8

LEDGER AND TRANSCRIPT

Philadelphia, Thursday, March 19, 1891.

Obituary.

William H. Herndon, Abraham Lincoln's law partner, and author of a "Life of Lincoln," died at his residence near Springfield, Illinois, yesterday, of la grippe. He was 72 years of age. His youngest son, Willis, died six hours before him from the same disease.

---

c

Springfield Ills. Sept 4th '90

Mr. Green—

My dear Sir:

Your letter, dated the 28th of August '90, was duly received and should have been answered sooner but I was very busy and Could not. I regret to say that years ago I gave away all the autographs which I had of Mr. Lincoln as well as all scraps of paper which I could find with his name on it written by himself. I gave away all scraps of paper which he wrote – was in his hand writing. I Could 25 years ago have given away thousands of his autographs – scraps of his hand writing. I am sorry that I Cannot accommodate you. I Cannot tell you where nor from whom you Can get an autograph nor any scraps of paper written by Mr Lincoln, the great American thinker and Emancipator.

Your Friend
W. H. Herndon

[illegible]

Herndon re autograph of A. Lincoln

SPRINGFIELD
SEP 5
11 30 AM
90

Jesse C Green Westchester Pa

the payment of matured stock, no loan were offered.

The Charles Carroll No. 2 met at Sixt and Cherry streets and took in $875. A loa of $3000 was applied for.

The R. B. Taney met Monday last at Sixt and Cherry streets

Rogers & Co.

Double Harness, by Rush; Blankets, Whip, &c.

May seen at J. Hart's Stable on Thursday and Friday.

ALSO.

The property of a private gentleman.

A pair of handsome bay trotting Horses, 5 and 6 years old, 16 hands high, kind in single and double harness, fearless of locomotives; believed can trot a mile in 3 min. to the pole, and the off hors 2.40; they can be driven either single or double

LEDGER AND TRANSCRIPT

Philadelphia, Thursday, March 19, 1891.

Obituary.

William H. Herndon, Abraham Lincoln's law partner, and author of a "Life of Lincoln," died at his residence near Springfield, Illinois, yesterday, of la grippe. He was 72 years of age. His youngest son, Willis, died six hours be- him from the same disease.

WEST CHESTER PA.
1890
9AM
REC'D.