

to show by on your Business
Nov 21/32
1/2 14

17 Fitzwilliam Sq. West
Nov. 21. 1832.

My Dear Sir,

Your Brother, J. Forman Mahon, has been good enough to remunerate my services on the Election of 1830. by an order on you for £25. to be presented for payment on the 17th of February next. This order he has given to prevent, as he is kind enough to say, my meeting with any disappointment in consequence of his possible absence from Ireland at the time. I was in hopes to be able to convert it into money, but cannot succeed, as it is not on a stamp in the nature of an acceptance. Perhaps if I send it to you, you would

Charles Mahony
Ennis - New Park -

permit me to draw for the amount at three months - which would be imposing on me a very great favor indeed, as I am just now rather in want of money -

Believe me, my dear Sir, very faithfully yours
Henry Phelps

Mr P Keam
Letter enclosing of Mr order for £30 Dec: 1832

Charles Mahony Esq

New Park

Edinburgh

DEC 11 1832

Charles Mahony Esq
New Park

Limerick
Cecil Street
24th Dec 1832

My dear Mahony,

As I am detained here by an to Limerick Election. I am obliged to hand you enclosed a letter from your brother Thomas Mahony, which pretended to have given you in person - I still feel much obliged by your remitting me pursuant thirty pounds being the sum your brother has requested you to pay me on account of my fees as his Agent at the Clare Election in 1830.

If more convenient you can give this sum to Mr. Joseph Gegan of Ennis, who will transmit it to me. Believe me yours very truly & faithfully
Richd Keane Esq

[Faint, mirrored handwriting is visible across the entire surface of the paper, likely bleed-through from the reverse side. The text is illegible due to fading and the paper's texture.]

1832

James Baker Esq
City of Williams & Queen's Birth
Dublin

F. Williams
No. 26. 11. St. Martin's Lane
London

Kilrush Sept 29. 1832

Dear Sir

Both your letters I have received and it will not be in my power to give you my support at the ensuing election, and am sorry that you should have so much misunderstood me as to imagine I meant to do so.

In reply to your second letter, I have already formed the Grand Jury, & even were it not the case

There are so many that would have prior claims upon me, that I fear I could not comply with your wishes.

I remain Dear Sir

Your obedient Servant
Stephen M. Vandeleur

25th Cumberland Street

6 August 1831

Dear Mr. Habon

When I wrote my first note to you this morning I was not aware of the extent to which my letter of the 28th ~~last~~ ^{past} had been altered. The Alterations from what I have just heard are of a very important nature and such most certainly as I would not publish, and I mentioned in the presence of Mr Dawson that not one word of my letter was to be altered. And the letter having been altered (as I am informed) it no longer mine - I must therefore beg of you not to publish any communication as from me. - Not having received any communication from you in reply to

J. W.
Habon

Mr. Habon

25th Cumberland Street

My second note I called at the Printing Office office and was informed they had not then received your letter and I requested of them not to publish any matter with my name to it without my first perusing it - I regret having been obliged to adopt this course but I felt it to be unavoidable - do not I entreat if you publish the letter as from me as by doing so the only course you'd leave open to me would be a disavowal - an alternative I cannot contemplate without the utmost pain

Dear

Dear James Mearns
yours truly
Wm. Fullin

GIBBONS & WILLIAMS'S

Public Notaries and Stock Brokers

38 DAME STREET

DUBLIN.

Allans Lithog.

Trinity Street.

Bot.

(Copy)

18/19 Dec. 1832

£ 400 ———— New 3 yep Cut Stock

291. 2. 6 £ 364. 10

307. 10. 10 291 ———— 279. 17. 3

707. 10. 10 yadd ———— 4. 15 ————

Brok^{ee} ———— 17. 9

£ 650

Thomas Mahon Esq has handed us the above sum of Six hundred and fifty pounds. St. Gibbons & Welbourn

