

Feb 21st 63.

Executive Mansion

My Dear Mrs Welles:

Allow me to thank you for your sympathizing & kindly remembrance of yesterday, when I felt so broken hearted - Only those, who have passed through such bereavements, can 29462 realize, how the heart bleeds

at the return, of these anniversaries. - I have never been able, to express to you, how I grieve over your troubles, our precious lambs, if we could only realize, how far happier they now are than when on earth! Heaven help the sorrowing, and how full the land is, of such!
Any morning, you may have leisure, I should like to see, I 29463 would enjoy, a little conversation with you - Ever sincerely, Mary Lincoln

To Mrs Wells

Wash. Feb. 21 '63

Chicago Hist. ?

Feb 21st 63.

Executive Mansion

My Dear Mrs Welles:

Allow me to thank
you for your sympathizing & kindly remembrance of
yesterday, when I felt so
broken hearted. Only those,
who have passed through
such bereavements, can
realize, how the heart bleeds

at the return, of these anni-
-versaries, - I have never been able, to express to you, how I grieved over your troubles,
our precious lambs, if we could only realise, how far happier they now are
than when on earth! Heaven
help the sorrowing, and how
full the land is, of such!
Any morning, you may have leave, I should like to see ^{you} I would ²⁹⁴⁶³ enjoy, a little conversation with you - Ever sincerely - Mary Lincoln

