My dear Dr. Judson:

I thank you heartily for your letter of February 6. It certainly is generous of you, after letting us have Dr. Dodd, to suggest that we may also consult Prof. Freund. I of course have been familiar with his reputation for many years. There may come a time when we shall need to consult an additional expert, in which event, of course, it will be very reassuring to know that we may go to Prof. Freund.

I appreciate your sympathetic interest in my work here more than I can say.

Very sincefely yours.

My dear Governor:

do want to express my extreme interest in the consolidation plan, and my hope that it is moving on favorably. I am very greatly interested, and only wish I were in a position to be of some service in the matter. It may not have any bearing on the case, but incidentally one of the foremest experts on bill drafting in the United States is our Professor Ernst Freund, of the University of Chicago Law School faculty. If in any way, directly or indirectly, I can serve of course you will call on me.

I thank you heartily for your letter of December 1. As you know, I agree with you thoroughly as to the short ballot. I do not see now how much can be done along that line until we have a new constitution. I wish you would help me out in this matter as much as you can.

Dear Colonel Lowden:

Thanks for your kind note of the 3d inst. You are quite right that not much can be done in the direction of the short ballot until the new constitution is made. I am heartily in favor of a constitutional convention, and hope that a joint resolution to that end will be one of the fruits of the coming winter session of the General Assembly. Meanwhile, however, propositions will come up in many cases involving changes under existing law which will provide for more elective offices and less appointive offices. Such changes I heartily deprecate.

With cordial regards, I am,

Very truly yours,