Mr. [Name] from the Co. Kildare whom I saw on a shooting excursion since I last wrote to you I found your letter before reaching my residence. Its contents & tenor Sept. 1832 263 ~~conclude to be rather boring than interesting~~ & indeed it is impossible for me to pass it over in silence, having acknowledged the receipt both my communications you reply to the lastly saying that "the jury was found" ^{it is only on the latter part of the sentence that I have any right to comment} if the latter part of the Capant & is meant to be viewed in a public sense, it is ^{due to} ~~not~~ ^{just} that I should correct the error into which you have fallen - There is not in Clare a ~~single~~ ^{in any wise purposed to} man ~~who~~ ^{subtly & indirectly} claim a higher title to the ready & respectful attention of the ^{of the Co} ~~public~~ ^{of the Co} functionary that the individual who ~~had the honor to address~~ ^{had the honor to address} you nor any who can aspire to take precedence of him at least where the ^{attributes of noble progeniture and} ~~marks of noble~~ blood constitute itself in the scale of appreciation - The present being the first great ^{of the} ~~of my~~ county which I ^{had any wish} ~~ever wished~~ to attend, I ^{would here inconsiderately myself} ~~should have made it my~~ ~~business to~~ ^{to have done so} ~~and the sheriff to whom I had~~ ^(instead of making a demand of right) ~~been~~ ^{condemned to} address a request on the subject ^(instead of demanding as of right) should have appreciated the act as it merited and called to recollection, or if ^{unacquainted} with the fact, have learned before sending ^{such} a reply, that the Co over which he for the short space of a year presides as chief magistrate, ^{constituted} ~~formed~~ for many centuries previous to its perfidious occupation by foreign adventurers, but a ^{very} ~~limited~~ ^{portion} of those districts, ^{in Ireland} over which my ancestors exercised paramount sway, & if no other motive suggested itself to influence his conduct, this alone should have checked a diffident style of ^{answer} ~~reply~~ to a request ^{emanating} from such a quarter -

~~If however the quotation given above relative to joint claims~~ ~~was assigned to convey that they were of a private and personal~~ ~~nature, then indeed I should have no right to reply~~ ~~at all independent of this consideration, the stubborn fact of~~ ~~my being possessed~~ ^{also} ~~of this consideration, the stubborn fact of~~ ~~my being possessed~~ ^{(is properly, were to regulate the selection by the sheriff} ~~should not itself~~ ^{have been an immediate} complacence with my share -

If however the quotation given above relative to joint claims in your was assigned to convey, that ^{these} ~~they~~ were of a private or personal nature, ~~then indeed I should have no right to reply~~ ~~at all independent of this consideration, the stubborn fact of~~ ~~my being possessed~~ ^{There I quite} ~~of this consideration, the stubborn fact of~~ ~~my being possessed~~ ^{as ready to yield} ~~of this consideration, the stubborn fact of~~ ~~my being possessed~~ ^{implicitly} ~~of this consideration, the stubborn fact of~~ ~~my being possessed~~ ^{this position is} I am to combat the former, but I admit I can have no right to complacence for as I ~~had~~ ^{before} mentioned, I have no ~~claim~~ ^{the} the ^{whatsoever} ~~my~~ ^{My} ~~decided~~ ^{conduct} towards ^{of} ~~the~~ ^{father} when my support was as ~~the~~ ^{of} ~~considerable~~ ^{lower} ~~rank~~ ^{to} ~~him~~ ^{to} ~~be~~ ^{recognized} ~~in~~ ^{you} ~~as~~ ^{as}

Faint handwritten text at the top of the page.

Faint handwritten text in the upper middle section, possibly including a signature or name.

