My dear Mr. Harper,

504

I am glad you found it possible to arrange my lectures in January.
May I ask you to communicate with Mr. Lowell ⁱⁿ ~~at~~ Boston on that subject, as - I think - he is waiting for your resolution to determine the time for my Boston lectures. I suggested December; but until now I have no definite answer from him. May I ask you also to write to me just when in January the lectures shall begin. Don't you think it would be well to have them delivered in the afternoon hours, in order that hearers from the Town ~~might~~ may come, as the subject may prove not to be attractive enough for mere academic audience.

I hear from Mr Crane that Mr Harper junior is going to return to Moscow. I hope, my Moscow friends were able to do what he wanted to be done for him. Should he want further introductions, I am always ready to give them. I am very much pleased we shall meet again in January. My compliments to Miss Harper

Yours very truly

Paul Milyonov.

Montague place, 20

My dear Mr. Harper,

Herewith I send you a Syllabus or a kind of Summary for my lectures to be delivered at the Chicago University. I hope this summary will help my hearers to the understanding of my lectures. I also should like to add some maps, but I do not think you will have time to print them now. Thus I shall rather bring them with me. If you should want to tell me something before I come to Chicago, please address your letter to New-York, where I intend to stay for one week or two. Mr. Crane was so kind as to propose me to alight at his lodging ^{in New-York} so you may address your letter accordingly.

Yours truly
Paul M. Lyman.

My dear Sir:

I am writing, in accordance with the interview of Mr. Crane, to propose that you give lectures at the University of Chicago on the Crane foundation, in accordance with the following conditions:

- 1) The lectures to begin June seventeenth, 1903, and to be given four each week for six weeks.
- 2) The manuscript of the lectures to be given to the University of Chicago for publication under your own editorial supervision.
- 3) The remuneration to be two thousand dollars ($2,000.) it being understood that the expenses of your journey and the expenses of your residence in Chicago shall be paid by yourself.
- 4) That other engagements in America be made subject to this engagement and be placed in the

My dear Sir:-

Your letter has been received. Mr. Kovalevsky gave more than twelve lectures; I think it was fourteen or sixteen; but we shall not find any difficulty on this point. It will give us pleasure to adjust the work according to your desires. It is also understood that you will receive 10% royalty on the sale of the books. I am very glad indeed that this arranges the matter to your satisfaction.

Will you kindly note that it is May; that you should be present by June 15th, 1903?

Looking forward with great pleasure to your coming, I remain

My dear Mr Harper,

I am now lecturing here, and at about 27th of December I am going to come to Chicago.
Will you give me this time not more than two lectures

Dear Mr. Miller:

The President has now decided to ask the Press to have the accompanying resolutions written by the hand responsible for "The gay young fox, etc." A good margin should be left on each side of the page, but the first and third pages may be used, leaving room on the third for the seal and ribbons below the President's signature, which he will himself affix. The date may be put in by the clerk who does the rest. I enclose copy and requisition. Mr. Dickerson will OK it if it is presented to him. The envelope should be addressed "His Excellency Paul Milyoukov, Foreign Minister, Petrograd, Russia." I should like to have the unused stock returned.
