Dear Mr. Judson:

Your circular letter of March 21st, together with your thirty-two page booklet, has been received and read by me with very much interest.

I wish to congratulate you not only on the preparation of the booklet, but the idea itself, and feel sure that in time the principles outlined in it will bring the results you desire and that the University should achieve.

I feel sure that all the Alumni are very proud of their Alma Mater and are looking forward to the time when they can more materially help in a financial way than they have in the past.

Thanking you for all that you and Mrs. Judson have done for us, I am notice from you saying that all alumni who had not received the 1951 book on the University should write for it. I have not received mine yet and would certainly appreciate a copy. I received my degree September 5, 1950.

Yours truly,

William B. Spittle.

Dear Sir:

I note by the Chicago Tribune of March 30th or 31st that you are making a distribution to the Alumni of the booklet or pamphlet regarding new construction contemplated by the University.

I am making a historical collection of Chicago and will be glad to receive a copy for my collection.

I was informed by your office over the telephone that the supply had been exhausted but that another issue would be made, and would appreciate your furnishing me with a copy at that time.

Thanking you in advance, I remain
