

AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF CRIMINAL LAW
AND CRIMINOLOGY

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

Jan 20/11

Dear Mr. Judson,

I want to say how sincere I have appreciated the attitude of your administration towards the brethren of science in Northwestern.
With this statement, you will I am sure not misunderstand the enclosed letter.

Yours cordially
John H. Wigmore

186

AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF CRIMINAL LAW
AND CRIMINOLOGY

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

Dear Mr. [Name]

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 11th inst. in relation to the proposed revision of the American Institute of Criminal Law and Criminology. I am very glad to hear that you are interested in the work of the Institute and I am sure that your suggestions will be of great value to the Committee on Revision. I am sure that the Institute will be very glad to receive your suggestions and to consider them in the light of the work of the Committee on Revision. I am sure that the Institute will be very glad to receive your suggestions and to consider them in the light of the work of the Committee on Revision.

COPY TO PRESIDENT JUDSON-

87 East Lake street

18 January 1910

Wingman
~~Professor Charles R. Henderson~~

University of Chicago, Chicago

Dear Professor Henderson:-

Thank you very much for forwarding me the communication of Mr Waxweiler of the Solvay Institute. I shall reply to it immediately. Possibly the misdirection of that writer, in sending his letter to the University of Chicago, is due to the curious way in which the letter-heads of the International Prison Commission, as now used by you, contain at the head in prominent type the title of "The University of Chicago", just underneath the words "International Prison Commission", and quite additional to the name, University of Chicago, given in small type for your address as Commissioner for the United States.

This perhaps justifies me in mentioning that I had already in receiving letters from you, been somewhat amused at the manner in which a overzealous subordinate in the publicity department of the University had so abused the printing press to the advantage of the University of Chicago. I understand that the International Prison Commission is composed of delegates appointed by the respective governments; and that the International Prison Congress, to meet next October at Washington, is also organized by governments, and that no university, as such, has anything to do with either the Commission or the Congress. It, therefore, would seem that the use of such type on your letter-head is calculated to hurt the feelings of many other universities, and other members, who are equally interested in the work

18 January 1910

87 West Lake Street

Professor Charles R. Henderson

University of Chicago, Chicago

Dear Professor Henderson:-

Thank you very much for forwarding me the communication of Mr. Wheeler of the Solway Institute. I shall reply to it immediately. Possibly the misdirection of that letter, in sending it to the University of Chicago, is due to the error in which the letter-heads of the International Prison Commission, as now used by you, contain at the head in parentheses the title of "The University of Chicago". Just underneath the words "International Prison Commission", and quite additional to the name, University of Chicago, given in small type for your address as Commissioner for the United States.

This mistake justifies me in mentioning that I had already in receiving letters from you, been somewhat puzzled at the manner in which a correspondence ordinarily in the publicity department of the University had so missed the printing press to the advantage of the University of Chicago. I understand that the International Prison Commission is composed of delegates appointed by the respective governments; and that the International Prison Congress, to meet next October at Washington, is also organized by governments, and that no university, as such, has anything to do with either the Commission or the Congress. It, therefore, would seem that the use of such type on your letter-head is calculated to hurt the feeling of many other universities, and other members, who are equally interested in the work of the Commission and of the Congress, in that the type gives an entirely incorrect and inappropriate association between the Commission and the University of Chicago. I may add that several other persons have expressed to me their astonishment at such a method of exploitation of the Commission to advance the publicity interests of the University of Chicago.

If this is the way in which the letter-heads of preliminary correspondence are to be used, what must be the omen for the use that will be made of the Congress itself when it meets?.

The fact is that I had been thoroughly convinced, and was grateful to acknowledge it, that in the new administration of President Judson these old time methods had been entirely abandoned; and I am now confident that it is simply a case of some subordinate in the publicity department having slipped a cog. For this reason I am frank to send a copy of this letter to President Judson.

Of course, I am frank to mention this matter on the theory that a man of such delicate sensibilities as yourself to all that makes for good feeling between scholars in the same enterprise, would desire to discontinue any form of correspondence which would cause unfavorable comment among friends who desire to have no shadow of this sort between them. In so doing, and in reminding you of such comment as has been made by others upon the incident, I believe that I am doing only that for which you would thank me.

Sincerely yours,

JACW.

of the Commission and of the Congress, in that the type gives an entirely incorrect and inappropriate association between the Commission and the University of Chicago. I may add that several other persons have expressed to me their astonishment at such a method of exploitation of the Commission to advance the publicity interests of the University of Chicago.

