

Chicago, December 8, 1915

My dear Mr. Koo:-

Herewith I beg to extend my cordial congratulations on your appointment as Minister to represent China in Washington, and my great pleasure also in having you in this country. I remember very pleasantly meeting you in Peking in 1914, when I was there as Chairman of the China Medical Commission of the Rockefeller Foundation. I need not add that I am deeply interested in the development of China, and shall hope some time this winter to have the pleasure of paying my respects on you when I am in Washington.

With best regards, I am,

Very truly yours,

H.P.J. - L.

His Excellency V. K. Wellington Koo,
The Chinese Legation,
Washington, D. C.

Chicago, December 8, 1913

My dear Mr. Koo:-

Herewith I beg to extend my cordial congratulations on your appointment as Minister to represent China in Washington, and my great pleasure also in having you in this country. I remember very pleasantly meeting you in Peking in 1914, when I was there as Chairman of the China Medical Commission of the Rockefeller Foundation. I need not add that I am deeply interested in the development of China, and shall hope some time this winter to have the pleasure of paying my respects on your when I am in Washington.

With best regards, I am,

Very truly yours,

H. P. L. - L.

His Excellency V. K. Wellington Koo,
The Chinese Legation,
Washington, D. C.

15
7

CHINESE LEGATION
WASHINGTON

December 1, 1916.

seeing you and with kindest regards, I remain

Yours sincerely,
W. M. Wellington

President Harry Pratt Judson
The University of Chicago
Chicago, Ill.

My dear President Judson:

I have the pleasure of acknowledging the receipt of your kind letter of the 23rd ult. with reference to my visit to Chicago on the occasion of the University Convocation on the 19th inst. in which you inform me that there will be a reception in my honor at the University on the 18th in the evening, following a dinner for me at your home. I wish to thank you for planning so much for my entertainment and shall arrange to arrive at Chicago on time for these engagements. I shall probably take the Sunday afternoon express train leaving here at 6.15 and arriving at Chicago Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

I have just heard from Mr. Arthur Reynolds, of the Continental and Commercial National Bank, inviting me to be guest at a luncheon on Tuesday previous to the Convocation exercises, and as the time does not conflict with my University engagement I have accepted this invitation.

Mrs. Koo regrets very much that she cannot accompany me on this trip on account of our little baby.

Looking forward with pleasure to

CHINESE LEGATION
WASHINGTON

December 1, 1916.

President Harry Pratt Judson
The University of Chicago
Chicago, Ill.

My dear President Judson:

I have the pleasure of acknowledging the receipt of your kind letter of the 23rd ult. with reference to my visit to Chicago on the occasion of the University Convocation on the 18th inst. in which you inform me that there will be a reception in my honor at the University on the 18th in the evening, following a dinner for me at your home. I wish to thank you for planning so much for my entertainment and shall arrange to arrive at Chicago on time for these engagements. I shall probably take the Sunday afternoon express train leaving here at 6.15 and arriving at Chicago Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

I have just heard from Mr. Arthur Reynolds, of the Continental and Commercial National Bank, inviting me to be guest at a luncheon on Tuesday previous to the Convocation exercises, and as the time does not conflict with my University engagement I have accepted this invitation.

Mrs. Koo regrets very much that she cannot accompany me on this trip on account of our little baby.

Looking forward with pleasure to

CHINESE LEGATION
WASHINGTON

seeing you and with kindest regards, I remain

Yours sincerely,

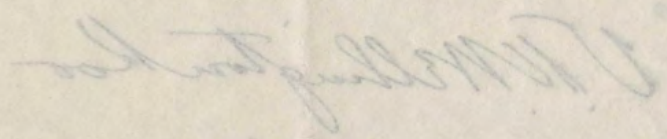

U. W. Wellington Koo

CHINESE LEGATION
WASHINGTON

November 1, 1915.

seeing you and with kindest regards, I remain

Yours sincerely,

President, University of Chicago
Chicago, Ill.

