My dear Mr. O'Flanagan:

Kindly accept this letter as a formal order for the full set of the Ordnance Survey Letters by John O'Donovan and others on which you quoted our Professor T. P. Cross a price of $250. This material should be addressed with appropriate billing to Harper Memorial Libraries, 59th Street and Ellis Avenue, the University of Chicago, and a letter of report should be sent to the Director, Mr. M. L. Raney. Payment from the Comptroller will be sent to you at once thereafter.

Very truly yours,

David H. Stevens

Assistant to the President

June 25, 1929

My dear Mr. Plimpton:

Attached is a requisition ordering certain Ordnance Survey Letters of Irish counties for use in the research work of Mr. T. P. Cross, General Education Board subsidy No. IV. Mr. Cross is not methodical, and left me the details of his purchase. He reported as he left town last week that he had told Mr. O'Flanagan to hold one of these sets until the order and funds reached him through the University offices. Payment of the amount of $250 is to be charged against the account of this year when I report that the books have been received.

Very truly yours,

David H. Stevens

Assistant to the President

Mr. N. C. Plimpton, Comptroller,
Faculty Exchange.

My dear Mr. President:-

In accordance with instructions received from Dean Loring, I hereby request permission to change the title of the Department of General Literature to "Department of Comparative Literature." The latter title is, in the judgment of Dean Loring and myself, more suitable in view of the work done in the department, less open to misunderstanding regarding the aims of the department, and more intelligible to students intending to work in the department.

With your approval I shall make the change in the forthcoming announcement.

Yours respectfully,

Trout R. Cross,

Chairman of the Department of General Literature.

My dear Mr. President -

In accordance with instructions received from your office, I have to change the title of the Department of Liberal Arts to "Department of Comparative Literature"

The latter title is in the interest of your university, more suitable in view of the department, less open to misunderstanding regarding the aim of the department, and more suitable to students intending to work in the department

With your approval I shall make the change in the forthcoming announcement

Yours respectfully,

Robert C. Marsh

Chairman of the Department of

Comparative Literature
