Rev. M. R. Long,

Dear Sir,

My Father was away from home when your letter was received, and this morning has not time to answer it before the mail closes. He requests me to do it for him.

My uncle A. B. Davis, went to Lucas to reside several years ago. and for more than three years we had not heard from them until two months ago; we received letters from there, by way of blockade-runners, saying uncle was dead. My Father has no money, or property of his, in his hands, and there is none that can be had that he knows of.

Uncle's business was left in the hands of his partner to settle, and he has never been able to find out any thing about it. He ^{had} had some property ^{for Amalee} taken on a garnishment, which has ^{been} sold. This, I believe, is a correct statement of what Fasher told me.

Respectfully

Marion H. Davis

Dear Sir:

Your note is received and duly noted.

The case is substantially as you have learned it from Dr. Whiteland.

My husband's estate was solvent.

I have to receive a certain amount in lieu of one third. Thus, I have no connection with the liabilities of the estate. Why the obligation in favor of the University was not cancelled I cannot say. Mr. Clyburn was the principal executor; the business was closed up years ago. My husband's sons have, unfortunately lost what they received, and are poor. I will only add what I have omitted that they were
