

Curtis

7437 Kimbark Avenue, May 3, 1897.

Dr. Wm. R. Harper,

Dear Sir,

12

The fact that a situation as teacher in the Illinois Institution For the Blind seems within my reach induces me to impose upon your kindness to the extent of asking you if you can write two letters for me which my friends think will aid my cause very much. Four years ago Governor Altgeld removed Professor Frank H. Hall from the superintendency of the Institution, and Governor Tanner has recently reappointed him. It seems probable that Professor Hall may find one or two vacancies in the teaching force when he takes charge of the school next year.

The teachers are appointed by a Board of three Trustees. The chairman of the Board is Judge N. W. Branson of Petersburg Illinois. Mr. Edward W. Rew, 118 Dearborn Street is the Chicago member of the Board. As the Institution is a state school the element of influence of political and educational men will largely determine who is to be the successful candidate. It is thought by my friends that if you feel that you can write to Judge Branson and Mr. Rew stating that I received the degree of Master of arts in the university and that from my work you are of the opinion that I could teach successfully in the Institution for the Blind whose work does not extend beyond that of a high school, you will give most valuable aid to me. My Graduate work was done in Political Science and History. Assuring you that I shall most deeply appreciate anything you may do for me, I remain,

Very respectfully yours,

John Birdsey Curtis

Letter

7437 Kimbark Avenue, May 8, 1897.

Dr. Wm. R. Harper,

Dear Sir,

The fact that a situation as teacher in the Illinois Institution for the Blind seems within my reach induces me to impose upon your kindness to the extent of asking you if you can write two letters for me which my friends think will aid my cause very much. Four years ago Governor Altgeld removed Professor Frank H. Hall from the superintendency of the Institution, and Governor Tanner has recently reappointed him. It seems probable that Professor Hall may find one or two vacancies in the teaching force when he takes charge of the school next year.

The teachers are appointed by a Board of three Trustees. The chairman of the Board is Judge N. W. Branson of Petersburg Illinois. Mr. Edward W. Rew, 118 Dearborn Street is the Chicago member of the Board. As the Institution is a state school the element of influence of political and educational men will largely determine who is to be the successful candidate. It is thought by my friends that if you feel that you can write to Judge Branson and Mr. Rew stating that I received the degree of Master of Arts in the university and that from my work you are of the opinion that I could teach successfully in the Institution for the Blind whose work does not extend beyond that of a high school, you will give most valuable aid to me. My Graduate work was done in Political Science and History. Assuring you that I shall most deeply appreciate anything you may do for me, I remain,

Very respectfully yours,

John Birdsey Curtis