JOHN M. GLENN
76 WEST MONROE STREET
CHICAGO

March 1, 1915.

Mr. Henry Pratt Judson,
University of Chicago.,
Chicago, Ill.

Dear Sir:-

Several years ago, a member of the Chicago Club proposed my name as a member. Recently the name was reached on the waiting list and it was suggested by a member of the executive committee that it be withdrawn.

I have never requested any one to propose my name in a social or a business organization and have not the least inclination to intrude where my presence is not desired.

It is true I have been aggressive as to business but in personal matters I have not been and it is hardly possible that I could have given personal offense to any one in the club. The work in which I am engaged has been constructive and in the interest of business and the members of the Chicago Club have benefited by it. I am of good character, I am moral, I am temperate, and my social standing is good. I am of good family. I have lived in this locality all my life and enjoy a good reputation.

It does not seem fair that the club should be used to punish me for doing those things it was my duty to do and which were in no sense personal to me.

The foregoing facts are brought to your attention not in a spirit of revenge. I am jealous as to my record. I have kept it clean. The object is to let you know that the action was taken not because I am not honest, upright and straightforward but on account of the personal feeling of one or two members of the executive committee.

Very truly yours,

John M Glenn

JMG-HRB

9

Chicago, March 5, 1915

Dear Sir:-

Your favor of the 1st inst. is received. Of course I know nothing of the circumstances under which the Committee of the Club have acted.

Very truly yours,

H.P.J. - L.

Mr. John M. Glenn,
76 W. Monroe St., Chicago.