

CROSS REFERENCE SHEET

Name or Subject Infla, James H.

File No.

Regarding

Date

SEE

Name or Subject

File No.

Harper Letters 1, 1899
August
January 27, 1890

File cross reference form under name or subject at top of the sheet and by the latest date of papers. Describe matter for identification purposes. The papers, themselves should be filed under name or subject after "SEE."

Cat. No. 30-5902
For use in all Filing Systems

CROSS REFERENCE SHEET

File No.

Name or Subject Wright, James H.

Date

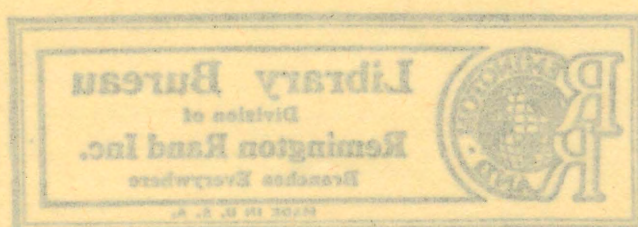

Regarding

SEE

File No.

Name or Subject

*Wright, James H.
Journey 2.18.90
1899*

For use in all Filing Systems
Cat. No. 30-5902

"SEE"
The cross reference form under name or subject at top of the sheet and by the latest date of papers. Describe matter for identification purposes. The papers themselves should be filed under name or subject after

CROSS REFERENCE SHEET

Name or Subject J. H. Tufts

File No.

Regarding

Date

SEE

Name or Subject

Harper 1905

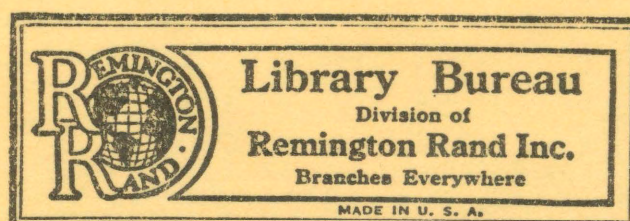

File No.

Early Appointments

Committee on Instruction

Dean of Undergraduates

File cross reference form under name or subject at top of the sheet and by the latest date of papers. Describe matter for identification purposes. The papers, themselves should be filed under name or subject after "SEE."

Cat. No. 30-5902

For use in all Filing Systems

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN
MADISON
DEPARTMENT OF PHILOSOPHY

My dear Mr. Robertson

Please accept my renewed thanks for your kindness in helping me obtain a view of the opinions of Chicago alumni of the work of Professor Tufts as dean and teacher. I received your letter, and those of a majority of those whose names you gave right one.
They were really a magnificent set of testimonials. They were duly sent to their destination & were read at the meeting of the trustees held May 2. No final action has been taken with regard to the presidency. But I greatly fear it is to be offered to one who, though perhaps worthy of the position, is - as far as I can see - distinctly the inferior of Tufts. In that case the University of Chicago will be the gainer, & as will the cause of philosophy in the West. In any event I have much

Come to be grateful to you.

You may perhaps be interested to know who responded to Wright's letters and who did not.
Those who responded were: Brigham, Reiberg, Lewis,
Henry, Mac Hair, Sheldon, Sutcliffe, Jones, Mills,
and Weston. Those who did not were: Fleming, Rogers, Kendall, Parry, Mac Leish, Mac Gray. The ref. allusion made up directly by President Tufts' reply is by F. C. Sharps

May 15 1912
Could I further improve upon your time by asking you to direct the enclosed letters for me?
Geo.

1703 Chicago Avenue, Evanston, Ills., June 2, 1917.

Professor J.H. Tufts,
University of Chicago,
Chicago,
Ills.

Dear Professor Tufts:-

You are doubtless aware that the Council of the American Psychological Association has appointed several committees for the purpose of making psychology useful in the prosecution of the war.

One of these committees has as its sphere Recreation in Army and Navy. I have been requested to act as chairman of the committee, and to secure other members therefor. This manner of procedure reflects, I suppose, some feeling of emergency, and a desire that action be delayed as little as possible.

Can you, and will you, accept membership on this important committee? I sincerely hope that your reply will be in the affirmative.

