an Editor ~~of a newspaper~~ in Lake County, first of the Telegraph, and afterwards the Press, and during the Presidential Campaign of 1856 had Editorial charge of the Cleveland Morning Leader; was a member of the Ohio Legislature in the years 1858 and '59; in March 1861 received from Secretary Chase an appointment in the Treasury Department at Washington; in 1864 was appointed by Mr. Lincoln one of the Board of Direct Tax Commissioners for the State of North Carolina, to which State he immediately removed; in 1867 was the Delegate from Chowan County to the North Carolina Constitutional Convention; in 1868 was elected to the fortieth congress as a Republican receiving 14,793 votes against 10,346 for Gillam, conservative.