and honor and a perfectly spotless life instead of riches and position. My future husband's character is quite the most perfect I have ever known.

Pray give my kindest remembrances and good wishes for the New Year to dear Mrs. Conran

And Believe me ever
Very faithfully yours

My dear Mr. Barchett I was going to have the pleasure of calling on you today but my sister cannot spare me for more than half an hour at a time, also I am very tired with sitting up with her. She is not in the slightest danger, but she Requires Constant Care for fear that Clamps should arrive. Pray do not think me disrespectful. You and Mrs. Collier have always been so very kind to me. If I should be prevented from coming before Wednesday would you have the kindness to send me or bring me the address of the Editor of the "Architect" which you gave me once before, but which I mislaid?

Perhaps you have heard that I am engaged?
I am sorry to say that it has pained my father very much. I have chosen fifty

My dear Mr. Burchett

I return you with many thanks Mr. Rant's letter which gave my sister great pleasure.

How much surprised and delighted at the the last sentence!

We met Mr Durkin at a friend's house lately and he called here soon after.

I thought him so very nice.

Will bring you
"Daughters of Aeth" when I come to see you, that will be soon. Some one told me that you were going abroad.
Is it true?

Very faithfully yours
Alice Thompson

My dear Mrs. Burdett

Paper is going to send for "Doot Clavison", and I will send them over to you at once. The fact is, that copies I have ordered, and I have already kept them so long that I know you will kindly excuse the delay and allow me to send you my own instead when they come.

I am very much afraid that I have no notes which would quite do for the Architect, but if you will let me I will bring you what I have, one day, and consult, as you know the Miller's requirements better than I.

With kindest regards to all your circle

Believe me ever
Faithfully yours

Dear Mrs. Bouchett
I beg to give you all much pleasure to see your friends next Wednesday or on any other Wednesday

I am really very sorry to say that as regards calling on Mrs. Ellingham on Wednesday I fear I cannot manage it. Rpl always begin to arrive at three o'clock. and Mama finds it so fatiguing to receive them without me that I am obliged to be on the spot, - especially as Mini is hardly ever at home until later in the afternoon. Look forward however to making Mrs.

Ellingham's acquaintance in more favourable circumstances.

Believe me ever
Sincerely yours
Elizabeth Thompson

My dear Mrs Burdett

In Case you had kindly intended to come to us on Wednesday, I am sorry to have to tell you that - Mama will not be at home on that day as she has just heard

Of the death of her brother in law.

We hope to have the pleasure of seeing you again after Easter

With kindest regards to all your circle

Believe me ever

Faithfully yours

Dear Mrs. Burdett

I am so very sorry that I could not accept your kind invitation last Saturday. There was a function at our church at which we had promised to be present - the crowning of Our Lady of Solenos. I hope very much for another opportunity of making Mrs.

Atkins's acquaintance.

Mama will be at home on Wednesday the 26th and I hope we shall have the pleasure of seeing you and Mrs. Chis and May.

Yours
Very faithfully yours

My dear Mr. Buschelt I have put down Mr. Spackman's name for Saturday, which is the day of the official Private Men. We have a. C. left for tomorrow. The great world will be there on Saturday - tomorrow's private men has got up at the last moment for some of our own friends to see the pictures comfortably.

If Mr. & Mrs.
Jorgensen are ^{in town} here on next Wednesday it would give us great pleasure to see them here, but Maria will return Mrs. Jorgensen's kind visit before then.

Believe me
Sincerely yours
Oscar Thompson

My dear Mr Barckett
Will you please tell me what numbers of Daniel Doornika you have had, so that I may see you the continuation? I have kept you waiting a long time, but it was entirely

The fault of a friend of mine who kept the volumes in bad paper.
I have them now at last. and I must write to make you wait.

I hardly know whether this will find you still in town.

We leave for Italy on Thursday.

Pray remember me very kindly to Mrs. Cowan, whom I have not seen for such a long time!

Believe me Ever
Very faithfully yours

Tuesday morning

Dear Mrs. Buschett

I shall be very happy to accept Mrs.
Houghton's kind invitation for tomorrow. Will you please drop me a line to say when I shall be with you.
Faithfully yours
Alice Thompson

My dear Mr. Burdett One word in haste to say Do not come to my Studio to-morrow for I shall not be there. We must fix another time.
Yours Sincerely
Minnie Thompson

My dear Mrs. Barchett

I fear it will be quite impracticable for my sister to go out at night for at least a week.

I cannot even go out to Mass yet. She looks forward with real pleasure
