Dear Mr. Olin:

Thank you very much for your note of the 6th instant together with the review of the Mooney case. I shall examine the pamphlet with great interest. I have seen so much floating material in the Press that I have been unable to form any adequate judgement in the matter.

Very truly yours,

Mr. John M. Olin,
Madison, Wis.

My dear Mr. Judson:

I am taking the liberty of sending you, under another cover, a copy of "Review of the Mooney Case", prepared by myself. I think you can rely upon the statements therein made, for I spent much time in verifying the same. Some very one-sided, prejudiced newspaper articles have been published of late as part of the propaganda in the interests of Mooney. From these articles it is impossible for one to get any fair idea of the situation with reference to this case.

Very truly yours,

John M. Olin

My dear Mr. Stebbins:

I am taking the liberty of sending you, under another cover, a copy of "Review of the Money Case", prepared by myself. I think you can rely upon the statements therein made, for I spent much time in verifying the same.
Some very one-sided, prejudiced newspaper articles have been published of late as part of the propaganda in the interests of money. From these articles it is impossible