My dear President:

I have the pleasure to acknowledge the receipt of your kind letter of the 29th ult. and to thank you for the interest and sympathy which it expresses for the Chinese people. I shall be glad to hear from you again and to hear of the progress of your work. I am, Sir, very respectfully,
Yours sincerely,
Wu Wenhua
Chinese Legation, Washington

Chicago, December 4, 1916

My dear Mr. Koo:

Your favor of the 1st inst. is received. I am glad to know that the arrangements are satisfactory to you, and am looking forward with interest to your visit. I am sorry that Mrs. Koo cannot accompany you. I understand your present plan to be to take the Sunday afternoon train on the Pennsylvania Road, leaving New York at six-fifteen, and due in Chicago Monday afternoon at two o'clock. I shall see that you are properly met at the station, and shall expect you to be the guest of the University at the Blackstone Hotel. If for any reason you change your plans as to trains perhaps you will kindly inform me or my Secretary, so that we may know at just what time you will be here. I am glad you have accepted the invitation of Mr. Reynolds. He agrees to bring you up to the University in time for the exercises Tuesday afternoon.

With best regards, I am,

Very truly yours,

H.P.J. - L.

Hon. V. K. Wellington Koo
Chinese Legation, Washington, D. C.

Chicago, December 4, 1916

My dear Mr. Koo:

Your favor of the 1st inst. is received.

I am glad to know that the arrangements are satisfactory to you, and am looking forward with interest to your visit. I am sorry that Mrs. Koo cannot accompany you. I understand your present plan to be to take the Sunday afternoon train on the Pennsylvania Road, leaving New York at six-fifteen, and due in Chicago Monday afternoon at two o'clock. I shall see that you are properly met at the station, and shall expect you to be the guest of the University at the Blackstone Hotel. If for any reason you change your plans as to trains perhaps you will kindly inform me or my Secretary, so that we may know at just what time you will be here. I am glad you have accepted the invitation of Mr. Reynolds. He agrees to bring you up to the University in time for the exercises Tuesday afternoon.

With best regards, I am,
Very truly yours,

H. P. J. - L.

Hon. V. K. Wellington Koo
Chinese Legation, Washington, D. C.

CHINESE LEGATION
WASHINGTON

182
7
January 8, 1917.

Chicago, January 10, 1917
President Harry P. Judson
The University of Chicago
Chicago, Ill.

Dear President Judson:

I wish to avail myself of this opportunity to express to you my sincere appreciation of your kindness and hospitality during my recent visit to Chicago. My stay in your city was very enjoyable and I was very much delighted to meet so many representative citizens of Chicago as well as those connected with the University. I have fully intended to write you sooner, but have unavoidably delayed on account of several out of town engagements.

With kindest regards to Mrs. Judson and yourself, I remain

Yours very sincerely,

U. W. Wellington Koo

CHINESE LEGATION
WASHINGTON

January 8, 1917.

President Harry P. Judson
The University of Chicago
Chicago, Ill.

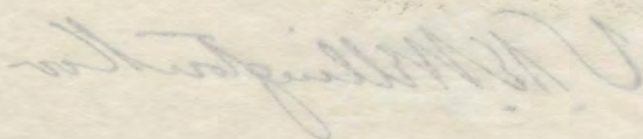

Dear President Judson:

I wish to avail myself of this opportunity to express to you my sincere appreciation of your kindness and hospitality during my recent visit to Chicago. My stay in your city was very enjoyable and I was very much delighted to meet so many representative citizens of Chicago as well as those connected with the University. I have fully intended to write you sooner, but have unavoidably delayed on account of several out of town engagements.

With kindest regards to Mrs. Judson and yourself, I remain

Yours very sincerely,

Chicago, January 10, 1917

My dear Mr. Koo:

Your kind favor of the 8th inst. is received. I beg to express on behalf of the University sincere appreciation of your service to us in December. It was a pleasure to have you here, and a pleasure to listen to your address. I am sure that all things of this character are of decided benefit to the general understanding on the part of our people of the progress which your country is making, and I am sure that there will be added interest in the Chinese Republic as a result.

With sincere regards, in which Mrs. Judson joins, I am,

Very truly yours,

H.P.J. - L.

Hon. V. K. Wellington Koo
Chinese Legation, Washington, D. C.

CHINESE LEGATION
WASHINGTON

January 8, 1917

Chicago, January 10, 1917

President Harry P. Johnson
The University of Chicago
Chicago, Ill.

