National Young Men's Republican League

HOTEL MORRISON

Chicago

February 17th, 1916.

OFFICE OF THE
PRESIDENT
LIN WILLIAM PRICE

Hon. Harry Pratt Judson,
Chicago.

Dear Sir:-

A thorough political survey of the country shows that younger Republicans are organizing in every nook and corner of the nation.

The National Young Men's Republican League is welding these young men, collectively and individually, into a nation-wide force for the advancement of safe and sane Republicanism for which the busines men of our nation stand.

"THE YOUNG REPUBLICAN" (a copy of the March issue of which has been sent to you under separate cover) is a medium of the League's propaganda work.

The initial expense of the young men's movement to date has been heroically borne by a few gentlemen. To equalize the expense while the financial policy of the work is being developed, it has been suggested that the fund of $2500 necessary for immediate extension work be raised by individual subscriptions not to exceed $100 each.

For each $100. subscribed it is proposed to send "THE YOUNG REPUBLICAN" to two hundred young men (the names of whom are to be supplied by the subscriber to the fund or are to be taken from the League's list).

I am accordingly writing to you asking for such a subscription, or so much thereof as you feel that you are warranted in subscribing.

Thanking you for this courtesy I am,

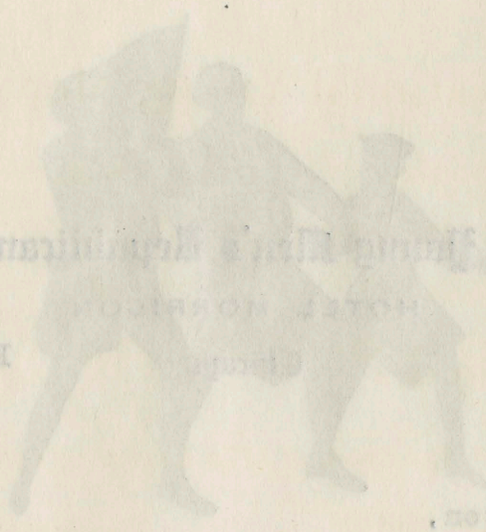

Yours very truly,

Make all checks payable to the NATIONAL YOUNG MEN'S REPUBLICAN LEAGUE.

Dear Sir:

I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of your letter of kind commendation of the work proposed by the National Young Men's Republican League. Your wishes relative to not accepting the office of an Honorary Vice President of the League will be respected.

The hearty responses which are being received from our legislators, business and professional men are high indicative of the unified and co-operative spirit which prevails in the campaign to restore the Republican party to power.

The young men of the League are gratified to have a hand in the molding of this growing sentiment for Republicanism.

It will be the effort of our 1776 Executive officers, representing the younger Republican organizations of the country, to diplomatically and effectively bring before the young man in all walks of life the import of Republican principles to his individual and governmental welfare.

Respectfully,
