Dear Dr. Judson,

I have been appointed by the Board of the National Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher Associations to conduct a Mothers' Meeting at the national convention to be held in Washington April 23-30. That meeting will radiate a powerful influence for good if I can present to the women assembled testimonies from a limited number of men who have been foremost in the upbuilding of American civilization, showing the influences of their mothers,---influences which implanted in them the strength and courage which have made their lives successful.

Will you help us by writing and mailing to me one or two such instances of your boyhood? I believe this personal experience will do much toward awakening the young mothers of today and the mothers of the future to a realization of the importance of their part in advancing and maintaining high ideals in the conduct of affairs of our nation.

Very truly yours

Dear Mr. Judson:

I have been appointed by the Board of the National Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher Associations to conduct a Mother's Meeting at the national convention to be held in Washington April 22-24. Will you help us by writing and willing to me one or two such instances of your boyhood? Dear Miss Harrison:

Your favor of the 5th inst. was received while I was out of the city. I would find it quite impossible to make such a statement as you suggest, not for lack of material but because there is altogether too much material. I couldn't begin to say anything which would do justice to the influence I received as a child from my mother's direction in a thousand ways.

Very truly yours,

H.P.J. - L.
