My dear Dr. Shaw:-

Your favor of the 8th inst. is at hand, and the telegram received earlier apprised me promptly of the situation as to Mr. Choate. Of course I very greatly regret that we are unable to have his valued presence here in June. He was in every way our first choice for the address, and we with entire unanimity felt that he is in many ways the foremost citizen of the United States. I shall take the liberty of writing to Mr. Choate expressing my regret, and shall call on him gladly when I am in New York. Meanwhile I thank you very much for your kindness in taking up the matter for me.

With sincere regards and pleasant memories of our meeting in New Jersey, I am,

Cordially yours,

My dear Mr. Upham:-

You are of course being deluged with requests for tickets for the Republican Convention. I am writing, however, in the interest of Mr. Albert Shaw, Editor of the REVIEW OF REVIEWS, New York. Mr. Shaw, as you know, is one of the most important editors of periodicals in the country. He was connected more or less with the Progressive movement, but I happen to know that he is going to support the Republican ticket this year, and his influence and that of his periodical is, it seems to me, of large importance. He has been accustomed to have at previous Conventions two platform seats. He has no special desire to be on the platform, but he would like to have a couple of seats where he can hear thoroughly well. Of course the press seats would not be suitable in his case. If some arrangement can be made for Dr. Shaw

ALBERT SHAW-EDITOR

May 8, 1916

Dear Dr. Judson:

Thank you very much for your note of the 5th, which is in my mail this morning. I shall be coming to Chicago alone and staying at the Auditorium Hotel. Mrs. Shaw will not venture into the crowded scenes of convention week.

Thank you very much for having written to Mr. Upham. After my letter to you, I heard from our Chicago advertising representative, who assured me that Mr. Upham had several months ago said that he had looked out for me on former occasions and would do so again. So that I feel sure that with your added interest in the matter I shall have no trouble.

You will understand that my only reason for bothering at all about it was the feeling that some of the Old Guard thought of me as "outside the breastworks", and entitled therefore to no personal attention, while from the standpoint of the press I should not have the recognition that would be given to a daily newspaper.

As ever, Sincerely yours,

Albert Shaw

Dear Dr. Judson:

It occurs to me to send you two requests. First, I hope to be in Chicago in time to attend your twenty-fifth anniversary exercises on June 6, and I am sure you will try to let me have a ticket that would admit me. If I do not apply now I am afraid I might be too late.

Second, I am sending a line to Mr. Fred W. Upham—with whom I have, of course, some acquaintance—asking him to reserve a seat or two for me in the Republican convention. His mail, however, will be so crowded with applications that my note may not reach him personally. In olden times I was assigned two platform seats. I have no desire to be on the platform, if there may be some other seats where I should be able to hear. I am going to <sup>use</sup> ~~make~~ a Chicago Coliseum Republican convention scene <sup>for</sup> the cover of our June number of the Review, and am of course going to present the political situations in our number following the conventions. The press seats are usually reserved for correspondents and reporters working for the daily newspapers. I need to be suitably placed, but I do not have to occupy space reserved for the daily newspapers of the country.

As you of course know, I expect to support the Republican ticket this year; and as the Review has a good deal bigger circulation than it ever had before, I have no doubt most of the Republicans would

May 2, 1912

Dear Dr. Johnson:

It occurs to me to send you two requests. First,

I hope to be in Chicago in time to attend your twenty-fifth anniversary celebration on June 8, and I am sure you will try to let me have a ticket that would admit me. If I do not apply now I am afraid I might be too late.

Second, I am sending a line to Mr. Fred W. Upham—with whom I have, of course, some acquaintance—asking him to reserve a seat or two for me in the Republican convention. His call, however, will be so crowded with applications that my hope may not reach him personally.
In other times I was assigned two platform seats. I have no desire to be on the platform, if there may be some other seats where I should be able to hear. I am going to make a Chicago College Republican convention attend the cover of our June number of the Review, and am of course going to present the political situation in our number following the convention. The press seats are usually reserved for correspondents and reporters working for the daily newspapers. I need to be suitably placed, but I do not have to occupy space reserved for the daily newspapers of the society.

In you of course know, I expect to support the Republican ticket this year, and as the Review has a good deal of influence than it ever had before, I have no doubt that of the Republicans would be willing to have me on their side of the fence. There are, however, a few who take a personal view of the matter and are not very hospitable to anybody who (they think) might prefer a candidate whom they dislike.

I feel so strongly that the candidate this year must be selected for reasons of the national welfare, rather than for reasons of personal preference, that I am only hoping for some good and wise outcome without myself pretending to know what is best.

I had almost forgotten, however, to state my second request, which was that you might, unless it should be inconvenient, ask your secretary or someone to telephone Upham for me.

Faithfully yours,

Wm Shaw

Convention matter, unless wholly convenient!