It is this in the way in which the letter-heads of preliminary correspondence are to be used, what must be the owner for the use that will be made of the Commission itself when it meets?

The fact is that I had been thoroughly convinced, and was grateful to acknowledge it, that in the new administration of President Johnson these old time methods had been entirely abandoned; and I am now confident that it is simply a case of some subordinate in the publicity department having slipped a cog. For this reason I am frank to send a copy of this letter to President Johnson.

Of course, I am frank to mention this matter, and the theory that a man of such delicate sensitivities as yourself to all that makes for good feeling between scholars in the same enterprise, would desire to discontinue any form of correspondence which would cause unfavorable comment among friends who desire to have no shadow of this sort between them. In so doing, and in reminding you of such comment as has been made by others upon the incident, I believe that I am doing only that for which you would thank me.

Sincerely yours,

W. H. H.

File Inst

President, CHARLES RICHMOND HENDERSON
Commissioner for the United States,
Department of State, Washington, D. C.
Mail Address, The University of Chicago, Illinois.

Secretary, Dr. L. LAUME,
Director of the Federal Bureau of Statistics,
Berne, Switzerland.

International Prison Commission

The University of Chicago

Chicago, September 17, 1909.

The One

Miss Agnes, The University of Chicago, Illinois
Department of Social Work, 12 C
Washington, D. C.
Commissioner for the United States
Prison, CHARLES RICHMOND HENDERSON

International Prison Commission

The University of Chicago

Chicago, September 14, 1909.

Secretary, Dr. J. J. ALLEN
Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Bureau, Washington.

January 21, 1910

Dear Mr. Wigmore:-

Your favor of the 20th inst. with enclosure was duly received. You have already had from Dr. Henderson his reply, which seems to make the matter fairly clear. There is no doubt that the first form to which you call attention is inadvisable, and there is also no doubt that as soon as Dr. Henderson's attention was called to it he at once corrected it. The various inferences which you make in the matter it seems to me, however, are quite unwarranted. It is just as well in dealing with gentlemen to discuss facts without inferences which are unnecessary and discourteous.

Very truly yours,

H. P. J.

Professor John H. Wigmore,
Northwestern University Law School,
86 E. Lake St., Chicago.

January 21, 1910

Dear Mr. Wigmore:-

Your favor of the 20th inst. with enclosure was duly received. You have already had from Dr. Henderson his reply, which seems to make the matter fairly clear. There is no doubt that the first form to which you call attention is inadmissible, and there is also no doubt that as soon as Dr. Henderson's attention was called to it he at once corrected it. The various inferences which you make in the matter it seems to me, however, are quite unwarranted. It is just as well in dealing with gentlemen to discuss facts without inferences which are unnecessary and discourteous.

Very truly yours,

H. G. F.

Professor John H. Wigmore,
Northwestern University Law School,
86 E. Lake St., Chicago.

President, CHARLES RICHMOND HENDERSON,
Commissioner for the United States,
Department of State, Washington, D. C.
Mail Address, The University of Chicago, Illinois.

Secretary, Dr. GUILLAUME,
Director of the Federal Bureau of Statistics,
Berne, Switzerland.

International Prison Commission

[The University of Chicago] was a former letter.

January 21, 1910.

Professor John H. Wigmore,
Northwestern University Law School,
87 East Lake Street, Chicago.

Dear Professor Wigmore:

Your esteemed favor of January 18th gives me the chance to explain the form of letter-head hitherto used and already changed before receipt of your letter. When I was appointed to succeed Dr. Barrows I simply sent a copy of his letter-head to the printer with name and address changed. Only later did I notice the prominence given thereby to The University of Chicago. This institution is my place of business, just as the office of the New York Prison Association was that of my predecessor; and my University gives my services to the Government and also provides gratuitously an office, with heat, light and janitor service. No one connected with the University wishes to make improper use of this relation. I beg you, as a gentleman both just and kind, to help me make this explanation where it is needed. When I was in Paris and in my correspondence I have taken particular pains to give the Northwestern University and its Law School, and especially the Dean, specific credit for its great service in founding the American Institute of Criminal Law and Criminology. The fact that your Law School is in Chicago inevitably associates it in the minds of Europeans with the University of Chicago. Until they are told they would not think of our having two faculties of law in one city. That is the true explanation of Mr. Waxweiler's mistake.

