Prof. M. B. Hoey

Dear Sir

Yours of Feb. 24th was not recd till sometime after written, I appreciate your liberal offer, but my circumstances are such as seem to preclude my excepting it. When I gave those notes circumstances were more favorable with me than at present, & I hoped with prudence & economy & Gods blessing to be able to pay them as they came due. I much regret that it has been otherwise though. I have much to thank my Heavenly Father for I have not been prospered in this worlds good, Adversity has been my lot I have been obliged to sell my home here & have taken up land under the Home stead law in Iowa, I have but very limited means to take my family there & make our new home a little comfortable, Then I have a large family all girls except one little boy to feed clothe & educate if I can, Now to take of what little I have to pay those notes is it seems to take the food from my childrens mouths the clothes from their backs or the education from them necessary to make them respectable in the world

Now under these circumstances is it right that I should do it? is it right that you should exact it? I appeal to you as a Christian & a Philanthropist. If you have children you love them & love to see them comfortable & decently educated, Mine are as dear to me as yours to you, Should I ever be prospered so that I can pay reasonably shall be happy to do so, I wish the University well & God speed A great Blessing to the great Northwest & to our Denomination. Now I have stated to you the facts in my case without any exageration, Please place yourself in my condition & then say what is right what I must do, yours truly L. M. Dickinson

Dear Bro

I send report of Collection for the University of Chicago Received notes on J. P. Hungate of Louisville, A. E. Dye & J. P. Dye of Flora - all of Clay County. I made two trips over there & collected — at Second trip I collected of J. P. Hungate, his Notes given July 15th 1858 amounting in the aggregate to $100. with Six per cent interest

Collection $139.00

Commission 10 p. c. 13.90

$125.10

I sent you cash in December 1864, by my Wife, One Hundred & Twenty Five & 10/100 Dollars, for which I have your receipt.

This closes J. P. Hungate's account.

I have still been trying to get something from C. E. Dye but could not when I last saw him. My impression is that the account is not worth over 10¢ on the Dollar. Jas. M. Dye has moved to Mutteon & when I last heard from him, he was an object of charity. The whole account is not worth 10 cts

Yours Truly J. S. Mahan

P.S. I thought I had made this report long since - till I received your note.

I did the best I could, & had a good deal of trouble.

With best wishes to you & the University, I remain

Yours Truly

Treasurer, &c
Chicago,

My Dr. Sir,

In reply to your application for payment of notes held agst me by Trustees of Chicago University I scarcely know how to make answer. I am unable at this time to make them in whole or in part. In making this statement it is due to the board and to myself that I make known the facts that have hitherto prevented and still longer delay payment. When I executed the notes my circumstances and prospects in life were different from what they now are. I was then one of the owners and publishers of the Chicago Times. It was suggested to me by the Rev Dr Bannard,

I am unable as stated to do anything at this time. The past season has been so adverse that it is with difficulty that I have been able to keep my just from offspring. All I can promise is to do something in the fall of the present year. I cannot before. Harsh measures on the part of the board will only ruin me without helping the University. Nor do I believe that they can be justly resorted to, - misfortune should not be treated as a crime,

Asking the further indulgence indicated of the board. and your good offices in relation thereto,

I remain

Very truly Yours

Daniel Cameron

that as the University would require a large amt of printing, assistance, he doubted not, could and would be extended to me in this way towards paying the notes.

The financial crisis of the times, the disruption of the Democratic party, the defeat and death of Mr. Douglas changed my circumstances and prospects in life, what had promised fair enough was turned to darkness, unable to maintain my position I retired from the paper disposing of my interest to one who was reputed to be a person of wealth, and who formerly occupied a seat in one of the boards of the University. Through no fault of my own, but through the villainy of another I was stripped not only of my original capital but of the hard earnings of many years. My notes from Mr Price for payment of interest in the Chicago Times remain unpaid until the present day.