If so, I suggest that you let me know something as to your probable whereabouts during the summer, to the end that meetings of the committee may be held with the least inconvenience to the various committeemen.

If, in addition, you are ready to make suggestions as to desirable policies for the committee, I beg you to let me have them. Correspondence with Professor Yerkes and with Raymond B. Fosdick, chairman of the War Department Commission on Training Camp Activities, indicates that the government will gladly use anything that we can work out that will be likely to increase the efficiency of the military and naval forces.

Very truly yours,

George A. Roe.

My address for the present will be as above.

1703 Chicago Avenue, Evanston, Ill., June 2, 1917.

Professor J. H. Telfer,
University of Chicago,
Chicago,
Ill.

Dear Professor Telfer:-

You are doubtless aware that the Council of the American Psychological Association has appointed several committees for the purpose of making psychology useful in the prosecution of the war.

One of these committees has as its sphere of action in Army and Navy. I have been requested to act as chairman of the committee, and to secure other members thereof. This manner of procedure, I suppose, some feeling of emergency, and a desire that action be delayed as little as possible.

Can you, and will you, accept membership on this important committee? I sincerely hope that your reply will be in the affirmative.

If so, I suggest that you let me know something as to your probable whereabouts during the summer, so that the meetings of the committee may be held with the least inconvenience to the various committeemen.

If, in addition, you are ready to make suggestions as to desirable policies for the committee, I beg you to let me have them. Correspondence with Professor Yerkes and with Raymond B. Hoelck, chairman of the War Department Commission on Training Camp Activities, indicates that the government will gladly use anything that we can work out that will be likely to increase the efficiency of the military and naval forces.

Very truly yours,

George D. Yerk

My address for the present will be as above.

2

based on the facts.

In many little ways he showed understanding of the student heart. I remember, for instance, a senior song which

Chicago, April 9, 1912.

opened upon after the class had been rather heartily singing songs with University songs. On our invitation he sat down among us on the steps of Haskell and not only joined in the Chicago

My dear Professor Sharp:-

and after a few minutes sang an Asherit song for us. The class of course was greatly pleased and promptly appropriated information as to Mr. Tufts and his relationship with students and alumni, I write very gladly.

I was in the class of 1902 and perhaps more than most of the class I got acquainted with Mr. Tufts, then Dean of the Senior Colleges, because I was president of the class organization in my junior year and in the early part of my senior year.

My personal relations with Mr. Tufts were always most friendly because of the interest which he took in all the business of the student council and of the class. Many times he assisted us to further projects which we were handling with difficulty, projects which seemed to all of us of value to the University.

The honor system, for instance, was discussed during my chairmanship of the senior council. Mr. Tufts' meetings with the council gave us always the impression that he was a wise older brother who wished to assist us in getting at the facts while leaving us free to use our own judgment with respect to actions

Professor Frank C. Sharp,
University of Wisconsin,
Madison, Wisconsin.

5

Chicago, April 2, 1912.
I remember, for instance, a senior class which was organized after the class had been nearly meeting with University songs. On our invitation he had then

My dear Professor Sharp:-
In response to your request for information of course was greatly pleased and promptly responded after as to Mr. Tuttle and his relationship with students and alumni. I write very gladly.

I was in the class of 1902 and perhaps more than most of the class I got acquainted with Mr. Tuttle, then Dean of the Senior College, because I was president of the class organization in my junior year and in the early part of my senior year.

My personal relations with Mr. Tuttle were always most friendly because of the interest which he took in all the business of the student council and of the class. Many times he assisted us in further projects which we were handling with difficulty.

projects which seemed to all of us of value to the University.
The honor system, for instance, was discussed during my chairmanship of the senior council. Mr. Tuttle's meetings with the council gave us always the impression that he was a wise older brother who wished to assist us in getting at the facts while leaving us free to use our own judgment with respect to actions

Secretary to the President.

Professor Frank C. Sharp,
University of Wisconsin,
Madison, Wisconsin.

based on the facts.

In many little ways he showed understanding of the student heart. I remember, for instance, a senior sing which he happened upon after the class had been rather heartily amusing itself with University songs. On our invitation he sat down among us on the steps of Haskell and not only joined in the Chicago songs but after a few minutes sang an Amherst song for us. The class of course was greatly pleased and promptly appropriated the Amherst song for our printed leaflet of songs, giving it the title "Dean Tufts' Song".