If you think the letter-head should be changed further, on ground of justice or delicacy, I am open to receive suggestions. Or if you notice any action or course of action, on my part, which calls for an explanation, I hope you will, as in this case be instantly open and frank.

Yours sincerely,

C R Henderson

CRH/W

Copy to President Judson.

*Dear President Judson:
I do not think I discussed Prof. Wigmore's letter; but if my explanation is not adequate please tell me.
Yours
C R Henderson*

Secretary, Dr. GUNDELAK
Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation
Bureau, Washington

President, CHARLES RICHMOND HENDERSON
Commissioner for the United States
Department of State, Washington, D. C.
1400 Avenue, The University of Chicago, Chicago

International Prison Commission

The University of Chicago - from letter

January 21, 1910.

Professor John H. Wigmore,
Northwestern University Law School,
67 East Lake Street, Chicago.

Dear Professor Wigmore:

Your reference letter of January 15th gives me the chance to explain the form of letter-head history used and already changed before receipt of your letter. When I was appointed to succeed Dr. Harrison I simply sent a copy of his letter-head to the printer with name and address changed. Only later did I notice the prominence given thereby to the University of Chicago. This incident in my place of business, just as the office of the New York Prison Commission was that of my predecessor, and my University given by services to the Government and also provided practically an office, with head, light and power service. He was connected with the University which to make improper use of this relation. I beg you as a favor to make the necessary change in the letter-head. I am sure that I am in the right in my own opinion. Since I have been particularly active in the Northwestern University and the Law School, and especially the Law, Medical and Dental Schools, I have been in touch with the American Institute of Criminal Law and Criminology. The fact that your Law School is in Chicago inevitably associated it in the minds of Europeans with the University of Chicago. Until they are told they would not think of my having two locations of law in one city. That is the true explanation of my explanatory mistake.

If you think the letter-head should be changed further, on ground of justice or propriety, I am open to receive suggestions. If you notice any matter of course of action, on my part, which calls for an explanation, I beg you will be in this case be instantly open and frank.

Yours sincerely,

CHW

Copy to President Johnson.

*Dear President Johnson:
I do not think Johnson Prof. Harrison's letter; but my explanation is all
I beg to have tell me.
Sincerely,
John H. Wigmore*

Dr. Henderson

OFFICE OF THE DEAN

NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW
NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY BUILDING
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS.

7 194
Wigmore
25 January 1910

President H. P. Judson

University of Chicago, Chicago

Dear Mr Judson:-

I thank you for your considerate reply of January 21, to my letter about the Prison Congress paper. I am extremely sorry that I seemed in that letter to you to be discourteous in the inference which you read into my words. I sincerely regret having said anything which personally hurt your feelings. I took pains to say to you how grateful I have been for the changed spirit throughout the University ^{of Chicago} towards this University, since your administration has taken charge, and I meant what I said when I implied that it was due to the spirit inculcated by yourself. I can also now be frank to say that in the former administration our feelings were from time to time very seriously hurt by various petty matters which were suitable to the methods of rival business houses, but not to the relations of scholars and gentlemen working in the same scientific fields. If you saw anything in my letter which indicated such a feeling of resentment on our part, it was nothing but the reminiscence of that old feeling, which I have hoped would be entirely buried in the new attitude of your administration, and which I am sure will be buried in view of the very courteous action just taken in removing from the letter-head that which, as you say, was inadvisable from the point of view ^{of others}.

It may be that this is the first time that any one has told you of the feelings which have been caused in past time. I can thus understand why you would not understand the naturalness of such reminiscence of it as you found (contrary to my intention) in my letter.

Yours sincerely,

John H. Wigmore

1914
1
1/2

NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW
NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY BUILDING
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

OFFICE OF THE DEAN

President H. P. Johnson

University of Chicago, Chicago

Dear Mr. Johnson:

I thank you for your considerate reply of January 21, to my letter about the Prison Congress paper. I am extremely sorry that I seemed in that letter to you to be disrespectful in the inference which you read into my words. I always regret having said anything which personally hurt your feelings. I took pains to say to you how grateful I have been for the changed spirit throughout the University towards this University, since your administration has taken charge, and I meant what I said when I implied that it was due to the spirit instilled by yourself. I can also now be frank to say that in the former administration our feelings were from time to time very seriously hurt by various petty matters which were entirely to the method of rival business houses, but not to the relations of scholars and gentlemen working in the same scientific fields. If you saw anything in my letter which indicated such a feeling of resentment on our part, it was nothing but the weakness of that old feeling, which I have hoped would be entirely buried in the new attitude of your administration, and which I am sure will be buried in view of the very courteous action just taken in removing from the letter-head that which, as you say, was indirectly from the point of view.

