Dear Mr. Angell:-

The Committee on the Dedication of the Classics Building should before finally disbanding make suggestions as to the list of those to be invited. In the case of Rosenwald the list was made up as follows:

1. Guests of Mr. Rosenwald.
2. Trustees.
3. All members of the Departments immediately concerned.
4. A selected list of the scientific faculties.

May I suggest that a list be made up for the Dedication of the Classics Building as follows:

1. Trustees.
2. All members of the Departments immediately concerned.
3. Doctors of the several Departments.
4. A selected list of the faculties of Arts and Literature.

2. Trustees.
3. All members of the Department immediately concerned.
4. A selected list of the scientific facilities.

May I suggest that a list be made

We can send out about two hundred invitations. Probably one hundred people will reply; no more than that can be accommodated in the building. It will become necessary, therefore, closely to limit the tickets assigned. Especially will this close limitation be necessary if we are to spread a luncheon in the two club rooms, for the President will probably wish to invite to the luncheon most of those who accept the invitation to the exercises.

Very truly yours,

Dean James H. Angell
The University of Chicago

I should add an invitation of one person each from neighbouring universities. Probably not more than two or three would come; but we should have paid our compliments.

My suggestions would be:

Michigan	Kelsey, F. W.
Ohio (Oberlin)	Lord, Louis E.
Wisconsin	Slaughter, M. S.
Indiana	?
Illinois	Barton, H. J.
Northwestern	Scott, G. A.
Lake Forest	?

Barton and Lord happen also to be respectively President and Secretary of the Classical Association of the Middle West and South. That would be an additional reason for asking them.

W. G. Hale

I suggest Bridgeman for Lake Forest. CD. McKee might or not send to all professors of Greek & Latin at the universities named?
7.8.7.

I believe all are imitations & are found each from neighboring communities. Probably not more than two or three would come; but we think have paid our contribution.
 Very respectfully yours &c.

Michigan	W. H. Kelley
Ohio (Columbus)	John E. Town
Massachusetts	W. S. Langford
Indiana
Illinois	H. P. Barton
Northwestern	J. A. Scott
Idaho

Boston and New York also the respective Presidents and Secretaries of the Classical Association of the Middle West and South. The members are a distinctive reason for asking them.
 W. W. Hale

I am not a member of the Association - but I am glad to see that all persons who are interested in the cause of the cause are so.
