35

5749 Woodlawn Avenue

Chicag, Ill. December eleventh, Nineteen Hundred Eleven.

Zeisler

My dear President Judson:-

On December twenty-first I am to sail for Europe for an extended concert tour. I am engaged to appear as soloist with some of the foremost orchestras of Europe and to give recitals in the principal cities of England, France, Germany and Austria.

In connection with this tour I am anxious to be invited to play at the courts of London, Berlin and Vienna and at the President's Mansion in Paris. If your relations to our Ambassador at any of these cities are sufficiently cordial, I would appreciate it highly if you would give me a letter of introduction

ebruary 20, 1912

s not able to aid

pitals of Europe.

e had put it out vantage. How-been a great

she will do in

yours,

H.P.J.

Mr. Sigmund Zeisler,
5749 Woodlawn Ave., Chicago.

to him or them, stating some thing about my artistic and social position.
If not, could you give me a letter or letters to persons of high social standing who might be helpful to me in getting proper introductions to one or another of these Ambassadors?

Be assured in advance of my gratitude for whatever you may be able to do for me in this matter, and believe me,

Very sincerely yours,

Fannie Bloomfield Zeisler

I think that Mr. Charles R. Crane is quite well acquainted in Vienna.

With sincere regards and all best wishes

I am,

Chicago, December 12, 1911

Very truly yours,

H. P. Judson

My dear Mrs. Zeisler:-

I am much interested in your suggestion and note of the 11th inst., and shall be glad to do anything in my power to forward it. Recent changes in the various embassies have removed some whom I personally knew, and I believe that I have no direct personal acquaintance with our representatives in any of the four cities you name. I know Count Apponyi of Budapest, and will see what I can find to advantage in other cities.

6749 Woodlawn Ave., Chicago.

Chicago, December 12, 1911

My dear Mrs. Zelaler:-

I am much interested
your suggestion and note of the 11th inst.,
and shall be glad to do anything in my power forward it. Recent changes in the various embassies have removed some whom I personally know, and I believe that I have no direct personal acquaintance with our representative in any of the four cities you name. I know Count Apponyi of Budapest, and will see what I can find to advantage in other cities.

I think that Mr. Charles R. Crane is quite well acquainted in Vienna.

With sincere regards and all best wishes I am,

Very truly yours,

H.P.J.

H. P. Judson

Mrs. Fannie Bloomfield Zeisler,
5749 Woodlawn Ave., Chicago.

I think that Mr. Charles R. Crane is quite well acquainted in Vienna.

With sincere regards and all best wishes
I am,

Very truly yours,

H. P. Judson

Chicago, February 20, 1912

My dear Mr. Zeisler:-

I greatly regret that I was not able to aid Mrs. Zeisler in her request with regard to the capitals of Europe. I found that the changes in the diplomatic service had put it out of my power to communicate with anybody to her advantage. However, I see by the papers that her concerts have been a great success, and am sure that whatever she undertakes she will do in the very best way.

With sincere regards, I am,

Very truly yours,

H. P. Judson

Mr. Sigmund Zeisler,
5749 Woodlawn Ave., Chicago.

My dear Mr. Zeisler:-

I greatly regret that I was not able to grant Mrs. Zeisler in her request with regard to the [illegible]. I found that the changes in the diplomatic service [illegible] of my power to communicate with anybody to her advantage. However, I see by the papers that her concerts have been a great success, and am sure that whatever she undertakes will be carried the very best way.

With sincere regards, I am,

Very truly yours,

H. P. Judson