It may be that this is the first time that any one has told you of the feelings which have been caused in past years. I can think understand why you would not understand the nature of our resistance of it as you found (contrary to my intention) in my letter.

Yours sincerely,

Frank A. Johnson

with the University of Chicago. May I add that I am never gratified personally by commendation which consists in criticism of my predecessor.

Very truly yours,

January 28, 1910

H. P. J.

Dear Mr. Wigmore:-

Your favor of the 25th inst. is received. I think that I hardly read into your letter to Mr. Henderson anything which it did not contain. For instance, by you speak of "the manner in which an over-zealous subordinate in the publicity department of the University can so abuse the printing press to the advantage of the University of Chicago." You speak further of the letter-head as "such methods of exploitation of the Commission to advance the publicity interests of the University of Chicago." You also imply an apprehension as to "what must be the omen for the use that would be made of the Commission itself when it meets." These things imply of course that the matter to which you refer, trivial enough in itself, was deliberately devised for the purpose of exploiting the University, and that further unwarrantable exploitation of a similar character might be expected. It seems to me that it was not necessary to assume such motives on the part of anyone connected not necessary to assume such motives on the part of anyone connected similar character might be expected. It seems to me that it was the University, and that further unwarrantable exploitation of a in itself, was deliberately devised for the purpose of exploiting imply of course that the matter to which you refer, trivial enough would be made of the Commission itself when it meets." These things imply an apprehension as to "what must be the men for the use that the publicity interests of the University of Chicago." You also head as "such methods of exploitation of the Commission to advance of the University of Chicago." You speak further of the letter-of the University can no abuse the printing press to the advantage in which an over-zealous subordinate in the publicity department which it did not contain. For instance, you speak of "the manner think that I hardly read into your letter to Mr. Henderson anything

Your favor of the 23rd inst. is received. I

Dear Mr. Wigmore:-

January 28, 1910

with the personal

with the University of Chicago. May I add that I am never gratified personally by commendation which consists in criticism of my predecessor.

Very truly yours,

H. P. J.

I am sure that you will pardon my frankness in the matter. I should not have spoken in this way at all but for my high regard for yourself personally and for my confidence that your judgment was hasty and did not represent your real second thought.

H. P. J.

Dean John H. Wigmore,
Northwestern University School of Law,
Chicago.

with the University of Chicago. May I add that I am never gratified personally by commendation which consists in criticism of my predecessor.

Very truly yours,

January 28, 1910

H.P.J.

Dear Mr. Wigmore:

Your favor of the 27th inst. is received. I am sure that you will pardon my frankness in the matter. I should not have spoken in this way at all but for my high regard for yourself personally and for my confidence that your judgment was hasty and did not represent your real second thought.

H. P. J.

of the University of Chicago. The words "such methods of exploitation of the Commission in relation to the publicly interests of the University of Chicago." The time imply an explanation as to "what was the reason for the way that would be made of the Commission itself when it reads." These things imply of course that the matter to which you refer, related enough in itself, was deliberately devised for the purpose of exploiting the University, and that further accountable explanation of a Dean John H. Wigmore, Northwestern University School of Law, means to me that it was Chicago.

The University of Chicago

Jan. 30. 1910

Dear President Jackson,

I thank you for permitting me to see the correspondence with Professor Wigmore, and hope you will not be further troubled. It is too small a thing for busy and strong men to spend much time on, as you were forced to do.

Yours cordially,

Ch. Henderson

Northwestern
(Wigmore)

The University of Chicago

Jan 20 1912

Dear Professor Johnson

I thank you for forwarding me
the correspondence with Professor Higginson, and hope you will not be further troubled. It is too soon a time for deep reading and I spend much time on you now and then.

Very truly,
C. Johnson

My dear Mr. Johnson
I have just received your letter of the 19th inst. and am glad to hear from you.

1

FREDERIC B. CROSSLEY
NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY BUILDING
CHICAGO

December 30, 1913.

Wigmore

President Harry Pratt Judson,
University of Chicago,
CHICAGO.

My dear Mr. Judson:-

The present academic year marks the twentieth year of service of Dean John H. Wigmore to the Law School.

