

United States Senate,

Cleveland, Ohio.

August 21, 1902.

Mr. William R. Harper,
University of Chicago,
Chicago, Ill.

My Dear Sir:

I am in receipt of your letter of the 20th instant and note what you say of the Republican mass meeting to be held September 13th. While I appreciate very much the compliment paid me in the invitation extended, it will be impossible for me to accept. I am not at all well, and fear I shall be able to do but little in the campaign this Fall. We have an important contest in my own state and county, and what time I may be able to give to the campaign should be devoted to this state.

Truly yours,

W. H. Hanna

United States Herald

Cleveland, Ohio.

August 22, 1902.

Mr. William F. Harper,

University of Chicago,

Chicago, Ill.

My Dear Sir:

I am in receipt of your letter of the 20th instant and note what you say of the Republican mass meeting to be held September 13th.

While I appreciate very much the compliment paid me in the invitation extended, it will be impossible for me to accept. I am not at all well, and fear I shall be able to do but little in the campaign this fall.

We have an important contest in my own state and country, and what time

I may be able to give to the campaign should be devoted to this state.

Truly yours,

W. F. Harper