My dear Mr. Koo:

Your kind favor of the 8th inst.
is received. I beg to express on behalf of the University sincere appreciation of your service to us in December. It was a pleasure to have you here, and a pleasure to listen to your address. I am sure that all things of this character are of decided benefit to the general understanding on the part of our people of the progress which your country is making, and I am sure that there will be added interest in the Chinese Republic as a result.
and you with sincere regards, in which Mrs. Johnson joins.

Yours very sincerely,

I am,

Very truly yours,

H. P. J. - L.

Hon. V. K. Wellington Koo
Chinese Legation, Washington, D. C.

CHINESE LEGATION
WASHINGTON

October 11, 1917.

President Harry P. Judson
University of Chicago
Chicago, Ill.

Chicago, October 16, 1917

My dear President Judson:

My friend and classmate Dr.
M.T.Z.Tyau, has sent me a few copies of "The Legal Obligations Arising out of Treaty Relations Between China and Other States" which he submitted to the University of London as his dissertation in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the Doctor's degree and which he has since revised and published in the form of a treatise. As I know you are interested in China,
I have the pleasure of sending you a copy. I hope you may find it useful as a book of reference.

With high regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

V. H. Wellington Koo

CHINESE LEGATION
WASHINGTON

October 11, 1917.

President Harry P. Judson
University of Chicago
Chicago, Ill.

My dear President Judson:

My friend and classmate Dr.
M.T.S. Tuan, has sent me a few copies of "The Legal Obligations Arising out of Treaty Relations Between
China and Other States" which he submitted to the University of London as his dissertation in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the Doctor's degree and
which he has since revised and published in the form of a treatise. As I know you are interested in China,
I have the pleasure of sending you a copy. I hope you may find it useful as a book of reference.

With high regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

U. W. Wright

Chicago, October 16, 1917

His Excellency The Chinese Minister
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Koo:

I beg to acknowledge the book by Mr.
Tyan on "The Legal Obligations Arising out of Treaty Relations Between China and Other States." It will be a valued addition to my international library.

With all best wishes, I am,

Very truly yours,

H.P.J. - L.

CHINESE LEGATION
WASHINGTON

October 11, 1917

President Harry D. Jordan
University of Chicago
Chicago, Ill.
Chicago, Ill.

His Excellency The Chinese Minister
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Koo:

I beg to acknowledge the book by Mr.
Tsun on "The Legal Obligations Arising out of Treaty Relations Between China and Other States." It will be a valued addition to my international library.
With all best wishes, I am,
Very truly yours,
As I know you are interested in China,
I have the pleasure of sending you a copy. I hope you may find it useful as a book of reference.

With high regards, I am,
Yours sincerely,

Wm. H. Jordan

Dr.
Dr.

by Your Excellency or those to whom Your Excellency shall commit the matter, and to give such information as we may possess or be able to obtain concerning competent and able teachers who may be desired for service in the schools of China. If these inquiries will indicate in what field of knowledge the desired men are expected to give instruction we will endeavor to recommend to you men of learning, ability to teach, and high moral character. This statement applies

August 13, 1909

His Excellency

The Chinese Ambassador,

Washington, D. C.

the Imperial Board of Education, Peking, China.

Dear Sir:-

Sir: Lasy May the great favor was done the University of Chicago by the Embassy of having translated into Chinese a letter which it was desired to transmit to His Excellency Chang Chih Tung, Grand Councillor of the Empire of China. It now becomes desirable to send a similar letter to His Excellency the Viceroy Tuan Fang, and to His Excellency the Imperial Councillor Yen Hsu. If it would not be trespassing too much on the time and courtesy of the Embassy, I should highly appreciate a similar translation into Chinese of each of the letters in question, which I might be able to forward with the English letter.

With high appreciation of the courtesy already rendered, I am,

Very truly yours, the University of Chicago will be pleased to respond to any inquiries addressed to me

H.P.G.

August 13, 1909

His Excellency
The Chinese Ambassador,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:-

I am very glad to hear that the University of Chicago by the Embassy of having translated into Chinese a letter which it was desired to transmit to His Excellency Chang Chih Tung, Grand Councilor of the Empire of China. It now becomes desirable to send a similar letter to His Excellency the Viceroy Tuan Fang, and to His Excellency the Imperial Councilor Yen Han. If it would not be trespassing too much on the time and courtesy of the Embassy, I should highly appreciate a similar translation into Chinese of each of the letters in question, which I might be able to forward with the English letter.