I have never heard anything from a student or alumnus except of high praise and affection for him. His very height and stride endeared him to us, so that often Dad Tufts was compared with Lincoln.

I said at the outset that I was glad to write this. I must confess that it gives me also great pain, for like every Chicago man I should very deeply regret seeing him go even to Amherst. I am unwilling even in praise of him to say anything which would make it easy for you to get him. I deem it my duty, however, thus frankly to state what I have said concerning him and his relations with the students of my time.

Sincerely yours,

D. A. Robertson
Secretary to the President
Secretary to the President.

DAR-B

Professor Frank C. Sharp,
University of Wisconsin,
Madison, Wisconsin.

based on the facts.

In many little ways he showed understanding of the student heart. I remember, for instance, a senior sing which he happened upon after the class had been rather heartily amusing itself with University songs. On our invitation he sat down among us on the steps of Haskell and not only joined in the Chicago songs but after a few minutes sang an Amherst song for us. The class of course was greatly pleased and promptly appropriated the Amherst song for our printed leaflet of songs, giving it the title "Dean Tuttle's Song".

I have never heard anything from a student or alumnus except of high praise and affection for him. His very height and sturdy endowment him to us, so that often Dad Tuttle was compared with Lincoln. I said at the outset that I was glad to write this. I must confess that it gives me also great pain, for like every Chicago man I should very deeply regret seeing him go even to Amherst. I am unwilling even in praise of him to say anything which would make it easy for you to get him. I deem it my duty, however, thus frankly to state what I have said concerning him and his relations with the students of my time.

Sincerely yours,

D. A. Robertson
Secretary to the President
Secretary to the President.

DAN-B

Professor Frank C. Sharp,
University of Wisconsin,
Madison, Wisconsin.

January 7th, 1903.

Mr. J. H. Fufts,

University of Chicago,

Dear Sir:-

In order that we may use the list for canvassing in the interest of the Summer Quarter of 1903 will you please have prepared at your earliest convenience a list of students enrolled in the Senior College for the Summer Quarter of 1902. In each case it is desired that the home address as given by the student be furnished.

I desire to send a letter to each one. As the time draws near for making the canvass I am anxious to get the list as soon as possible. You will understand that this same list will serve as a basis for the one which must soon be prepared by you for the Annual Register.

Yours truly,

W. R. Harper

January 12, 1903.

Mr. J. H. Tuttle,
University of Chicago,

Dear Sir:-

In order that we may use the list for convening in the interest of the Summer Quarter of 1903 will you please have prepared your earliest convenience a list of students enrolled in the Senior College for the Summer Quarter of 1903. In each case it is desired that the home address be given by the student be furnished.
I desire to send a letter to each one. As the time draws near for making the canvass I am anxious to get the list as soon as possible. You will understand that this same list will serve as a basis for the one which must soon be prepared by you for the Annual Register.

Yours truly,

W. R. Harper

Gunderson

April 27, 1905.

Prof. J. H. Tufts,

Faculty Exchange.

Dear Mr. Tufts:

I am glad to see your graceful handwriting once more and thereby to know that you are again at home.

I note your recommendation as to Miss Richardson and will accordingly see that she is appointed to a fellowship with the understanding that the stipend covers her tuition fees and comes from the scholarship funds of the School of Education.

Very truly yours,

April 27, 1905.

Handwritten signature

Prof. J. H. Tuttle,

Faculty Exchange.

Dear Mr. Tuttle:

I am glad to see your graceful handwriting once more and thereby to know that you are again at home.

I note your recommendation as to Miss Richardson and will accordingly see that she is appointed to a fellowship with the understanding that the stipend covers her tuition fees and comes from the scholarship funds of the School of Education.

Very truly yours,

The University of Chicago
Department of Philosophy

April 26 '06

+10

Dear Mr Jackson,

I am able to do some work again, meeting my classes at my house.

Concerning Miss Richardson
Locke told me she could have a Scholarship from their friends for that purpose. I should recommended that it be called a Fellowship. Miss R's recommendations were very high, and I think it would be proper to give her the title of Fellow.

Yours
G. H. Ingels.