The students of the Law School propose to commemorate this event on Thursday, January 8th, with an address at the Law School in the afternoon by Hon. William J. Bryan, of the Class of '83, and an informal dinner at the University Club at 6 P. M..

The Committee in charge would esteem it an honor if you could be present at the address in the afternoon and the dinner in the evening, but if this is not possible, the Committee desires that you honor the occasion by sending a representative.

The City, State and Federal judiciaries and the various Bar Associations will be represented and the Committee feel that the presence of a representative from the University of Chicago will add greatly to the felicity of the occasion.

Sincerely yours,

F. B. Crossley

Dec. 31. Telephone call, asking for Mr. Crossley's office and to leave message the President's office that his presence was desired; it is not possible for him to be Northwestern University and to double personally is such a burden that it is with the present knowledge of it is not representative of the University of Chicago.

FREDERIC E. CROSBLEY
NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY BUILDING
CHICAGO

December 30, 1913.

President Harry Pratt Johnson,
University of Chicago,
CHICAGO

My Dear Mr. Johnson:-

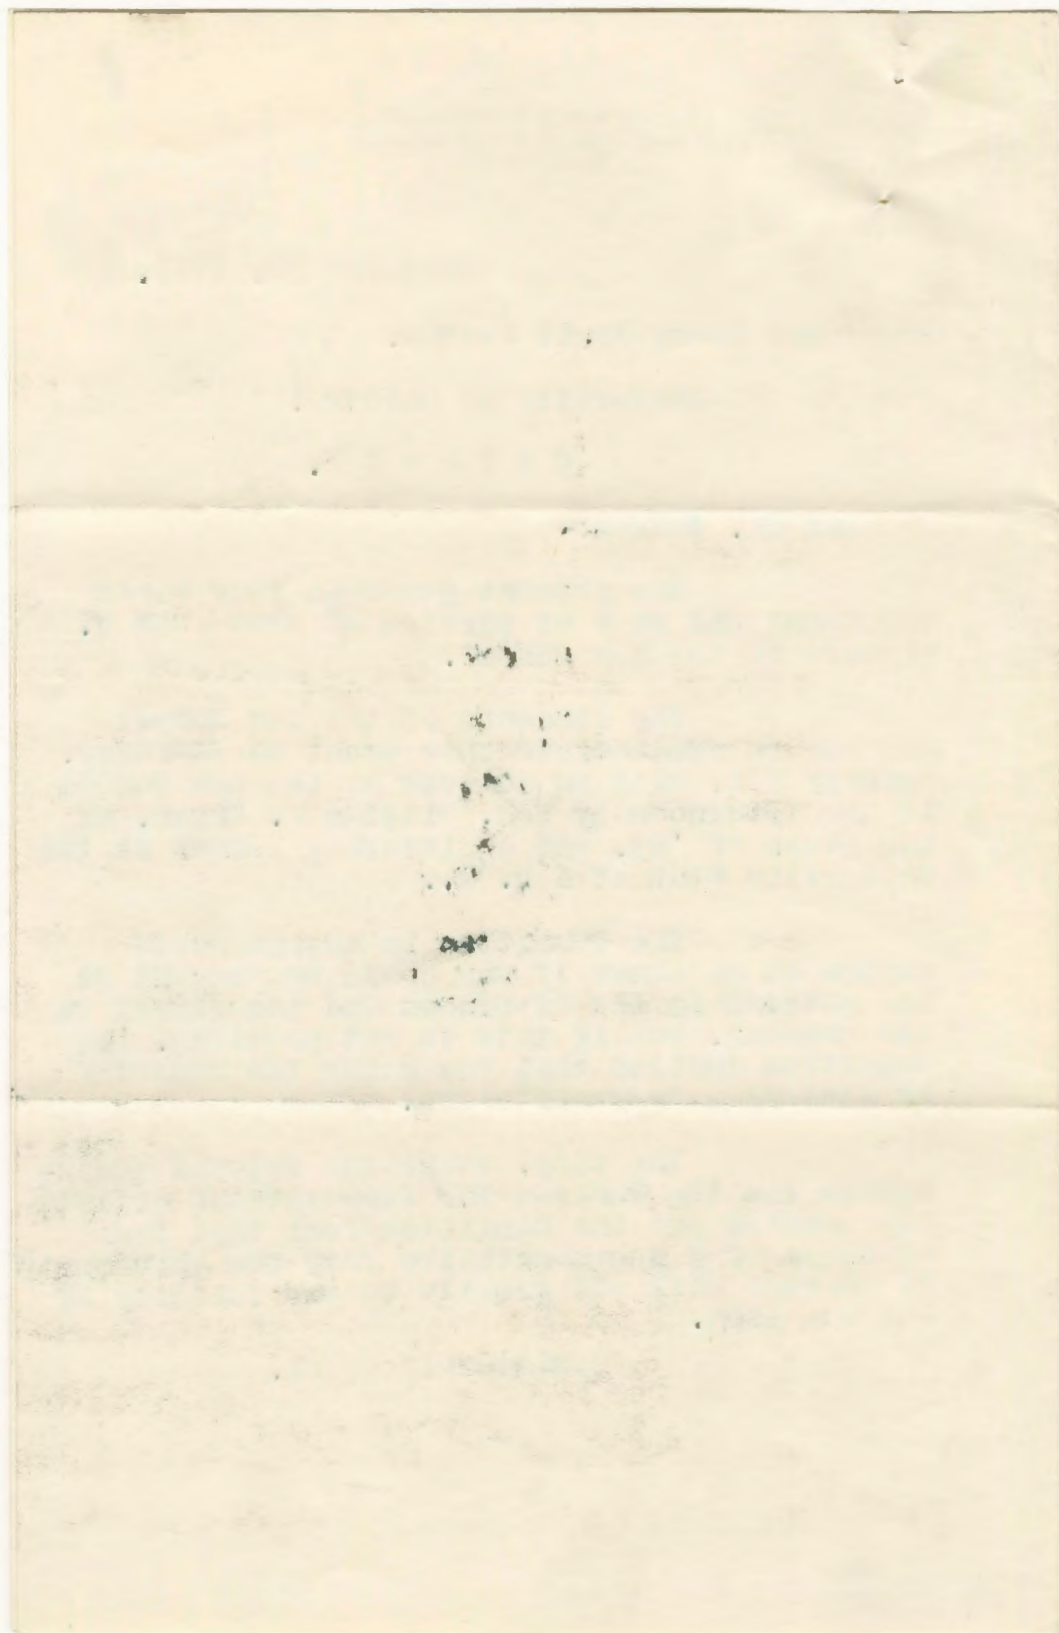

The greatest academic year marks
the twentieth year of service of Dean John H.
Simmons to the Law School.

The students of the Law School propose to celebrate this event on Thursday, January 2nd, with an address at the Law School in the afternoon by Hon. William J. Ryan, of the Class of '85, and an informal dinner at the University Club at 6 P. M.

The Committee in charge would esteem it an honor if you could be present at the address in the afternoon and the dinner in the evening, but if this is not possible, the Committee desires that you honor the occasion by sending a representative.