With high appreciation of the courtesy already rendered, I am,
Very truly yours,

H. P. G.

by Your Excellency or those to whom Your Excellency shall commit the matter, and to give such information as we may possess or be able to obtain concerning competent and able teachers who may be desired for service in the schools of China. If these inquiries will indicate in what field of knowledge the desired men are expected to give instruction we will endeavor to recommend to you men of learning, ability to teach, and high moral character. This statement applies to His Excellency, Vice-President of the Imperial Board of Education, Peking, China.

Letters upon this matter may be addressed to the President Sir:

In a letter recently received from our Educational Commissioner, Professor Ernest DeWitt Burton, we have learned with interest and gratification of the interview which he had with Your Excellency and the gracious reception which Your Excellency accorded him. I desire on behalf of the University to express our thanks for this kindness, and to confirm the statement which Professor Burton at that time made concerning the desire of the University to be of service to the Educational authorities of China, and to promote mutually profitable relations between the United States and China in the field of education.

In particular I desire to state that the University of Chicago will be pleased to respond to any inquiries addressed to me by Your Excellency or those to whom Your Excellency shall commit the

August 13, 1909

To His Excellency

Yen Han, Vice-President

Vice-President of the Imperial Board of Education,

Peking, China.

Dear Sir:-

Sir:

Very many thanks for the letter received from the University of Chicago in a letter recently received from our Educational Commissioner, Professor Ernest Bennett Burton, we have learned with interest and gratification of the interview which he had with Your Excellency and the gracious reception which Your Excellency accorded him. I desire on behalf of the University to express our thanks for this kindness, and to confirm the statement which Professor Burton at that time made concerning the desire of the University to be of service to the Educational Authorities of China, and to promote mutually profitable relations between the United States and China in the field of education. In particular I desire to state that the University of Chicago will be pleased to respond to any inquiries addressed to me by Your Excellency or those to whom Your Excellency shall commit the matter, and to give such information as we may possess or be able to obtain concerning competent and able teachers who may be desired for service in the schools of China. If these inquiries will indicate in what field of knowledge the desired men are expected to give instruction we will endeavor to recommend to you men of learning, ability to teach, and high moral character. This statement applies both to American scholars and to Chinese studying in America. In both cases we shall endeavor to the best of our ability to assist Your Excellency in Your endeavor to provide the schools of China with competent teachers.

Letters upon this matter may be addressed to the President of the University, or, if preferred by Your Excellency, sent to us through Mr. Far T. Sung, once a student in the University of Chicago, but now, as we are informed, Professor in the Imperial University in Peking. We desire on behalf of the University to express our thanks for this kindness, and to confirm the statement which Professor Burton at that time made concerning the desire of the University, President, Secretary of the Board of Trustees service to the Educational authorities of China, and to promote mutually profitable relations between the Secretary of the Board of Trustees, the field of education.

In particular I desire to state that the University of Chicago will be pleased to respond to any inquiries addressed to me by Your Excellency or those to whom Your Excellency shall commit the

by Your Excellency or those to whom Your Excellency shall commit the matter, and to give such information as we may possess or be able to obtain concerning competent and able teachers who may be desired for service in the schools of China. If these inquiries will indicate in what field of knowledge the desired men are expected to give instruction we will endeavor to recommend to you men of learning, ability to teach, and high moral character. This statement applies both to American scholars and to Chinese studying in America. In both cases we shall endeavor to the best of our ability to assist Your Excellency in Your endeavor to provide the schools of China with competent teachers.

Letters upon this matter may be addressed to the President of the University, or, if preferred by Your Excellency, sent to us through Mr. Far T. Sung, once a student in the University of Chicago, but now, as we are informed, Professor in the Imperial University in Peking.

Excelsior and the previous receipt of Your Excellency's letter for this kindred, and to continue the work of the Chinese Education Commission.

