

CROSS REFERENCE SHEET

Name or Subject

Mack, Julian

File No.

Regarding

Date

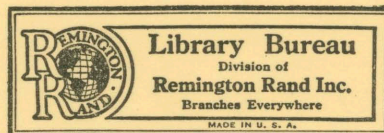

SEE

Name or Subject

Law School

File No.

File cross reference form under name or subject at top of the sheet and by the latest date of papers. Describe matter for identification purposes. The papers, themselves should be filed under name or subject after "SEE."

Cat. No. 30-5902
For use in all Filing Systems

CROSS REFERENCE SHEET

File No.

Name or Subject
Mack, Julian

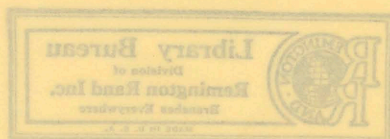

Date

Regarding

SEE

File No.

Name or Subject
Law School

For use in all Filing Systems
Cat. No. 30-5802

File cross reference form under name or subject at top of the sheet and by the latest date of papers. Describe matter for identification purposes. The papers themselves should be filed under name or subject after "SEE".

The Quadrangle Club

CHICAGO

~~Dear Mr Goodspeed~~

Professor Joseph H. Beale Jr

is Professor of Law at the Harvard Law School, with the work and progress of which he has been closely identified for the last twelve years. Mr Beale graduated from Harvard College in 1882, and from the Harvard Law School in 1887. He spent a year in Europe, studying chiefly International Law. He has been a member of the Harvard Law Faculty since 1889. Mr Beale is the author of treatises and collections of cases on Barriers Damages, Criminal Law and ^{recently} the Conflict of Law, ~~this principal interest of~~ ~~present law in the branch of law last mentioned to which latter~~ branch of law he is mainly devoting his attention at present. He has been a frequent contributor to the Harvard Law Review. Mr Beale ~~is a member of the firm of Beale, Hutchings and Beale in Boston~~ and is about forty years old.

Yours very truly

Ernest Freund

The Quabridge Club

CHICAGO

~~Dear Mr. Quabridge~~

Professor Joseph H. Davis Jr

is Professor of Law at the University of Chicago and has not only prepared of what is for his study but also for the last twelve years in the published from the University of 1882, and from the University of Chicago in 1887. He spent a year in Europe during which he spent the winter in Germany after the University of Chicago since 1889. He has been editor of the University and collection of cases or business law principles and the ^{general} principles of law, the principal interest of which is in the study of law that is to be used in the study of law is a mainly looking for attention at present the law is a general principle to the University of Chicago. He has a number of the law of the University of Chicago in the
and is about that year etc

Yours very truly

Ernest Horn

June 3rd, 1903.

Mr. Julian Mack,

153 LaSalle St., Chicago.

My dear Mr. Mack:-

Allow me to express my hearty congratulations upon the outcome of the election. I cannot tell you how greatly pleased I am that the result was so successful in your case.

With best wishes for the future, I remain

Yours very truly,

W. R. Harper

June 3rd, 1903.

Mr. Julian Mack,

133 LaSalle St., Chicago.

My dear Mr. Mack:-

Allow me to express my hearty congratulations upon the outcome of the election. I cannot tell you how greatly pleased I am that the result was so successful in your case.

With best wishes for the future, I remain

Yours very truly,

W. R. Harper

JULIAN W. MACK,
CHICAGO.

June 4th, 1903.

Dear Doctor Harper;

I am very grateful to you for your congratulations. I hope that judicial duties are not going to be so
heavy as to require me to give up any part of the school work. I am sure that at no time will they necessitate my giving up all of it.

Sincerely yours,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Julian W. Mack". The signature is written in a cursive style with a large, looping initial "J".

President William R Harper,

University of Chicago,

City.

JULIAN W. MACK,
CHICAGO.

June 4th, 1903.

Dear Doctor Harper:

I am very grateful to you for your congratulations. I hope that

Judicial duties are not going to be so

heavy as to require me to give up any part of the school work. I am sure that at

no time will they necessitate my giving

up all of it.

Sincerely yours,

President William R. Harper,

University of Chicago,

City.