

Pres. Harper is given honorary LL.D. by Yale
on occasion of 200th Anniversary of Founding
of Yale College.

Oct 1901

Pres. Harper is given honorary D.D. by Yale
on occasion of 200th Anniversary of founding
of Yale College.

Oct 1901

CROSS REFERENCE SHEET

Name or Subject A. E. Hadley

File No.

Regarding

Date

SEE

Name or Subject

File No.

Harper 1901

Distinguished Persons, Letters of

File cross reference form under name or subject at top of the sheet and by the latest date of papers. Describe matter for identification purposes. The papers, themselves should be filed under name or subject after "SEE."

Cat. No. 30-5902
For use in all Filing Systems

CROSS REFERENCE SHEET

File No.

Name or Subject A. E. Hedley

Date

Regarding

SEE

File No.

Name or Subject

Harper 1901

Distinguished Persons, Letters of

For use in all Filing Systems
Cat. No. 30-5905

File cross reference form under name or subject at top of the sheet and by the latest date of paper. Describe matter for identification purposes. The paper, themselves should be filed under name or subject after "SEE".

The President and Fellows of Yale University have the honor to invite you to be present in New Haven Connecticut on Wednesday October the twenty third nineteen hundred and one to receive the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws at the celebration of the two hundredth anniversary of the Founding of Yale College

Arthur Twining Hadley
President

To William Rainey Harper, Ph.D., D.D., LL.D., President of the University of Chicago

The University of Toronto

has the honor to acknowledge the receipt of the volume of the University of Toronto

for the year 1888

and in return the University of Toronto

has the honor to acknowledge the receipt

of the volume of the University of Toronto

for the year 1889

and in return the University of Toronto

has the honor to acknowledge the receipt

of the volume of the University of Toronto

for the year 1890

THE WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH COMPANY.

INCORPORATED

21,000 OFFICES IN AMERICA. CABLE SERVICE TO ALL THE WORLD.

THOS. T. ECKERT, President and General Manager.

Receiver's No.

Time Filed

Check

SEND the following message subject to the terms on back hereof, which are hereby agreed to.

✓ June 26th, 1900.

189

To President A. T. Hadley,

Yale University, New Haven, Connecticut.

My thoughts go back this week to Yale. Twenty-five years ago I received my doctorate. Congratulations and best wishes for your administration.

William R. Harper

(D)

Charge.

READ THE NOTICE AND AGREEMENT ON BACK.

ALL MESSAGES TAKEN BY THIS COMPANY ARE SUBJECT TO THE FOLLOWING TERMS:

To guard against mistakes or delays, the sender of a message should order it REPEATED; that is, telegraphed back to the originating office for comparison. For this, one-half the regular rate is charged in addition. It is agreed between the sender of the following message and this Company, that said Company shall not be liable for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery of any UNREPEATED message, beyond the amount received for sending the same; nor for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery of any REPEATED message, beyond fifty times the sum received for sending the same, unless specially insured, nor in any case for delays arising from unavoidable interruption in the working of its lines, or for errors in cipher or obscure messages. And this Company is hereby made the agent of the sender, without liability, to forward any message over the lines of any other Company when necessary to reach its destination.

Correctness in the transmission of a message to any point on the lines of this Company can be insured by contract in writing, stating agreed amount of risk, and payment of premium thereon, at the following rates, in addition to the usual charge for repeated messages, viz, one per cent. for any distance not exceeding 1,000 miles, and two per cent. for any greater distance. No employee of the Company is authorized to vary the foregoing.

No responsibility regarding messages attaches to this Company until the same are presented and accepted at one of its transmitting offices; and if a message is sent to such office by one of the Company's messengers, he acts for that purpose as the agent of the sender.

Messages will be delivered free within the established free delivery limits of the terminal office. For delivery at a greater distance, a special charge will be made to cover the cost of such delivery.

The Company will not be liable for damages or statutory penalties in any case where the claim is not presented in writing within sixty days after the message is filed with the Company for transmission

THOS. T. ECKERT, President and General Manager

President's Office,
Yale University, New Haven, Conn.
July 10th, 1900.

My dear Dr. Harper:-

In the midst of the pressure of business, old and new, I have let your telegram go too long unacknowledged. Pray accept my grateful recognition of your kindness in sending it. It was one of the pleasures of the week to receive such a greeting from an old Yale man, now occupying the position which you hold.

