

Supreme Court of the United States,
Washington, D.C.

7
May 23^d, 1915

My dear President Judson,

I have received your letter of the 21st and I am very sorry indeed to be compelled to say that I shall not be able to attend the meeting of the Board of Trustees on June 8th. The Court will not rise until June 21st and every available moment until that time

Presented to the Library of the

May 22, 1912

My dear Mr. [Name]

I have received your letter of the 21st and I am very glad to hear from you.

I am sure that you will

be very interested in the

results of the work.

I am sure that you will

be very interested in the

results of the work.

will be needed in disposing of
funding cases.

Mrs. Hughes joins me in expressing appreciation of the kind invitation of Mrs. Jackson and yourself, and we wish
that we could accept it.

With cordial regards,

Faithfully yours,

Charles E. Hughes

To President Harry Paul Jackson,
Hotel Manhattan,
New York City

The number of the paper is 100

and the date is 100

and the price is 100

and the value is 100

and the weight is 100

and the length is 100

and the width is 100

and the height is 100

and the depth is 100

and the breadth is 100

and the thickness is 100

and the volume is 100

and the mass is 100

and the density is 100

Chicago, June 1, 1915

My dear Justice Hughes:-

Your
favor of the 23d of May reached me in New York. I regret that your duties will make it impossible for you to visit us next week. At some other time we I am sure shall be able to make an arrangement which may be convenient. The year has been a prosperous one for the University.
Our beautiful new buildings are reaching completion, and the quadrangle
are gradually assuming their final

Chicago, June 1, 1915

My dear Justice Hughes:-

Yours

favor of the 23d of May reached me in New York. I regret that your duties will make it impossible for you to visit us next week. At some other time we I am sure shall be able to make an arrangement which may be convenient. The year has been a prosperous one for the University. Our beautiful new buildings are reaching completion, and the quadrangles are gradually assuming their final form. Next year at the June Convocation we shall celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of the University. I devoutly trust that the Supreme Court will find itself provided with a light docket at that time, so that we may have the privilege of having yourself and Mrs. Hughes with us.

With cordial regards,

Yours,

H.P.J. - L.

Hon. Charles E. Hughes,
Supreme Court of the United States
Washington, D. C.

form. Next year at the June Convocation we shall celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of the University. I devoutly trust that the Supreme Court will find itself provided with a light docket at that time, so that we may have the privilege of having yourself and Mrs. Hughes with us.

With cordial regards,

Yours,

H.P.J. - L.

Hon. Charles E. Hughes,
Supreme Court of the United States
Washington, D. C.