My dear Browning –

A few days ago I ~~saw~~ suggested to Forster the expediency of his & you visiting the Crystal Palace tomorrow (Wednesday) / dining here afterwards. I dare say that he has already written to you, – but to provide against accidents (for he has been out of town) I write to say that I or my wife will be ~~at~~ in the Centre of the Crystal Palace (the raised platform where the Queen was) at Three o'Clock tomorrow – ~~that~~ we shall dine at Six o'Clock precisely & we live in Omnibus goes to London at Nine.

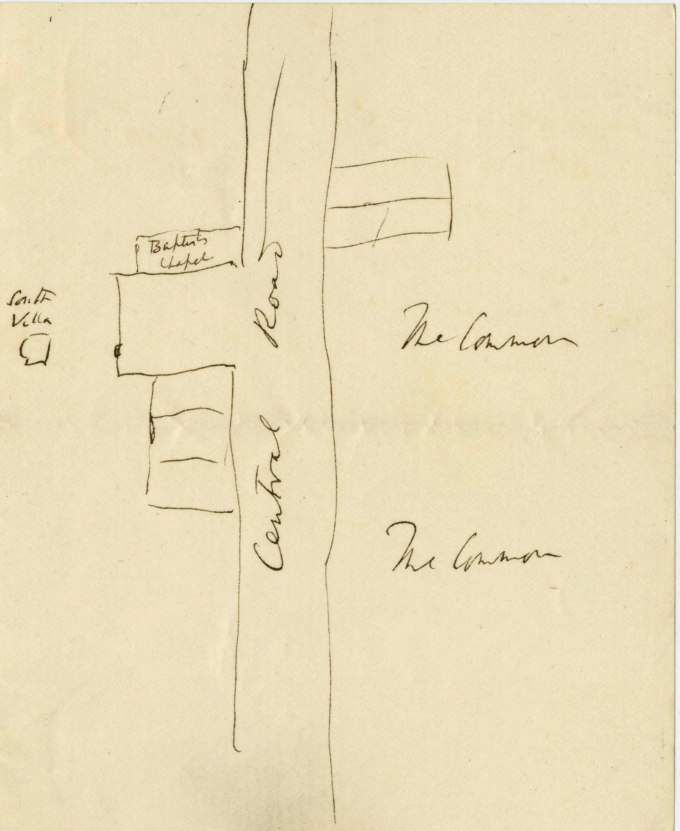

what is called The Central Road [or an indentation of it rather] – are next door to the Baptists' Chapel.