Yours, as ever,

Arthur T. Hadley

President's Office
The White House, Washington, D.C.
July 10th, 1900.

My dear Dr. Harper:-

In the midst of the pressure of business, old and new, I have let your telegram go too long unacknowledged. Pray accept my grateful recognition of your kindness in sending it. It was one of the pleasures of the week to receive such a greeting from an old Yale man, now occupying the position which you hold.

Yours, as ever,

Robert T. Harlan

adm
7.6.1
YALE UNIVERSITY,
Hadley

New Haven, Conn., May 31st, 1902.

My dear Mr. Harper:-

The relation of the great gifts of the past year to the future, like those of Carnegie or Rhodes, is so problematical that I do not as early as this venture to estimate their importance.

I believe that we are surer and safer if we content ourselves with emphasizing the less salient but more fundamentally important points concerning the increased attendance at our higher institutions of learning and increased public interest therein.

The movement which in some quarters is hailed with so much enthusiasm, of confining the courses in the professional schools to college graduates, seems to me on the whole a movement in the wrong direction; and I should be disposed to say as little about it as possible in an address of the kind you have in mind.

Faithfully yours,

Allen T. Hadley

YALE UNIVERSITY,

New Haven, Conn., May 31st, 1902.

My dear Mr. Harper:-

The relation of the great gifts of the past year to the future, like those of Carnegie or Rhodes, is so problematical that I do not as early as this venture to estimate their importance.

I believe that we are surer and safer if we content ourselves with emphasizing the less salient but more fundamentally important points concerning the increased attendance at our higher institutions of learning and increased public interest therein.

The movement which in some quarters is hailed with so much enthusiasm, of confining the courses in the professional schools to college graduates, seems to me on the whole a movement in the wrong direction; and I should be disposed to say as little about it as possible in an address of the kind you have in mind.

Faithfully yours,

Arthur T. Appen

July 10, 1905.

President Arthur T. Hadley,
Yale University,
New Haven, Conn.

My dear President Hadley:-

I wish to acknowledge your kind letter of July 1st and the pleasant words which it contains. I have felt for a long time that Mr.
Rockefeller must make a gift to Yale, and I have never lost an opportunity to urge it, indeed to fight for it.

I appreciate more than I can tell you your kind words concerning my service.

Hoping that you are well and everything goes
well with you, I remain,

Yours very truly,

W. R. Harper

July 10, 1905.

President Arthur T. Hadley,
Yale University,

New Haven, Conn.

My dear President Hadley:-

I wish to acknowledge your kind letter of July 1st and the pleasant words which it contains. I have felt for a long time that Mr.
Hocketteller must make a gift to Yale, and I have never lost an opportunity to urge it, indeed to fight for it.
I appreciate more than I can tell you your
kind words concerning my service.
Hoping that you are well and everything goes

well with you, I remain,

Yours very truly,

W. R. Harper

YALE UNIVERSITY

NEW HAVEN, CONNECTICUT

PRESIDENT'S OFFICE

WOODBIDGE HALL, 105 WALL STREET

July 1st, 1905.

(1)

My dear Dr. Harper:-

In connection with the very delightful gift from Mr. Rockefeller, I want to express my thanks to you for the part which your influence has played in rendering Mr. Rockefeller friendly to Yale. I have been delighted that amid your own large work and heavy burdens at Chicago you have not forgotten your love for the old place here.

We are looking with admiration on the splendid fight which you have been making against disease. With congratulations and best wishes, I am

Faithfully yours,

Arthur Hadley

President William R. Harper,
The University of Chicago.

YALE UNIVERSITY
NEW HAVEN, CONNECTICUT

July 1st, 1905.

WOODBRIDGE HALL, 105 WALL STREET
NEW YORK CITY

My dear Dr. Harper:-

In connection with the very delightful gift from Mr. Rockefeller, I want to express my thanks to you for the part which your influence has played in rendering Mr. Rockefeller friendly to Yale. I have been delighted that amid your own large work and heavy burdens at Chicago you have not forgotten your love for the old place here.

We are looking with admiration on the splendid fight which you have been making against disease. With congratulations and best wishes, I am

Faithfully yours,

President William R. Harper,
The University of Chicago.