The City, State and Federal Judiciaries and the various Bar Associations will be represented and the Committee feel that the presence of a representative from the University of Chicago will add greatly to the interest of the occasion.

Sincerely yours,
Frederic E. Crosby

Chicago, January 5, 1914.

My dear Mr. Crossley:-

I believe that my secretary has conferred with you over the telephone and explained the engagement which I have on Thursday evening next which will prevent my having the pleasure of being present at the dinner in honor of Dean Wigmore. I have asked Dean James P. Hall, of the Law School of the University of Chicago, to represent the University on that occasion, and to carry our greetings and congratulations. Dean Wigmore has done a great service not merely to the Law School over which he has so admirably presided, but to the city and the state. I regard him as one of the ablest and most useful men in our community, and sincerely congratulate Northwestern University, the Law School of Northwestern University, and the Dean himself on this auspicious

Chicago, January 5, 1914.

My dear Mr. Crossley:-

I believe that my secretary has conferred with you over the telephone and explained the engagement which I have on Thursday evening next which will prevent my having the pleasure of being present at the dinner in honor of Dean Wigmore. I have asked Dean James P. Hall, of the Law School of the University of Chicago, to represent the University on that occasion, and to carry our greetings and congratulations. Dean Wigmore has done a great service not merely to the Law School over which he has so admirably presided, but to the city and the state. I regard him as one of the ablest and most useful men in our community, and sincerely congratulate Northwestern University, the Law School of Northwestern University, and the Dean himself in this auspicious occasion.

With sincere regards, I am,

Very truly yours,

H.P.J. - L.

Mr. Frederick B. Crossley,
Northwestern University Bldg., Chicago.

occasion.

