FORTUNE's Favorite.

IF FORTUNE's favours you would gain,
And fill your purse with pelf,
Apply at CARROLL's Lott'ry fane*,—
There FORTUNE lives herself.

For Forty Years he has dispens'd
Her favors to his Friends,
And thinks himself well recompens'd,
If he can suit their ends.

The Lott'ry that has just now pass'd
He Shared and Sold ('tis true)
TWO TWENTY THOUSANDS—and the LAST
Of THIRTY THOUSAND too!!

With many more of great amount—
Some Millions I may say—
Which might, if brought to full account,
The Nation's Debt near pay.

This Lott'ry, FORTUNE her support
Has promis'd CARROLL's Fame,
To sell the PIPES of FINE OLD PORT,
And LARGEST PRIZE again!

NOW THIRTY THOUSAND, as you know,
The Scheme can boast of THREE;
And Five Score Capitals they show
In this Grand Lottery.

TWELVE PIPES OF PORT too, in exchange
For First-drawn Blank each day.
For which G. CARROLL will arrange
That you shall never pay.

So buy of CARROLL while you can,
A Ticket or a Share;
For CARROLL is the only Man
To dissipate your care.

PIDDING and Co.

No. 1, CORNHILL,

WHILST presenting a few PUZZLING Profiles for the Amusement of their Friends, respectfully solicit the Favours of those who intend to adventure in the GRAND LOTTERY which begins JULY 19th: this must include every Individual who has a Trifle to spare, as there are Prizes of £40,000, £30,000, £20,000, and 12,000 GUINEAS IN GOLD! with many other Capitals and Benefits, inducements which must prove irresistible;—but there is another subject to which it is necessary to draw attention,—Where is it the policy of Adventurers to make their Purchases?—Now, every one must have remarked that LUCK shifts about from Office to Office, that it rarely happens the large Prizes are sold at the same Offices which sold the last;* and as PIDDING & Co.'s Office may be literally said to have lain Fallow for the last Season, although in the aggregate Average of Prizes it can challenge a comparison with any other, there is certainly a rational cause for presuming that some of the above will now be sold at the LUCKY CORNER, No. 1, CORNHILL.

* On the Continent, People are so prepossessed of the Improbability of a Capital Prize being sold at the same Office which had sold any in the preceding Lottery, that they absolutely desert that Office, and the Proprietor has no other resource than to shut it up, and open another under a fresh Firm.

BUONAPARTE and the DEVIL. EMPEROR ALEXANDER & PRINCE BLUCHER.

MR. PITT and MR. FOX.

Profiles designed and presented Gratis by PIDDING and Co. at the Lucky Corner, No. 1, CORNHILL.