I stated the circumstances to Dr. Burroughs and the late Mr. Jones, the latter gentleman held possession of the notes at the time, - he told me that he could not press me under the circumstances, Dr Burroughs suggested that a statement and application might with propriety be laid before the board of Trustees, as the case was one over which he had no personal control. I am not in circumstances to meet these notes, I have no income save what is drawn from the farm and dairy at all times small and precarious enough, but last year inflicting a loss instead of yielding a profit. I can not interest, having discharged in full my business liability contracted by me in life. All I have known is in the farm which furnishes myself and family at the same time a home and maintenance.

to the fact that you had not had a receipt for the money sent to me last December. I think I gave the receipt to the man Mr Roney or Mr Jackson whichever it was that handed me the money & he was to forward it to you. I therefore mark the one I now send as "duplicate" I assure you the remittance was most welcome & I ought to have written you acknowledging your kindness. I remember the pleasant visit which I enjoyed at your house & your kind hospitality. I often find myself threatening to repeat it. My kind regards to Mrs Dyer & your family. Shall be glad to see you all here

Mr I C Burroughs Chicago University

In Compliance Request
I received a letter a few days since in regard to a note that the university holds against me in answer I would say it is impossible for me to pay it at present I gave the note contrary to my own feelings knowing I was not able to do it but had the assurance that I would not have any trouble about it if it was not paid I have not seen the time that I could pay it since I gave it I lost nearly all my property in Illinois and have nothing now only what I can earn by my own labour and this is rather hard for a man as old as I am I have been trying to get a living on a rocky farm and have barely made my ends meet but I have left it now and I do not know what I shall do at present if I ever get able I shall be glad to pay it but to do it at present would be very hard and it take from my family the necessaries of life hopeing you will take the will for the deed I am yours Respectfully Yours dtd. yours letter reached me the 10. inst In regard to my note to the University I gave it in good faith and expected to pay it at that time I was doing quite a business in Groceries trade in Rockville Ills. but as you will see by this letter I am now in Neb. I am a poor homesteader had my crops taken by the Grasshoppers this year and it is all I can do to take care of my family. and if my note must be ~~paid~~ paid you will have to wait until I am able to meet it when that will be I cannot tell you.

Under these circumstances you must do as you think best but if you could cancel my note and return it to me I will take it as a great favor but if this cannot be done I shall have to bear the consequences.

Dear Sir

Your letter was received a few days ago. I can only say when I signed that note I was able to pay it, But in consequence of loss of property I left Illinois poor. I commenced in Kansas did a large business and hoped to be able to pay that last year but the Grasshoppers nearly ruined us by ruining others. We have nearly $6,000 invested in that Grasshopper district, good for nothing to day I made out to get away and that was about all. I am now located in Burlington Iowa and if I ever get able to pay that Note I will

Mr Gazette

Dear Sir

Yours of the 13th is at hand, in answer to the question, how much I paid for Scholarship I would say that the bargain with the agent Rev C Button, was that if I would pay $500, with interest as specified in said note the Church here should have a scholarship, to be named after me, Rev Button & Rev Griffeth now of Milwaukie would take care of the rest, or $560, Mayd C Hinkley Stowell, Giglio, Wastie, gave each $100, who gave the other $100, I do not know. I think it was Dr Griffeth I am not positive, but think it all paid as agreed, excepting a part of Griffeths, and perhaps Stowell, he moved away soon after, and I am unimformed about it, when I paid my last note, I wrote Dr Burroughs about it, (two years since) and he sent a postal card stating in consideration of the amount ($620 inc) and my punctuality, and the agreement, I was entitled to the Scholarship and sent it me

Not paid

In response to your favor of above date I enclose herewith copies of the receipts & letters from Dr Burroughs which are in my hands. While alive Mr. Dyer had great difficulty in obtaining receipts from B. and you will notice there is now one receipt lacking. Last acknowledgement of the $100. for which no separate receipt was given is made under date of June 7th 1894 and for 15% 1895. Mr. Dyer was assured several times by B. that the endorsements were made on his note.

I trust you will not think that I have any inclination to blame you in connection with this. I can easily understand the perplexities and difficulties of your position. Especially as I know something of the character of the man you succeed.

Mr. Gazette, Dear Sir: —

At request of Dr. A. D. Babcock, I write to you in reference to his scholarship, on which $200 on it is due.

He feels he cannot possibly pay the balance, & yet feels the $800 he has paid should return him something. His health is entirely gone, & no hope of recovery. His means are limited, & he is anxious to provide for his family when he is gone.

This both presents his paying remaining $200.

And makes him desirous to reap some profit from the $800.

What can be done in his case?

Would it not be possible at least to secure him a scholarship with some conditions or restrictions?

At all events, might he not be assured that his own children should have the benefit of Univ. without usual tuitions.

May I ask you to inform me what is the best proposition that can be made him?

Respectfully Yours

Dr Sir

I had some correspondence with you some time ago, some two years ago or more, about the claim of the University of Chicago against me. I could not then see my way clear to pay it, or make any definite pledge as to the future. I cannot pay it now, but am desirous of having it settled in some way, & would like to know how it can be done, or what arrangement can be made.
