Dear Sir:-

The fourth edition of the "Biographical Directory of American Men of Science" having now been published, I am undertaking the preparation of a "Biographical Directory of American Scholars" to include those academic disciplines which are commonly called the humanities, that is all subjects except the natural and exact sciences.

I shall greatly appreciate your cooperation in assuring the inclusion of those professors of University of Chicago who have made contributions advancing knowledge in these fields, or who are distinguished for their work in teaching or educational administration.

Would it be possible to obtain through your office a list of those to whom special consideration should be given? They would be perhaps from 10 to 25 per cent. of the professors in those institutions that maintain high standards. In any case I shall be under obligations if you will have sent to me a catalogue of University of Chicago.

Very truly yours,

J. McKeen Cattell

OFFICE OF THE DEAN

Dean Frederic C. Woodward, Faculty Exchange.

Dear Mr. Woodward:

I send you herewith list of members of the Faculty of the Graduate School and College of Arts and Literature, the Divinity School, the Law School, the School of Commerce and Administration, the Graduate School of Social Service Administration, the Graduate Library School, and the Library, who seem to me to deserve mention in Dr. Cattell's forthcoming Directory.

After making this list, I noticed that the proportion of our departmental faculties included was larger than that which Dr. Cattell mentioned in his note to you. I have accordingly marked with an asterisk the names that seem to me to be the more important. At the same time, I would like to draw attention to the fact that a Directory of this kind has an increased value if it includes the names of men who, although younger, have already demonstrated the quality of their work and who belong in fact to the type of scholar that university administrators are constantly searching for to fill vacancies in their faculties.

Sincerely yours,

GJL:H
