Dublin June 20th 1848.

My dear O. Gorman Maron.

There was I remember a deed of security prepared by Liliard to establish a debt due to my late Father's estate, but for many reasons, among which was your declining to sign it. This document was pronounced not worth the skin it was written upon, it was never stamped, and I do not even know in whose possession it may be. Certainly not in mine, and I have not even the terms of it present to my memory. I am of opinion the £4000 you refer to as vested in Irish Securities, must be the legacy of Miss M. A.
O'Brien, of <sup>like amount</sup> ~~that sum~~ of which one moiety is payable to S. John, and the other moiety to the Executor and trustee of the Will, and upon this other moiety you have I believe a life interest.

under your Sister in law's will. I have not a single document here to which I can refer. as I have placed the whole of the matter in the hands of my Solicitors in Dublin.

I profit of this opportunity to tell you that I paid for the funeral of your regretted Sister Susan a Sum of 928th Day. £37. 2. 6 and that I am informed this Sum cannot be ranked against the Estate of Mr. O. Gorman Naton. the more so as it will be impossible to pay all her own debts. out of the assets.

Death has been at work among us, and I was called back on Sunday by the very sudden decease of Mrs. Case. Altho' 76. She was hale & hearty and paid a visit the very day she died. It is a great blow to Mr. Fernu who lived with her. and Mrs. French will also feel it very much. She is away at present. Harian is well but in grief. The younger ones are in England.

I am, ever yours truly