7-10
Pres. Hadley of Yale thanks Harper for influence with Mr. Rockefeller in favor of Yale.
Hadley is pleased that Harper, despite heavy burdens at Chicago, has not forgotten his love "for the old place here."

1905

10-11
The History of Yale
thanks for influence
Mr. Rockefeller in form of Yale History is pleased that the books have been purchased at Chicago, has not forgotten the fact "for
the old place here."

1902

YALE UNIVERSITY
NEW HAVEN, CONNECTICUT.

PRESIDENT'S OFFICE
WOODBRIDGE HALL, 105 WALL STREET.

Hadley A. J.

appears to conflict with June 22, 1915.
vices. But there are men on the administrative force at Yale
My dear President Judson:- some good excuse for not attending church; and it is possible I think you probably know Mr. Max Farrand, who is Professor of American History here. But I fear that you are not acquainted with Mrs. Max Farrand, although she is equally distinguished in her own line of work -- that of a landscape architect. sincerely,

She has charge of the development of the grounds at Princeton; and in connection with this work and other work of similar character, she is anxious to see something of the President Harry Pratt Judson.
treatment adopted at Chicago University.

She is to be in Chicago this coming Sunday, June twenty-seventh, on her way west. She arrives at eight in the morning and leaves at five in the afternoon. The importance of the work that she is doing is such that I hope you can find some one who can call at the Congress Hotel, where she will be staying, to take her out to the University and show her the things she needs to see. If your secretary can send her a note at the hotel telling what arrangements it has been possible to make, she will be there at any hour you may designate. I understand that the most convenient time for her would be the latter part of the forenoon.

I am sorry that her visit to Chicago is so short and that

Who is Vice
the hour

YALE UNIVERSITY
NEW HAVEN, CONNECTICUT.

WOODBRIDGE HALL, 108 WALL STREET.
NEW YORK CITY.

June 22, 1913.

My dear President Judson:-

I think you probably knew Mr. Max

Barland, who is Professor of American History here. But I fear that you are not acquainted with Mrs. Max Barland, although she is equally distinguished in her own line of work -- that of a landscape architect.

She has charge of the development of the grounds at Princeton; and in connection with this work and other work
of similar character, she is anxious to see something of the treatment adopted at Chicago University.

She is to be in Chicago this coming Sunday, June twenty-seventh, on her way west. She arrives at eight in the morning and leaves at five in the afternoon. The importance of the work that she is doing is such that I hope you can find some one who can call at the Congress Hotel, where she will be staying, to take her out to the University and show her the things
she needs to see. If your secretary can send her a note at the hotel telling what arrangements it has been possible to make, she will be there at any hour you may designate. I understand that the most convenient time for her would be the latter part of the forenoon.

I am sorry that her visit to Chicago is so short and that the hour suggested appears to conflict with the church services. But there are men on the administrative force at Yale who have been known to welcome a good excuse for not attending church; and it is possible that such persons may exist in Chicago also. Any help that you can render to Mrs. Farrand in this matter will be an important service to Princeton and will put me under great obligations personally.

Very sincerely,

Arthur F. Hadley

I am sorry not to have

President Harry Pratt Judson,
University of Chicago.

Very truly yours,

President Arthur F. Hadley
Yale University
New Haven, Connecticut

the hour suggested appears to conflict with the church services. But there are men on the administrative force at Yale who have been known to welcome a good excuse for not attending church; and it is possible that such persons may exist in Chicago also. Any help that you can render to Mrs. Farland in this matter will be an important service to Princeton and will put me under great obligations personally.

Very sincerely,

Wm. Brewster

President Harry Pratt Judson,
University of Chicago.

Chicago, July 1, 1915.

My dear President Hadley:-

Your favor of June 22nd came while I was absent from Chicago. I understand, however, that my Secretary planned to receive Mrs. Parrand and to see that she saw all that she wished. I am sorry not to have met her in person.

With sincere regards, I am

Very truly yours,

H.P.J.-D.

President Arthur T. Hadley
Yale University
New Haven, Connecticut

PP
36:19

Chicago, July 1, 1918.

My dear President Hadley:-

Your favor of June

22nd came while I was absent from Chicago. I understand, however, that my Secretary planned to receive Mrs. Farrand and to see that she saw all that she wished. I am sorry not to have met her in person.

With sincere regards, I am

Very truly yours,

H.P.W.-D.

President Arthur T. Hadley
Yale University
New Haven, Connecticut