BEFORE the 20th of October. AFTER

Robin Roughhead.-Odds bobs ! I've a waundy moind to have a chance in this same Lottery. My mother has been a-d eaming like mad-the money is no great deal-and if I should get a Prize, haw the folks would stare when I gang'd back! Ecod! I'd have a farm, and cows, and sheep, and pigs!-Here goes.

James Whiting, Printer, Finsbury Place, London.

Who'd ha' thought that my journey to Lunnun wouldha' turn'd out so well? Ecod! that Lottery Office Man is a rare fellow! Well! I have now gotten a farm well stockedand though I might look a little higher than neighbour Dobbin's daughter, as I have gotten so much money, yet my good fortune sha'nt make me break my promise. When we are married, we shall be as happy as the day is longand as Fortune has been so kind to me, I shall never refuse my mite to the needy.

BEFORE the 20th of October. AFTER

Come along, Tom, or we shall be borcd to deathThat fellow Jack has no gratitude - when he had money, I took an infinite deal of pains to teach him to spend it like a gentleman-now it's gone, he is always teazing me with his wants.-It annoys me ex= ceedingly.

Hallo! Jack-my dear fellow, won't you stop, and let me congratulate you upon your good fortune? I heard you had obtained a prize in the Lottery, and it gave me infinite pleasure.

Jack. Did you speak to me? I don't recollect-I'm in haste, and to be bored thus annoys me exceedingly.

James Whiting, Priater, Finsbury Place, London.
