NOW OR NEVER!

If you wish to court Fortune and make her your friend,
And bid care defiance for ever,
No moment was e'er so propitious, depend—
Now's the time for a fortune or never.

A Wheel so magnificent never was known,
And only ONE DAY left to draw;
With Two Thirty Thousands! the like you must own,
In the course of your life you ne'er saw.

Rich Capitals plenty abundantly shine,
Which ALL in ONE DAY must come out;
And the Office for Prizes, as well as Port Wine,
Is CARROLL's beyond any doubt.

A Rich Thirty Thousand 'twas CARROLL who sold;
And the very last Lottery that drew,
Six Capital Prizes; and truth must be told,
He of Grand Twenty Thousands sold TWO!!

With such a succession of fortune, 'tis plain,
To CARROLL, 'tis wise to repair;
For where Fortune has smil'd we should seek her again,
And now is the time for a Share.
