My dear Mr. Plimpton:

In pursuance of our telephone conversation I take it that as auditor you are authorizing payments of amounts up to $60 for graduate service scholarships when the amount of service rendered justifies that amount. I should be glad to have this authorization in writing for the files of the graduate office.

Very truly yours,

My dear President Judson:

I beg to return herewith Mr. Gale's letter of November 29 with regard to a student assistant in the Department of Geology taking but two courses and therefore earning an amount in excess of the tuition fee. I do not think these two factors should be mixed. I assume that persons are employed because they are the best persons available to give the work. It occurs to me also that the intent of the legislation was, that a person should not earn more than the normal fee, rather than an amount in excess of a fraction of the total tuition fee. In view of the foregoing I think the amount is a proper charge against the Service Scholarship budget.

Yours very truly,

W. D. Huntington

She is a graduate student. 98 she earns $51.40, and bull bees are $50, how about the additional $1.40? 1/24/23

My dear President Judson:

Professor Bastin, for the department of geology, writes that occasionally one of their student assistants is requested by the department to put in more hours than the amount necessary to earn the tuition. In particular this quarter Miss Marie Johnson who is taking only two courses and whose service scholarship is therefore limited to forty dollars, is needed for approximately eighty-five hours. Reckoned at sixty cents an hour, she would be entitled to $11.40 in addition to her voucher for $40.

If this additional service is rendered, do you wish her paid from the scholarship funds or should the amount come from some other source?

Very truly yours,

HGG Y