With sincere regards, I am,

Very truly yours,

H.P.J. - L.

Mr. Frederick B. Crossley,
Northwestern University Bldg., Chicago.

will remember as the brother of the late James H. Eckels, and long the attorney of the Commercial National Bank. Mr. George Eckels died about two months ago.

Chicago, December 23, 1913

With cordial regards, I am,

Very truly yours,

My dear Dean Wigmore:-

Thank you very much for your kind note of the 20th inst. It is, and has been for long, very much my desire that our two institutions might cooperate in every friendly way. I have high esteem for your institution and for many of the men connected with it whom I happen to know. I am sure that the worthy attainments of each of the universities will be aided rather than hindered by the most friendly relationship among members of the faculties, and by every means of mutual aid

Dean John H. Wigmore,

which we can render University Law School,

Northeastern University Bldg., Chicago.

Mrs. Judson was very glad to meet you, she having often heard about you from me. The lady to whom she presented you and to whom you refer was Mrs. George H. Eckels. Mr. Eckels you, I daresay, months as National Bokels,

will rem

Chicago, December 25, 1915

My dear Dean Wigmore:-

Thank you very much for your kind note of the 20th inst. It is, and has been for long, very much my desire that our two institutions might cooperate in every friendly way. I have high esteem for your institution and for many of the men connected with it whom I happen to know.
I am sure that the worthy attainments of each of the universities will be aided rather than hindered by the most friendly relationship among members of the faculties, and by every means of mutual aid which we can render.
Mrs. Jackson was very glad to meet you, she having often heard about you from me. The lady to whom she presented you and to whom you refer was Mrs. George H. Bokels. Mr. Bokels you, I dare say,

will remember as the brother of the late James H. Eckels, and long the attorney of the Commercial National Bank. Mr. George Eckels died about two months ago.

With cordial regards, I am,

Very truly yours,

H.P.J. - L.

Dean John H. Wigmore,
Northwestern University Law School,
Northwestern University Bldg., Chicago.

will remember as the brother of the late James H.

Nekela, and long the attorney of the Commercial

National Bank. Mr. George Nekela died about two months ago.

Chicago, December 22, 1912

With cordial regards, I am,

Very truly yours,

H.P. Dean (Dean Wigmore)

Thank you very much for your kind note of the 20th inst. It is, and has been

for long, very much my desire that our two institutions might cooperate in every friendly way. I have high esteem for your institution and for many of the men connected with it whom I happen to know.

I am sure that the worthy representatives of each of the universities will be glad rather than hindered

by the most friendly relationship among members of

the faculties, and by every means of mutual aid

Dean John H. Wigmore,

Northwestern University Law School,

Northwestern University Bldg., Chicago.

Mrs. Johnson was very glad to meet you, and having often heard about you from Mr. The lady to whom she presented you and to whom you refer was

Mrs. George E. Nekela. Mr. Nekela you, I believe.

Chicago, June 17, 1916

My dear Dean Wigmore:-

In connection with the very gracious recognition of the University of Chicago by Northwestern last Wednesday I beg to say that nothing pleased me more than the fact that I was presented for the degree by yourself. The last paragraph in your statement, aside of course from its personal implications, was absolutely correct, and I am confident that the relations between the two institutions will continue for all time to be thoroughly cordial and coöperative.

Very truly yours,

H.P.J. - L.

Dean John H. Wigmore,
Northwestern University Law School, Chicago.

Chicago, June 17, 1916

My dear Dean Wigmore:-

In connection with the very gracious recognition of the University of Chicago by Northwestern last Wednesday I beg to say that nothing pleased me more than the fact that I was presented for the degree by yourself. The last paragraph in your statement, aside of course from its personal implications, was absolutely correct, and I am confident that the relations between the two institutions will continue for all time to be thoroughly cordial and cooperative.
Very truly yours,

H.P.J. - L.

Dean John H. Wigmore,
Northwestern University Law School, Chicago.

Chairman

JOHN H. WIGMORE
NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY
31 WEST LAKE STREET, CHICAGO

256
Vice-Chairman

CHARLES H. GRANDGENT
HARVARD UNIVERSITY
107 WALKER STREET, CAMBRIDGE

THE COMMITTEE ON
GRADUATE STUDIES IN FRANCE

March 27, 1917.

President Harry Pratt Judson,
University of Chicago.

