Dr. Wm. A. Harper,

Dear Sir:

When I was in to see you last week you very kindly offered to write to some of my relations on my behalf if I would give you their names.

Mrs. Susan Harding of Monmouth, Ill. is in a position to help me if she cared to. She is a cousin of mine and rather proud of her family. She probably does not know how I am situated and I thought that if you would be kind enough

Dear Sir:

When I was in the your last week you very kindly offered to write to some of my relatives or my behalf if I should give you their names.
 Mrs. Susan Harshbarger Harshbarger, Ill. is in a position to help me if she cared to. She is a cousin of mine and rather proud of her family. She probably does not know how I am situated and I thought that if you would be kind enough to write to her as a disinterested third person it might have the desired effect. She has no children of her own but she has an adopted son whom I understand is very dissipated. My cousin is eighty years old. I have never seen her but there has been some correspondence between our families. $500 would pay up my university bills and help me along next year.

Thanking you in advance for your kindness in this matter I am,
very truly,
H. L. Lohes.

to write to her as a disappointed third person it might have the desired effect of her
 no children of her own
 but she has an adopted son whom I understand is very disappointed. My cousin is eight years old. I have never seen her but then has been some correspondence
 between our families.
 I would pay up my University bills and tell me about next year.
 I am sending you in a name for your third year in this matter I am very truly
 A. Y. Baker