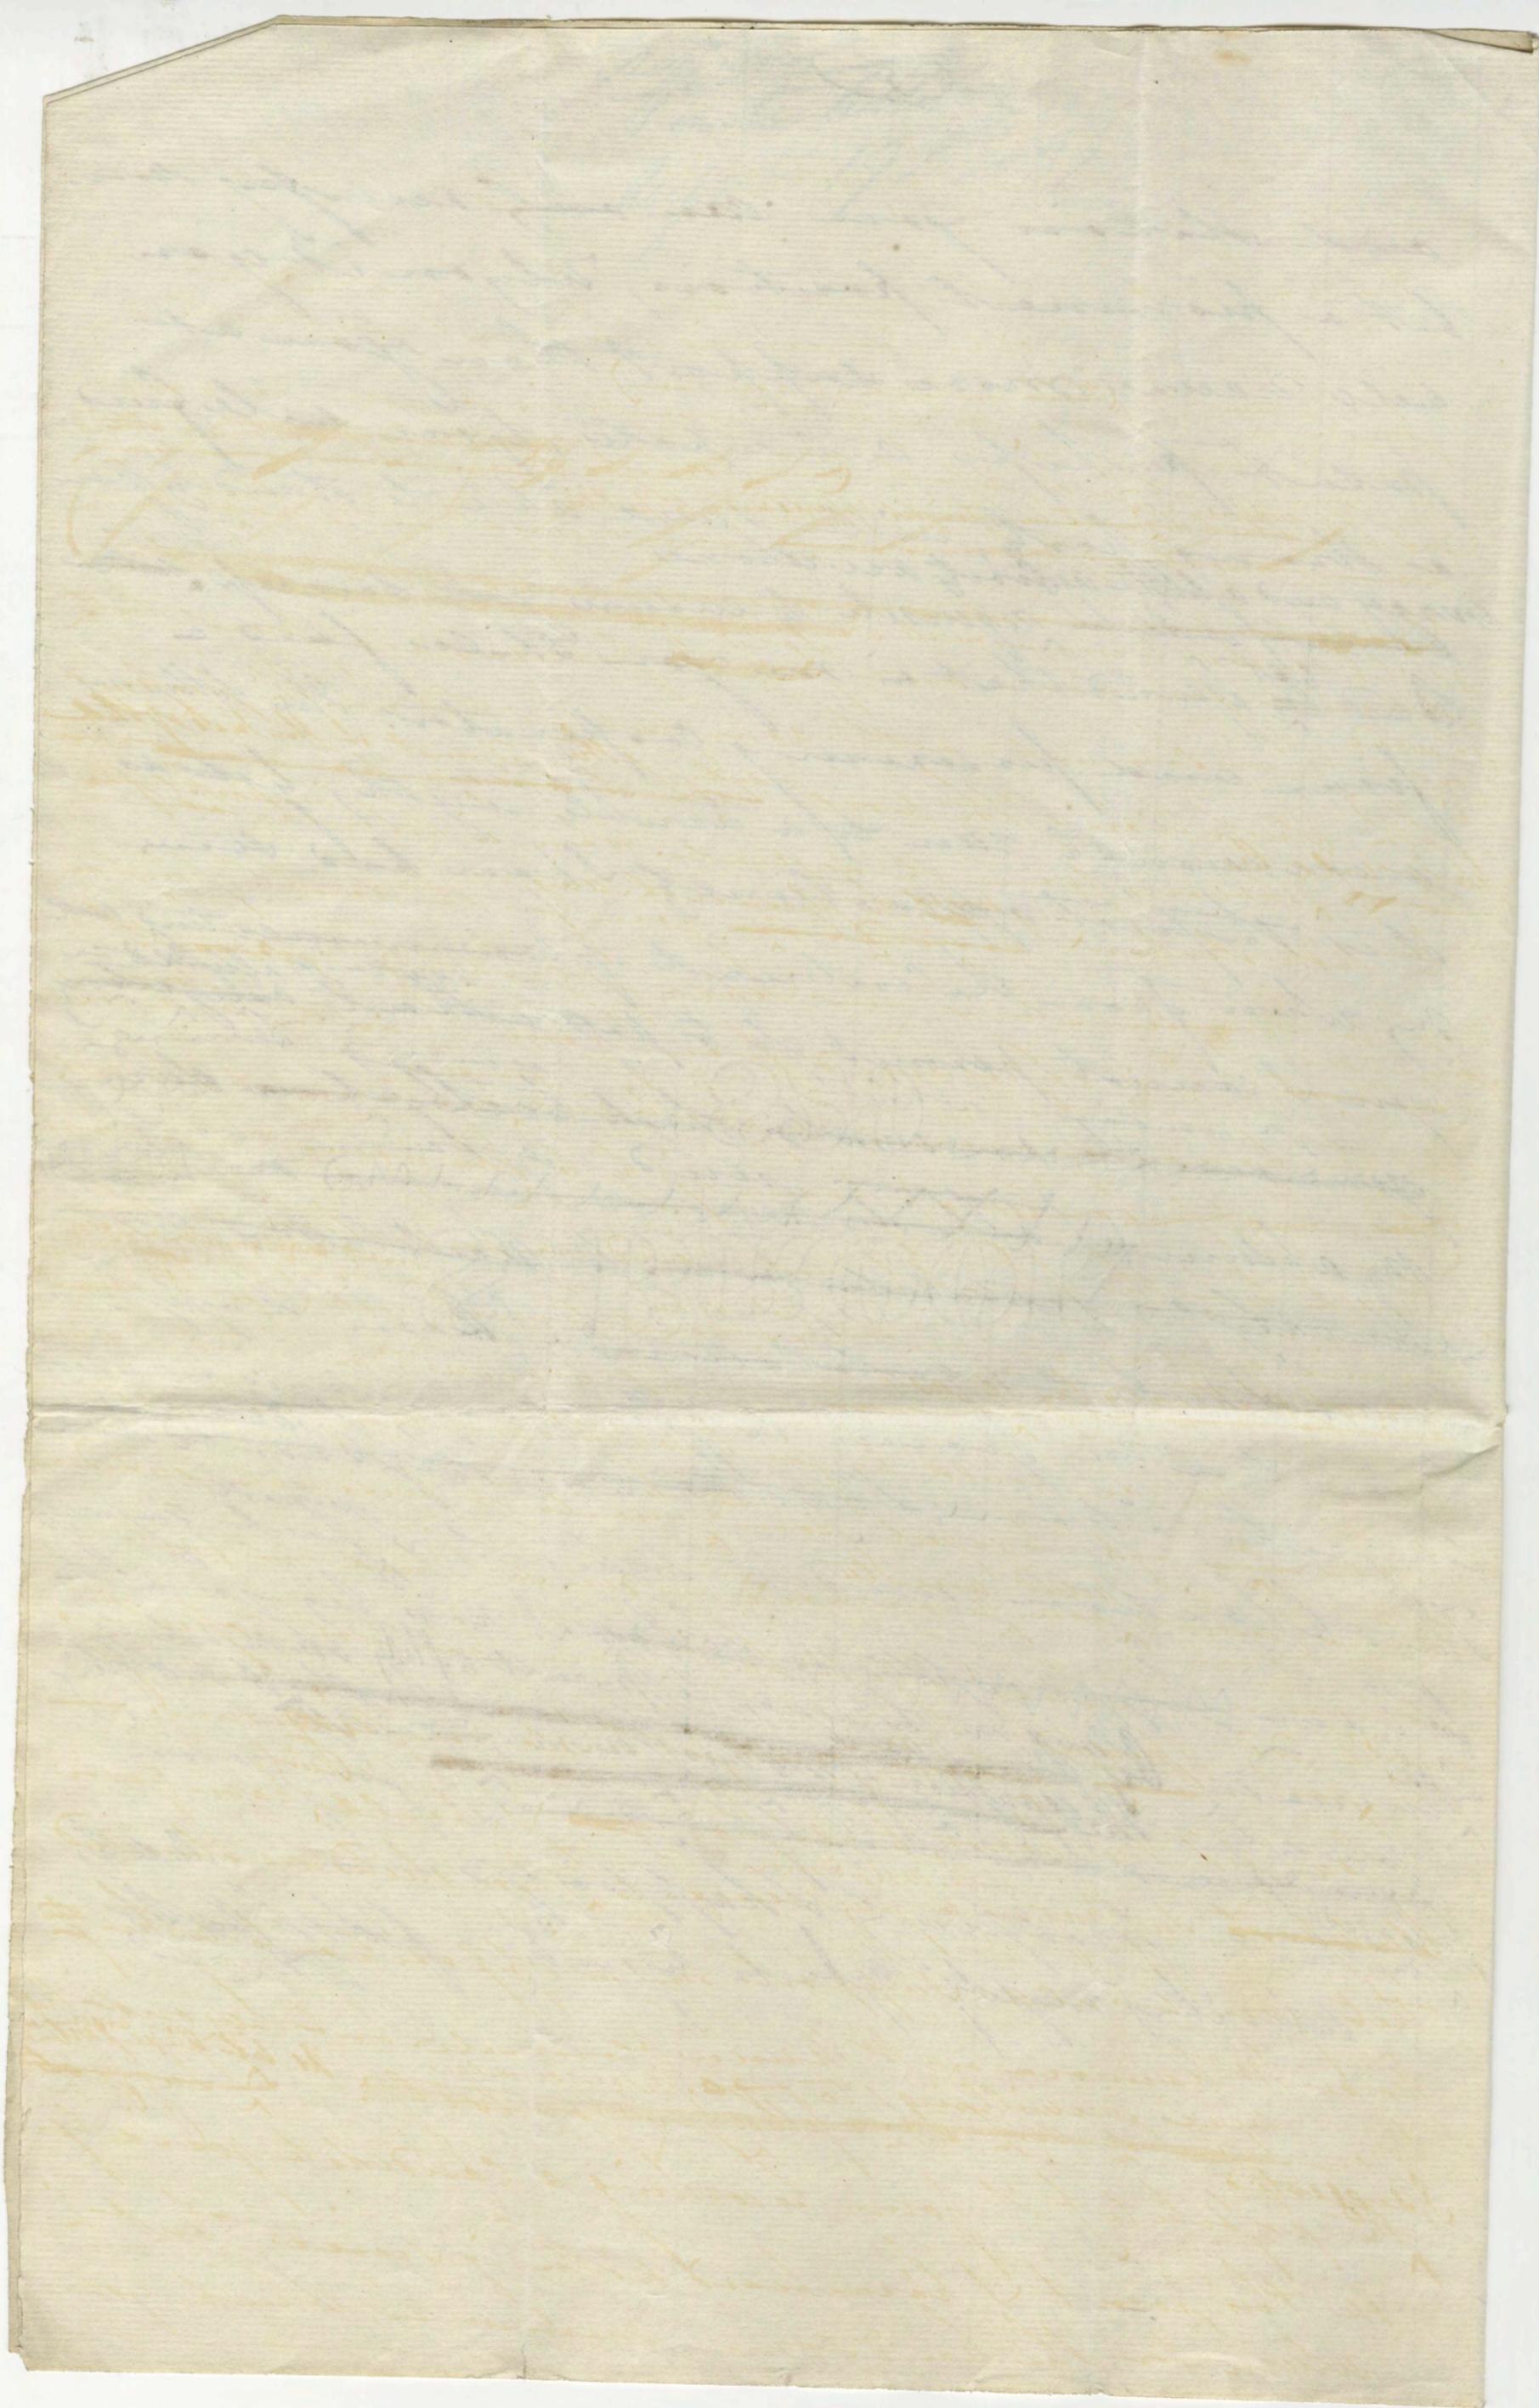

Faint handwritten text in the middle section, possibly a date or a short note.

Faint handwritten text in the lower middle section.

Van D. W. W. W.

[Faint, illegible handwriting on aged, yellowed paper with multiple horizontal and vertical fold lines.]

[The page contains dense, mirrored handwriting in brown ink, appearing to be bleed-through from the reverse side of the paper. The text is largely illegible due to the mirroring and fading. A prominent horizontal crease is visible across the middle of the page, and the top right corner is folded over.]

~~Croft~~
Hunt
August 19, 1837

...the connection that everyone of this man would vote for me - ~~the~~ ~~public~~ ~~declaration~~ ~~that they would~~ by Major ~~the~~ ~~Mr~~ ~~Mc~~ ~~James~~ that they would enter into no coalition whatsoever warranted the belief that ~~mutually~~ at least would have been observed.