Dear Sir,

This is to invite you to join with us as one of the sponsors for a book now in the press, to be entitled "Science and Learning in France; a Handbook for American Graduate Students in French Universities."

The origin of the book is set forth in the enclosed leaflet headed "A Proposal etc." The authors of the book are named in another enclosed leaflet entitled "Universities Drafting Committee." The project for establishing ten or more fellowships for American graduate students in French Universities, to be selected by national competition, is so far advanced that several fellowships are already assured; a partial list of the eminent citizens from among whom, as patrons, the board of Trustees will be selected is shown on another enclosed leaflet. The Trustees have subscribed for the entire expense of publication. An edition of five thousand or more will be printed; and a copy will be sent to every college and university, to every important editorial sanctum, to every University Club, and to each sponsor.

The book will appear by June next. The drafting Committee has compiled a list of scholars in American colleges and Universities; the list to be printed in the book to show its American sponsors. As the book is in effect an homage from American scholarship to the scholarship of France, it was thought that you and many other sponsors.

March 27, 1917.

President Henry Ford
University of Chicago

Dear Sir,

It is an honor to invite you to join with us one of the sponsors for a book now in the press, to be entitled "Science and Learning in France; a Handbook for American Graduate Students in French Universities."

The origin of the book is not far from the enclosed leaflet headed "A Proposal etc." The outbreak of the war has meant in another enclosed leaflet entitled "University Booklet Committee."

The project for establishing an or work relationship for American graduate students in French universities, to be entitled "National competition, is so far advanced that several leaflets are already issued; a partial list of the content of these leaflets is given below, as follows. The Board of Trustees will be pleased to hear from you or enclosed leaflet. The Trustees have requested for the entire series of publications. The edition of this proposal is now will be printed; and a copy will be sent to every college and university, in every department educational system, to every University Club, and to book sponsors.

The book will appear by June 1, 1917. The right of the copyright is now in the hands of the University of Chicago and the book is now in the hands of the American sponsors. As the book is in the hands of the American sponsors, it is hoped that it will be of great value to the American graduate students in French universities.

many others would welcome the opportunity to join with us as sponsors. Our original Drafting Committee, for convenience' sake, had to be kept small. We cannot send a set of the entire proof to you for inspection; but the names of the eminent authors will be ample guarantee of the contents. There is in it not a word that is anti-German. As a sample, the chapter of Archaeology is herewith mailed to you in galley-proof.

The names of sponsors will be classified in the several fields of science as shown on the enclosed leaflet. Please let me know immediately on a postcard whether you consent to the inclusion of your name.

A fellowship will cost $1000. a year, and will last for two years; and ten or more fellowships will be awarded annually for ten years, beginning with 1918.

Our Committee will of course be glad if you could interest some benefactor to subscribe for part or all of a fellowship; if so, communicate with Chas. A. Coffin, Esq., 30 Church St., New York, N.Y. But that is as you please. Our only object in this letter is to give you an opportunity to join us as sponsors for the book.

Very truly yours,

Chairman.

very much to be desired. The opportunity to join with us in the future. Our original intention was to have a meeting in the fall. We have a lot of the matter to be decided upon; but the names of the speakers will be made known in the future. There is no doubt that General Sherman, the speaker of the occasion, is a man of great ability.

The names of speakers will be decided in the future.
It is a pleasure to know that the matter is being considered. We have a number of speakers in the future.

A letter will be sent to you in the future.
It is a pleasure to know that the matter is being considered. We have a number of speakers in the future.

Our Committee will of course be glad to hear from you.
Some suggestions are being made for the future.
We have a number of speakers in the future.
It is a pleasure to know that the matter is being considered. We have a number of speakers in the future.

Very truly yours,

Chairman.

Chicago, March 28, 1917

Dear Mr. Wigmore:

Your favor of the 27th inst. is received. Such a book as you indicate it seems to me would be of large value. I am quite willing to endorse it on your recommendation, and therefore you are at liberty to use my name if you wish among the list of sponsors.

Very truly yours,

H.P.J. - L.

Dean John H. Wigmore
31 West Lake Street, Chicago

Chicago, March 28, 1914

Dear Mr. Wigmore:

Your favor of the 27th inst. is received.

Such a book as you indicate it seems to me would be of large value. I am quite willing to endorse it on your recommendation, and therefore you are at liberty to use my name if you wish among the list of sponsors.

Very truly yours,

H. P. L. - L.

Dean John H. Wigmore
51 West Lake Street, Chicago