Dec. 27th, 1916.

President Harry Pratt Judson,
Chicago,
Illinois.

My dear President Judson:

I have been trying to see what I could do with regard to your request of December 8th. I have been waiting for two months for an opportunity to see Henry Ford personally on some matters of my own and ~~the opportunity~~ has not come yet. I do not know whether I can get to him at all. I had put your matter up to some who are near Mr. Ford and they tell me there is no chance except through the regular channels, that is, through a letter address^{ed} to him which will fall into the hands of his secretaries and be dealt with by them. I am sorry but the situation seems inexorable and unalterable. However I may have a chance to see Mr. Ford on other matters and if so, I will speak to him of your plans.

With best wishes for the new year to you and Mrs . Judson, I am,

Yours sincerely,

Charles D. Williams

Dear Bishop Williams:

Thank you very much for your kind note of the 27th inst. Do I understand that your suggestion about the "regular channels" means that a letter addressed to him might properly come from me personally? Of course in many such cases a letter of that character never gets beyond the secretaries.

With sincere regards and best wishes for the new year for you and your family, I am,

Very truly yours,
