Dear Mr. President:-

I am preparing a little article addressed to High School Seniors entitled
"The World Calls You."

I wish to illustrate the theme by referring to young college men who are now occupying strategic positions of international importance in foreign lands. I already have considerable material of this kind.

I have no doubt but that you count among your alumni one or more such young men or women. If so please tell me about them.

By the way, I hope you can use some of our leaflets, samples of which are enclosed. Please place your order and we will deliver them now or at such time in the future as you may indicate.

Assuring you of our desire to assist you and hoping for an early reply, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Robt. L. Kelly

To President Judson:

With reference to the attached letter from Mr. Robert L. Kelly, would it not be proper to mention such names as Samuel N. Harper, '02, in view of his connection with the Russian situation; Dr. Wilbur Post^{'01} and Harold H. Swift^{'07}, members of the Russian commission; and perhaps Hai Yün Tang, J.D. '13 ~~Feng Hai~~, who has been, I believe, a member of the Supreme Court of China. There are many of our Alumni in positions of national importance in connection with the war, such as Arthur E. Bestor, Director of the Speakers' Bureau, Committee on Public Information; Major Frank Jewett, who is associated with Professor Millikan at Washington; Captain (rumor reports Lieut-Col.) Lawrence Whiting, who has ~~the~~ very responsible position in connection with the personnel work, and many others. However, I have interpreted Mr. Kelly's letter to refer only to those occupying positions of international importance in foreign lands.