Secretary of the Board of Trustees

In particular I desire to state that the University of Chicago will be pleased to respond to any invitation addressed to us

matter, and to give such information as we may possess or be able to obtain concerning competent and able teachers who may be desired for service in the schools of China. If these inquiries will indicate in what field of knowledge the desired men are expected to give instruction we will endeavor to recommend to August 13, 1909, ability to teach, and high moral character. This statement applies both to American scholars and to Chinese studying in America. In both To His Excellency endeavor to the best of our ability to assist Your Tuan Fang, Your endeavor to provide the schools of China with competent Viceroy at Nanking, China.

Sir: Letters upon this matter may be addressed to the President of the University, or, if preferred by Your Excellency, sent to us In a letter recently received from our Educational through Mr. Far T. Sung, once a student in the University of Chicago, Commissioner, Professor Ernest DeWitt Burton, we have learned with but now, as we are informed, Professor in the Imperial University in interest and gratification of the interview which he had with Your Peking. Excellency and the gracious reception which Your Excellency accorded him. I desire on behalf of the University to express our thanks for this kindness, and to confirm the statement which Professor Burton at that time made concerning the desire of the University to be of service to the Educational authorities of China, and to promote mutually profitable relations between the United States and China in the field of education.

In particular I desire to state that the University of Chicago will be pleased to respond to any inquiries addressed to me by Your Excellency or those to whom Your Excellency shall commit the

by Your Excellency or those to whom Your Excellency shall commit the matter, and to give such information as we may possess or be able to obtain concerning competent and able teachers who may be desired for service in the schools of China. If these inquiries will indicate in what field of knowledge the desired men are expected to give instruction we will endeavor to recommend to you men of learning, ability to teach, and high moral character. This statement applies

August 13, 1909

To His Excellency

both to American scholars and to Chinese studying in America. In both

Tuan Fung,

cases we shall endeavor to the best of our ability to assist Your Viceroy at Hankow, China.

Excellency in Your endeavor to provide the schools of China with Sincere teachers.

In a letter recently received from our Educational President

Commissioner, Professor Ernest Dewitt Burton, we have learned with interest and gratification of the interview which he had with Your Excellency and the gracious reception which Your Excellency accorded him. I desire on behalf of the University to express our thanks for this kindness, and to confirm the statement which Professor Burton at that time made concerning the desire of the University to be of service to the Educational authorities of China, and to promote mutually profitable relations between the United States and China in the field of education.

In particular I desire to state that the University of

Chicago will be pleased to respond to any inquiries addressed to me

by Your Excellency or those to whom Your Excellency shall commit the matter, and to give such information as we may possess or be able to obtain concerning competent and able teachers who may be desired for service in the schools of China. If these inquiries will indicate in what field of knowledge the desired men are expected to give instruction we will endeavor to recommend to you men of learning, ability to teach, and high moral character. This statement applies both to American scholars and to Chinese studying in America. In both cases we shall endeavor to the best of our ability to assist Your Excellency in Your endeavor to provide the schools of China with competent teachers.

Chicago will be pleased to respond to any inquiries addressed to me

Letters upon this matter may be addressed to the President of the University, or, if preferred by Your Excellency, sent to us through Mr. Far T. Sung, once a student in the University of Chicago, but now, as we are informed, Professor in the Imperial University in Peking.

President

Secretary of the Board of Trustees

matter, and to give such information as we may possess or be able to obtain concerning competent and able teachers who may be desired for service in the schools of China. If these inquiries will indicate in what field of knowledge the desired men are expected to give instruction we will endeavor to recommend to you men of learning, ability to teach, and high moral character. This statement applies both to American scholars and to Chinese studying in America. In both cases we shall endeavor to the best of our ability to assist Your Excellency in Your endeavor to provide the schools of China with competent teachers.

Letters upon this matter may be addressed to the President of the University, or, if preferred by Your Excellency, sent to us through Mr. T. Sung, once a student in the University of Chicago, but now, as we are informed, Professor in the Imperial University in Peking.

I desire on behalf of the University to express our thanks for this kindness, and to confirm the statement which Professor Burton at that time made concerning the desire of the University to have of Secretary of the Board of Trustees service to the Educational authorities of China, and to promote mutually profitable relations between the United States and China in the field of education.

In particular I desire to state that the University of Chicago will be pleased to respond to any inquiry addressed to me by Your Excellency or those to whom Your Excellency shall commit the