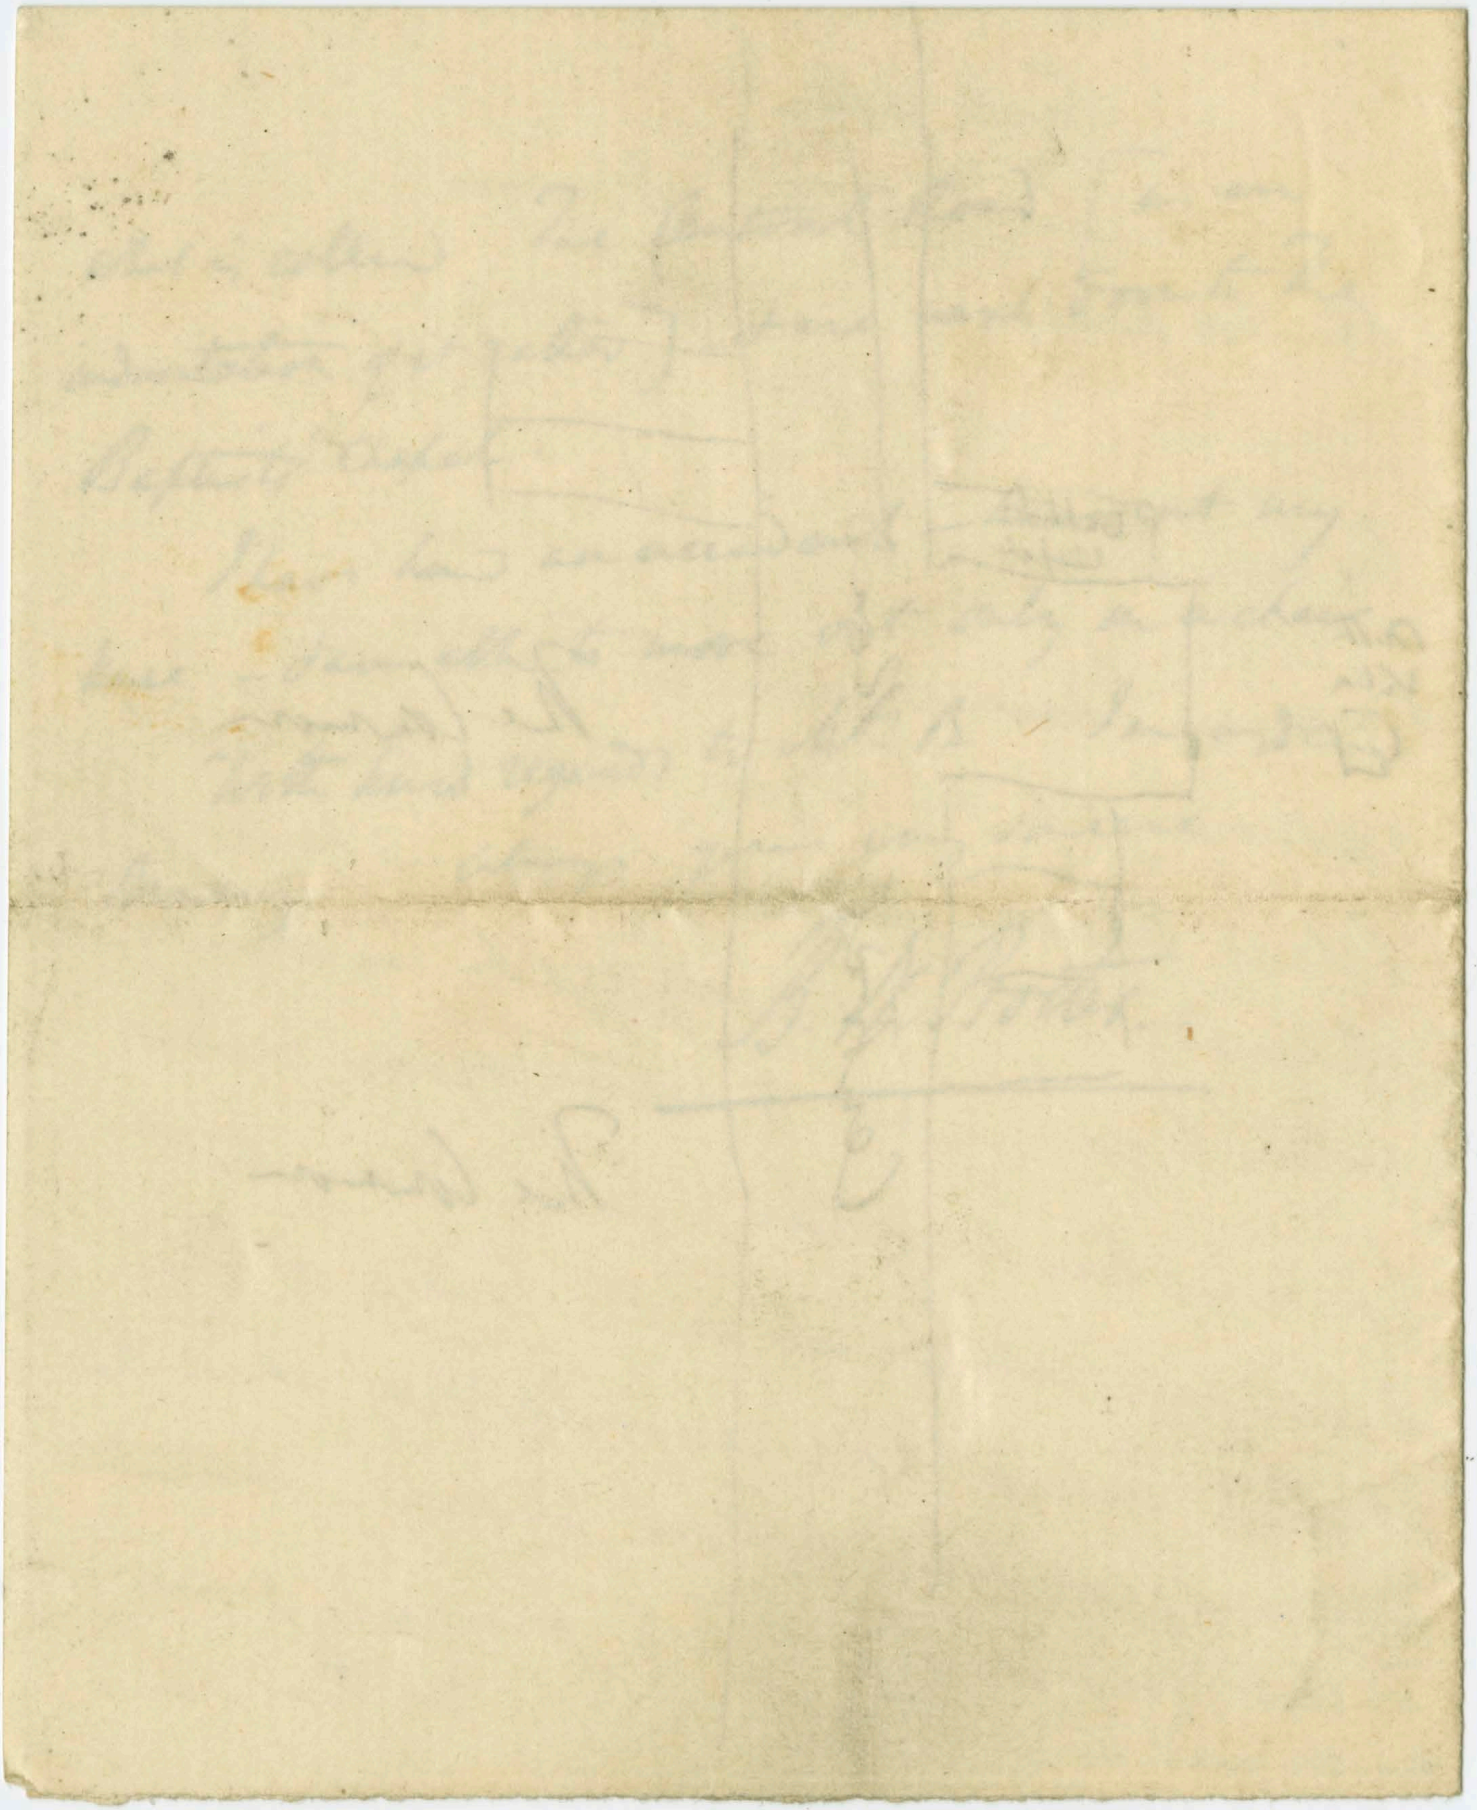

I have had an accident – have cut my knee – am able to move out only in a chair.

With kind regards to Mrs B I am ever

Bramley always your very sincere

B. W. Procter.