Mark what really took place - scarcely had the decla--tions against all coalitions been uttered, when I received a proposal from Mr M. Howells & his party offering to ~~write with the same~~ ~~intention~~ to this effect, that if I would consent to write with them my own names should be secured in the first instance but Macnamara then threw out - I hope I need scarcely say that I rejected such a treacherous and (after what had occurred) ^{such a highly} ~~proposed~~ ^{proposition} with the decision & attempt it merited - ~~the~~ ~~arrangement~~ ~~to~~ ~~write~~ ~~forces~~ ~~against~~ ~~me~~ ~~was~~ ~~entered~~ ~~into~~ between Mr Ham & Howells I know not, but on the very first day of polling when Mr M. Howells agents were deficient in tallies they were instantly supplied scarcely ~~the~~ ~~agents~~ ~~of~~ ~~Mr~~ ~~Macnamara~~ ~~agents~~ & ~~high~~ ~~her~~ ~~was~~ the agents of ^{both} writing in ~~opposition~~ ~~delaying~~ & ~~threw~~ -ing every obstruction in way of mine. But as if to prevent ~~the~~ ~~possibility~~ ~~of~~ ~~my~~ ~~doubt~~ ~~and~~ ~~to~~ ~~render~~ ~~the~~ shamefulness of the transactions more glaring - Macnamara tenantry who had ^{themselves} promised to vote for me and whose ^{support} I had been personally assured on honor should be mine - ~~it~~ ~~is~~ ~~to~~ ~~be~~ ~~seen~~ ~~that~~ ~~the~~ ~~men~~ ~~who~~ brought up and literally forced to vote not alone for Macnamara but for Mr M. O. also, with the exception of two or three who declared that as they were not at liberty to vote as they wished for me they would not vote against.

